

Law, Ford Win Despite Sore Arms

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer
The stakes seem higher than ever for Vernon Law and Wiley Ford this year, but the two veteran pitchers are coming through in championship style.

Law and Ford already have proven they can beat the best and now they must best sore arms that are threatening their careers.

Law, who won only three games last year, went all the way for his fifth triumph of 1962 Monday night as the Pittsburgh Pirates routed the New York Mets 13-3. Ford also showed championship form in helping the New York Yankees gain a 2-0 decision over the Detroit Tigers. Ford was forced to leave the game with one out in the ninth inning, however, when he felt a sharp twinge in his left shoulder. Marshall Bridges came on to complete the shutout.

Law's task was made easier when his teammates tallied six runs in the first inning off New York starter Craig Anderson. Smoky Burgess and Roberto Clemente paced Pittsburgh's 15-hit attack with three safeties each. The victory was Law's fifth in eight decisions.

The Yankee-Tiger affair was the only game scheduled in the American league, while in other National league action the San Francisco Giants closed in first place by beating the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1; the Los Angeles Dodgers lost to the Milwaukee Braves, 6-4; the St. Louis Cardinals rallied for a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs, and the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Houston Colts, 4-3.

San Francisco, sparked by Willie Mays' alert base running and some surprising defense work by leftfielder Willie McCovey, moved to within a half-game of the league-leading Dodgers. Mays set up the decisive run by stealing third base in the third inning and McCovey started a double play in the fifth after catching a sinking liner by losing pitcher Jim Maloney. Billy O'Dell went all the way for his eighth victory.

Hank Aaron drove in three runs with a single and a homer and Eddie Mathews drove home two others as the Braves overcame a four-run deficit. Tommy Davis had five hits in five attempts for the Dodgers to raise his batting average to .342 and a tie for the league lead with Stan Musial. Reliever Carl Willey got the win and Ron Perranski took the loss.

The Cardinals, down 3-0 after three innings, drew even with Chicago in the fifth inning and went ahead for good with two runs in the sixth. Bill White homered for St. Louis while Ernie Banks hit a three-run homer for the Cubs, his 21st. Starter Ray Washburn gained credit for his fifth victory in eight decisions while Glen Hobbie was charged with his ninth defeat against a single win.

Tony Taylor got his third single with one out in the ninth inning to drive in the winning run for Philadelphia. It also was his third RBI of the game. Dallas Green retired the first 11 batters he faced in relief to even his season record at 2-2.

Dairy Maids Play Florists Tonight

This is a busy week at Memorial field, White City. And tonight the ladies take over the men's world.

Rogue Valley Dairy Maids are hostesses to the Erv Lind Florists of Portland for Northwest Major league softball. First game is billed for 7:30 p.m.

The Florists are the first of the "big name" foes the Maids will oppose on the Veterans Administration domiciliary diamond this season.

ending state titlist. The Maids took the crown at White City last year. They have some fine talent of their own.

Louise Mazzuca, one of the top softball flingers in this country, and Marion Kozak are expected to do the pitching for the Florists. Pat Barron and Ellen Callaghan are the Maids pitchers.

Softballers Vie Tonight

Two games and a part of another are slated this evening in the Jackson County Softball association.

Central Point Merchants meet Communication Workers of America at 6:45 p.m. at Cheney field. Then Central Point and Tru-Mix Concrete will replay a game from point of protest in the top of the seventh inning. Tru-Mix then has a full game against Keith Schulz.

All of this action is vital since Schulz is tied with Grants Pass for top spot in the loop and Tru-Mix is just a half-game behind.

Games tonight are the last on the regular schedule of the league's first half, except for a Butte Falls-Grants Pass makeup fray, date for which has not been reported. Sam Jennings company has protested its game last week with Jay Allen Cars but no decision has been made on the matter. League President Harry Chipman said he had yet to receive an umpire's report on the matter.

Wednesday and Thursday are dates for league makeup. A league meeting has been set for Thursday evening at the Medford hotel. It will be determined whether the league will continue as one unit or be split into major and minor leagues for the second half.

