

Miss Lindbloom

Lindblooms Tell Betrothal News

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Lindbloom, Roseburg, recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Jean Lindbloom, to William Thomas Hamlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Hamlin, 2309 Hillcrest road.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Roseburg High school and Oregon State university where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The news was first made known at the chapter house during a traditional "cookie shine."

Mr. Hamlin was graduated from Medford High school where he was on the football, basketball and golf teams. He is attending Oregon State university and will be graduated in August. Later he is to be commissioned an ensign in the Naval Reserve Officer Candidate school and is to report for duty at Newport, R.I.

The wedding is set for late summer in Roseburg.

Mother Visits

Mrs. Mary Hobbs, Orange, Calif., arrived last Monday to visit for about a month with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Graff Jr., 2156 West Hillside drive.

Ingle-Hennebeck Ceremony Held

Miss Mary Ruth Hennebeck and Angel I. Ingle were married Saturday, June 16, in a 10 o'clock morning ceremony held in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Ilg celebrated the nuptial mass and read the double-ring ceremony. About 100 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hennebeck, 1317 Siskiyou boulevard, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ingle, 1978 Table Rock road.

Miss Rita Dupray was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Dyanne Jackson and Vickie Burwash. Flower girls were Robin Alesko and Cathy Boardman.

Paul Smith was best man and ushers were Clyde Fjarli and Clarence Allen.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly type lace over taffeta designed with basque bodice and Sabrina neckline embroidered with pearls and sequins. The overskirt of silk organza was edged with a wide band of scalloped lace and was caught up in front and back by lace roses; the roses were repeated on the sides of the skirt.

Her fingertip illusion veil was held from a princess crown of matching lace with pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

The attendants wore similar ballerina length dresses. Miss Dupray's being pastel pink while the others were powder blue. The cummerbunds and tiered back panels were of deeper shades of the same colors. Their matching hats were designed in the form of flower crowns which they wore with bouffant veils. They carried bouquets of daisies.

The flower girls wore matching pink taffeta dresses with pink voile overskirts and they carried baskets of cascaded daisies.

The church was decorated with pink gladioli. Donald McPherson and Miss Patricia Meeker sang the wedding songs and Miss Marilyn Guldman was organist.

The bride's mother wore a beige silk sheath dress with turquoise accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue lace dress with white accessories. Both had cymbidium orchid corsages.

About 65 persons attended the reception which was held in the Girls Community club. Pink gladioli decorated the rooms.

Cutting the wedding cake were Mrs. Merle Johnson and Mrs. Gerry Hennebeck, aunts of the bride. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Ray Welter, aunt of the bride and serving the punch were Mrs. Thomas Oaks and Miss Joy Ingle, sisters of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Steven Rainwater had charge of registering the guests and assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Ronald Adams and Miss Barbara Hennebeck.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Mary Welter, Stayton, Ore., grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Douglas Bradley, Mrs. Dennis Blades, and Mrs. Gary Shilhanek, all of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hennebeck, Roseburg, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hennebeck, Roseburg; Mrs. Merle Johnson, of Glendale, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Welter, Mrs. Norman Nuxoll and daughter, Brenda, of Stayton; Miss Barbara Hennebeck, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Adams, Eugene, and Miss Grace Pearman, Portland.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco and will live at 1977 Table Rock road. For traveling the bride wore a two-piece turquoise dress with matching coat and white accessories.

The bride attended St. Mary's High school and is employed as a bookkeeper at Baron Supply company. The bridegroom is a salesman at Weisfield's jewelry store. He attended Medford High school.
