McCormick Gains Form, Wins 4-2

By United Press International
Lefty Mike McCormick, regaining some of his old form, stopped the Milwaukee Braves with four hits Saturday in pitching the San Francisco Giants to a 4-2 victory.

Going the distance for the first time in eight starts this year, McCormick did not allow a hit until the sixth inning when the Braves got both of their runs on a single by Dennis Menke, which was followed by Lee Maye's first home run of the season.

Strikes Out
McCormick struck out four and allowed only one pass in boosting his season record to 4-2. The loss went to Bob Shaw, now 9-3, who was seeking his sixth straight triumph.

Jim Davenport tied the score with a two-run single in the sixth, then the Giants went ahead with two more runs in the seventh while routing the former American league star.

Willie Mays started the rally by doubling through second baseman Frank Bolling's legs, then scored when Manke made a wild throw from shortstop on Matty Alou's infield single. Alou eventually tallied on another single by Felipe Alou.

Richie Ashburn, who hit only 22 homers in 14 big league seasons prior to 1962 campaign, hit his fourth and fifth of this season, drove in three runs and scored four to lead the New York Mets to a 13-2 rout of the Houston Astros. Joe Christopher also homered for the Mets and Al Spangler homered for Houston. Jay Hook pitched an eight-hitter for his fifth victory.

Bob Gibson struck out six and pitched a six-hitter as the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-1. Ken Boyer homered and Curt Flood had three hits in the Cardinals' 13-hit attack.

Pirates Win
Don Hoak's two-run ninth-inning homer lifted the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-3 decision over the Chicago Cubs after the Cubs took a 3-2 lead in the top of the frame when Bob Friend walked pinch-hitter Don Landrum with the bases filled. Dick Stuart homered for the Pirates, who have beaten the Cubs in nine of 10 games this season.

Cheney Studs Play At Klamath Falls

Central Point—Central Point Cheney Studs head for Klamath Falls today eyeing a big opportunity in American League junior baseball.

The Studs meet the Klamath Hawks in a doubleheader beginning at 12:30 p.m. (standard time). First game will count in the Area 4 southern division standings.

This is the opportunity—a victory for the Studs would tie them for first in the division standings. And, it could be a three-way tie. Medford, without a game this week end, is 3-1 in the circuit. Central Point is 2-1. Klamath's Falcons were 2-1 before entertaining Grants Pass last night.

Pro Bowl Loop Plans To Continue

Eugene—Franchise holders in the Oregon Professional Bowling League have announced intentions of continuing the year old OPBL for a second season. Definite organizational structure and league plans are expected to be formed at a league meeting to be held here soon.

Results from the first year of league operation have been mixed. Attendance at the matches last winter started off on the heavy side but diminished considerably before the season ended.

Bowling scores at the beginning of play in November last year were definitely on the weak side. Oregon pro bowlers simply were not accustomed to the noise and shouts which are allowable during professional bowling.

Scores did improve as the season wore on, however, as most of the bowlers learned how to handle the pressure of spectator enthusiasm.

OPBL franchise holders have agreed that the first year's schedule was definitely working against the league's success. Following opening day only one pro match was played each Sunday. Four teams in the league were always idle each week. This type of schedule destroyed the continuity which any sporting event needs in order to maintain interest.

Changes Talked
Many changes have been discussed for next year's operations. First on the list is a scheduling of each team in action each week. Franchise holders have also agreed that a substantial prize pot of at least $5,000 for next year's play is an absolute must.

In order to guarantee a $5,000 pot, it has been decided to expand the league from the present six teams to eight teams and to divide the league into a northern and southern division. The eight franchises will be sold for next year on the basis of $750 per team.

Vancouver, Wash., Coors Bay, and The Dalles have been mentioned as likely additions to the league next year. Membership this season included Salem, Portland, Medford, Eugene, Roseburg and Klamath Falls.

Whatever the form of the next year's OPBL, its backers feel that professional bowling is here to stay in Oregon. It is new, it is different, and it is a crowd-pleaser. These are three important elements for the success of any professional sports venture.