White Sox Deal For Maxwell, Dean Stone

Chicago—UPI—Chicago White Sox brass felt today they got the best of the deal in trading Bob Farley and Russ Kemmerer to get Charlie Maxwell and Dean Stone.

Maxwell, 35, came from the Tigers in a waiver deal for the 25-year-old Farley. Stone, 32, also was obtained on waivers from the Houston Colts who, in turn, purchased Kemmerer from the White Sox for an estimated $20,000.

Denver Bears Smack Indianapolis in AA

By United Press International
The Denver Bears smacked the front-running Indianapolis Indians 6-3 last night and moved to within a half game of second place Omaha in the American Association.

The hosting Dodgers were walloped 6-3 by the Dallas-Fort Worth Rangers. Visiting Louisville checked Oklahoma City, 4-2.

Jerry Tarr, Forman on U.S. Team

Walnut, Calif.—UPI—Oregon's Jerry Tarr and Keith Forman are going to get a crack at the Russians.

They were named to the U.S. team which will compete next month against Russia in an international track meet.

The squad also will face Poland. Former Oregon standout Jim Grelle also was named to the team.

Tarr, two-time NCAA 120-yard high hurdles champion, won his specialty and edged archrival Hayes Jones in the process. His time was 13.4 seconds.

He took the 220-yard low hurdles race in 22.6 seconds. Forman, who turned in a sub four-minute mile this spring, finished second in the 3,000-meter steeplechase. He was behind George Young of Las Cruces, N.M., and was timed in 8:52.2.

Grelle came in second in the mile. Jim Beatty of the Los Angeles Track club won the race in 3:57.9, his best effort yet.

The U.S. team will face Poland this weekend at Chicago and will take on the Russians at Stanford, Calif., July 21-22.

Wenatchee Ups Northwest League Margin

By United Press International
Wenatchee boosted its Northwest League margin to two games over Yakima Monday night with a 2-1 victory in 11 innings over the second-place Bears.

Eugene topped Salem 9-3 and Tri-City won over Lewiston 7-1 in other action.

Ken Fruichter of Wenatchee homered in the first inning and the Chiefs downed the Bears in the overtime on a pair of singles, an intentional walk and then another walk to Nelson Mathews with the sacks loaded.

Dick Estelle pitched a five-hitter in Eugene's victory as the Emeralds broke it wide open with five runs in the sixth. Estelle binged a triple during the big frame.

Bob Sprout of Tri-City limited Lewiston to but three hits. Tri-City scored six runs in the seventh to win it on four singles, two walks, two errors and a double.

The Eugene-Salem game was played in Medford's White City stadium. About 2,000 fans attended.

Lake Geneva, Wis.—UPI—Wendy Moberly of La Grande, Ore., shot a 45-46-91 Monday in the Women's Western Golf Association junior tournament here. Medalist was Sherry Taylor, Oklahoma City, with a 79.

Eugene Diamonders Smash Salem Dodgers 9-3 in NWL Engagement at White City

Memorial Field, White City—A Eugene Emerald baseball team, unproclaimed as a hitting aggregation and riding in its circuit's cellar spot, burst out with a bombardment of base blows here last night that rocked the Salem Dodgers 9 to 3.

Eugene rose up to squelch the Dodgers with a 14-hit assault in a regular Northwest league fracas which displayed the Class B brand of professional baseball to an estimated 2,000 Rogue valley fans.

The Emerald's Dick Estelle, who went into the tangle with an unimpressive 2-11 pitching record, chucked a five-hitter at the Salemites and helped on offense with a single and a triple. He scored two runs and blasted one across.

Dick Dietz, bonus player catcher, paced the Em attack. He doubled twice, singled once and batted home two runs.

Script Tossed Out

For five cantos the engagement was played as if to a script. Then Eugene banged over a go-ahead sixth-inning score and in the seventh chucker completely threw away the book. The Em's at this stage battered relief pitcher Tom Murray for four hits and five runs. And, these markers put triumph in the bag.

