

European Trip Plan Of Yreka

Yreka-Mrs. A. A. Sherman of Yreka will leave June 30 by plane for London, England, on a two-months vacation in Europe and a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Major and Mrs. John McDonagh.

Major McDonagh, who has been stationed at Sculthorpe near Sheringham, England, where his family has been residing, is being transferred the middle of this month to Lakenheath, England, where he will be commanding officer. His family will remain in Sheringham until after Mrs. Sherman's arrival in England.

In July Mrs. Sherman will meet a former college roommate in Europe and will accompany her on a visit to Sweden. Mrs. Sherman also plans to visit Paris, France, and other places of interest.

Mrs. Sherman will be taken to San Francisco, from where she will leave for Europe, by her son, William Sherman, who formerly played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, now is a partner and operator of a trucking business, "The Rams Express" in Los Angeles. Co-owners of the business in addition to Sherman, are Don Burroughs, ex-Ram now playing with the Philadelphia Eagles, and George Strugar, who is still with the Rams.

Sherman's wife and four children will spend the summer at the Sherman home in Yreka. Richard Sherman, another son will also visit here this summer. They live in Eureka.

Farewell Party Held For Teels; Reception Set

Yreka - A farewell party was held on the patio of the Warren Behnke home on Cedar street for the Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Teel and son, Jon, by the members and friends of the Methodist church. Mr. Teel has been the pastor of the Yreka church for the past year and is now being transferred to Colusa, Calif.

A purse was presented the Teels and Mr. Teel said he planned a trip to New England to visit his 94-year-old father.

The Rev. and Mrs. Donald Donthue will be the new minister and family from the Wayside church at Vallejo, Calif. He assumed his duties today.

A reception will be held in their honor Wednesday, June 27, in the form of a potluck and picnic to be held at the Yreka City park at 6:30 p.m. All families and friends of the membership are invited to attend. Those attending are to take a hot dish or salad and their own table service. Coffee, punch and ice cream will be furnished.

Teacher Leaves For Institute And Convention

Mrs. Maxine (Paul R.) Smith, Madrona lane, left yesterday by air for Boulder, Colo., where she will enroll for a special course at the University of Colorado for the summer month.

Mrs. Smith teaches foreign languages at Medford High school. The course in which she will be enrolled is a Modern Language institute given as part of the National Defense Education act, and certain teachers are chosen for the work. Classes are concentrated, and meet from 6:15 a.m. until 11 p.m. for eight weeks.

In the Medford teacher's section, the spoken German language and cultural aspects of the language and linguistics will be stressed.

During the course she will be granted leave to attend the annual convention of the National Education association in Denver since she is on the resolutions and policy committee of NEA.

Applegate Valley Residents Travel

Applegate Valley - Mrs. Elizabeth Vessell was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Peter Olson, Tillamook, Ore. While there she also visited her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vessell, and their daughter who are in Oregon from their home in Anchorage, Alaska.

Among others making trips recently are Mr. and Mrs. Willis Scott, who have returned from Mexico. They also spent some time with friends and relatives enroute. Mr. and Mrs. John Byrne, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams and daughters of Medford, also left recently on a trip to the Seattle World's Fair and to Canada.