Yankees, Tigers Split Twin Bill

By United Press International
Phil Regan's homer in not covering first base on Mickey Mantle's grounder enabled Yogi Berra to blast his ninth grand slam homer Saturday and the New York Yankees went on to whip the Detroit Tigers, 8-4, in the first part of a day-night twin bill.

Berra's blast came with two outs in the first inning to send Ralph Terry toward his eighth victory. But the squat little catcher never would have batted if it hadn't been for Regan's mental lapse.

The Tigers came back to grab the second game at night 5-4.

Ron Hansen's two-run eighth-inning homer and Billy Hoelt's 7 1/3 innings of shutout relief pitching carried the Baltimore Orioles to a 5-3 win over the Boston Red Sox. Hansen connected off Arnold Earley after Jim Gentile opened the eighth with a single. Gary Geiger had three hits for the Red Sox.

Chuck Cottier singled home two runs in the top of the ninth and they turned out to be decisive as the Washington Senators defeated the league-leading Cleveland Indians, 5-3. Dave Stenhouse yielded six hits in 8 1/3 innings to gain credit for his fifth triumph.

Luis Aparicio stroked five consecutive singles and Nelson Fox and Joe Cunningham drove in two runs each as the Chicago White Sox whipped the Kansas City Athletics, 6-1. Juan Pizarro, who tired in the sixth, and Frank Baumann combined in a four-hitter that dealt the Athletics their sixth straight defeat.

Jim Kaat of the Minnesota Twins allowed only three hits in blanking the Los Angeles Angels, 5-0, for his seventh straight victory. The Twins scored all their runs on homers off Eli Grba. Zoilo Versalles contributed a three-run blast in the second and Vic Power hit solo homers in the third and sixth innings.

Johnson Decisions Bubi Scholz

Berlin — UPI — Light heavyweight champion Harold Johnson of Philadelphia kept his title Saturday night on a unanimous 15-round decision over southpaw Gustav (Bubi) Scholz, but the German challenger provided such a grueling fight that the 35,000 in Olympic Stadium were on their feet and cheering in nearly every round.

There were no knockdowns in Germany's first world title bout but Scholz, 32, was staggered by a right to the chin in the sixth round and Johnson's knees were buckled by a left hook and straight right to the head in the 10th.

Scholz accidentally slipped to one knee in the first round.

Johnson, 33, made his first defense of the 175-pound crown since gaining worldwide (except for California) recognition last May and his fourth defense since he won American National Boxing association recognition in February 1961.

Scholz, who had hoped to become Germany's second world champion like former heavyweight ruler Max Schmeling, who was at the ringside, suffered a slight cut under his right eye in the seventh round and a big gash on his left eyebrow in the 15th.

Johnson, weighing 172 1/2 pounds to dark-haired Gustav's 171, scored his 18th straight victory when the three ring officials voted for him as follows: Referee Ike Powell of Wales, 73-70; Judge Philippe De Bakker of Belgium, 72-64, and Judge Georges Gondre of France, 72-70.

The United Press International agreed, 73-70.

Finn Better Vault Record
Kuhava, Finland — UPI — Luck came today to Pentti Nikula, a slender Finnish pole vaulter who had an unofficial leap of 16 feet, 2 1/2 inches disallowed a week ago because his pole followed him over the bar.

Nikula, a 23-year-old gym teacher who stands 5-10 and weighs only 152 pounds, matched that leap Friday during the Finnish national championships to top the unofficial world record for the event.

Shaw Falls In NCAA's Golf Semis

Durham, N.C. — UPI — Tom Shaw of Oregon fell from the NCAA Golf Tournament Friday.

Shaw, a 23-year-old former Marine, was beaten in the semifinals by Homero Blancos of Houston 3 and 2.

The loss came after he defeated Mark Hopkins of Houston 3 and 1 in the quarterfinals.

Kermit Zarley of Houston gained the finals with Blancos. He beat Bill Garrett, North Texas State, 1 up in the semis.

Albuquerque, N.M. — UPI — University of Washington coed Judy Hoetmer and Carol Sorenson of Arizona State gained semifinal round victories Friday in the National Women's Collegiate Golf Tournament here.

Miss Hoetmer defeated Sandra Palmer of North Texas State, 2 and 1, while Miss Sorenson bested Julie Hill of Purdue, 7 and 6.