Murray, relieving the Dodger's highly-prized starter, Darrell Peters, who was charged with his third loss, came in at the start of the seventh. He struck out Dietz but gave up a single to Wally Cockerell and walk to Stan Patykula. Joe McLaughlin followed with a safety and Arley Kangas and Dick Estelle belted back to back three-base knocks.

That put four runs across the platter and Murray gave way to hurler Ken Page. Carlos Dore grounded out but Don Pope singled home Estelle who was Murray's responsibility.

Eugene got off to a shaky start which allowed the game's lone unearned run. Lou Ertle was safe on a bunt single in the first panel and made it to second base on Estelle's bad throw on a pick off attempt. With two out Dick Bogard popped the ball. The fly ball hopped out of third base to a Patykula's glove and Ertle raced home for the score.

The Em's bounced back in the bottom of the frame on a double by Pope, a wild pitch, a walk and a single by Dietz.

It was three up and three down for both clubs in the next two stanzas. In the fourth Bogard's hit, two of the seven walks Estelle issued and a sacrifice flyout by Bob Cox scored a run for Salem. But Eugene made it two-all on a two-bagger down the third base line by Dietz and one-base sock by Wally Cockerell and Patykula.

Doubles by Vic Pagel and Bill Kelso put Salem on top 3 to 2 in the top of the fifth inning. Eugene tied it again in the bottom of the frame on a base on balls, a hit by Jose Calero and a Dietz's double. The Em's in this canto had a runner forced at the plate and left three men stranded.

In the sixth session Estelle singled and advanced to second on a Dore groundout. Don Pope two-baggered. Calero doubled, scoring Estelle. Pope tried to make it home but was thrown out at the plate by centerfielder Pagel.

While the big seventh inning spurge settled the issue, Salem did bid in the eighth inning when Estelle walked two batters with no one out. Salem then went down on two strikeouts and a flyout. The Dodgers had the bases full with two down in the ninth.

Hard-hitting marked the contest. Six of the 14 Eugene hits were for extra bases. Salem had two doubles among its five blows. A clout by the Em's Dietz was an automatic double when it bounced over the right field fence some 410 feet from home.

Pope, Calero, Cockerell along with Estelle for Eugene and Pagel of Salem each had two hits.

Estelle recorded seven strikeouts. Peters, who has won eight tilts, gave up nine hits along with the first four runs before leaving the game.

Fielding Jewel

Fielding gem of the night was centerfielder Dore's long run for a one-handed shoestring snare of a fly ball off Pagel's bat.

Each team left 10 men on base.

The game was one of four Eugene is scheduled to play at White City this summer. Eugene will meet Salem again on Aug. 2 and Lewiston, Idaho, and Tri-City, Wash., in later August games. They also will be in regular league play as the Northwest loop seeks to stir Rogue valley interest in the circuit.

Trouble with the record player, a warped record version of the Star Spangled Banner and a faux pas with the lights marked the start of the game. But, these things were pretty well forgotten as the fray progressed. The lights would not go on by the usual push of the press box button because a switch elsewhere was off.

The crowd fell short of hopes of the sponsoring Central Point Junior Chamber of Commerce who had made seating available for 3,000 persons.

Eight straight hits helped account for seven runs during a wild second inning as Portland bopped the Giants, 9-3.

Meanwhile, the yo-yo race for first place continued unabated as Vancouver topped San Diego 6-5 with an unearned run in the seventh in the only other game played.

The loss left the Padres and Salt Lake City in a virtual tie for first place with the Bees enjoying a lead of but two percentage points.

Portland teed off on Danny Rivas for six straight hits in the big second which was featured by doubles by Chet Boak and Charlie Secrest.

Relief pitcher Tom Arruda gave up two more hits and the skein of eight straight tied a mark held jointly by five other teams.

Ron Dedus, Portland third sacker, hit a two-run homer in the seventh and Bill Hain of the losers belted one with nobody aboard in the fourth.

Jim Rants of Vancouver received credit for the Mounties' victory in relief of George Bamberger. The game was marred by two errors for each club in addition to three wild pitches.
