Roberts Hurls Fourth Win In Row for Baltimore Club

By FRED DOWN

A courtesy telephone call to "has been" Robin Roberts is paying off for the Baltimore Orioles in the major league comeback of the year. The 35-year-old Roberts, handed his unconditional release by the New York Yankees on May 11, left his number with Orioles' General Manager Lee MacPhail, who confessed: "The name was Robin Roberts... I didn't know how much he could have left in his arm... But I returned the call out of courtesy to his record and his reputation."

It appears today it was one of the best decisions MacPhail ever made.

Roberts, who had a 1-10 record with the Philadelphia Phillies last season and showed a composite 55-79 record over his last five seasons in the National league, turned in a five-hitter Wednesday night to pitch the Orioles to a 3-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Fourth Straight Win
It was Roberts' fourth straight win for the Orioles after losing his first two decisions, raised his mark to 4-2, for the season and, in the process, reduced his earned run average to 2.50. In 54 innings, the one-time gopher ball champ of the National league, who's become a slow curveball pitcher, has yielded only two homers to American league hitters.

Jim Gentile gave Roberts the runs he needed when he connected for his 18th and 19th homers of the season to drive in all the Orioles' runs. The White Sox scored their run off Roberts on a single by Nelson Fox, a walk and Joe Cunningham's single.

The New York Yankees beat the Minnesota Twins, 7-3, the Detroit Tigers shut out the Cleveland Indians, 4-0, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Washington Senators, 4-1, and the Los Angeles Angels whipped the Boston Red Sox, 3-0, in other American league games.

In the National league, the first-place San Francisco Giants downed the Cincinnati Reds, 6-3, the Los Angeles Dodgers topped the Milwaukee Braves, 6-2, the Pittsburgh Pirates shaded the New York Mets, 6-5, in 10 innings and the St. Louis Cardinals swept the Chicago Cubs, 4-0 and 8-0.

Terry Notched Ninth
Tom Tresh drove in four runs with a homer and a single and Ralph Terry pitched an eight-hitter for his ninth victory for the Yankees who handed Jim Kaat his fifth defeat. Roger Maris and Don Mincher also homered — Maris connecting for the first time since June 16.

Paul Foytack knuckled out a six-hitter for his sixth win against one loss to give Detroit its victory over Dick Donovan and the Indians. The loss was Donovan's third against 11 victories. Rocky Colavito and Jerry Osborne had two hits each for the Tigers.

Ed Rakow pitched an eight-hitter behind a Kansas City attack that included two hits each by Billy Consolo and Ed Charles and Don Lee fired a five-hitter to win his third game for the Angels as Boston's Ike Delock suffered his first loss of the season.

Ed Bailey's two-run homer was the big blow in the Giants' fifth straight triumph and Felipe Alou added an insurance run with an eight-inning round-tripper. Bob Bolin shut out the Reds for for the key blows of the Los Angeles offense.

Bob Skinner singled home Bill Virdon in the 10th inning as Diomedes Olivo won his third game without a loss and the Pirates dealt Roger Craig his 10th defeat for the Mets. Frank Thomas homered for the Mets.

Larry Jackson pitched a four-hitter and Ray Sadecki a five-hitter in the Cardinals' sweep of the Cubs. Charley James and Ken Boyer drove in two runs each in the first game and Carl Sawatski hit two homers in the nightcap.

No details on the game were reported.

League President Harry Chipman reported that Sam Jennings company protest of its contest with Jay Allen Cars was not allowed.

GP's Elks Knot for Half Title

Grants Pass beat Butte Falls 12 to 0 last night to tie Keith Schulz Garage for first place in the final regular first half standings of the Jackson County Softball association.

Each finished with an 8-1 record.

No details on the game were reported.

League President Harry Chipman reported that Sam Jennings company protest of its contest with Jay Allen Cars was not allowed.

However, Jennings got a measure of protest as Willard Barnum chucked a 10-hit victory over the Carmen in a practice game last night.

Score of the game was 6 to 1. Barnum walked one and fanned four.

Jerry Shults drew the walk in the seventh inning. The fourth ball was a wild pitch, allowing Shults to reach second base. He went to third on another wild toss and came home after John Payne's fly-out to centerfield.

Dave Love homered with the bases loaded for Jennings in the seventh inning and Dick Paup followed with another roundtripper. Bill Welch, Clint Mooers and Paup each had two hits and Barnum tripled.

Jay Allen and Tru-Mix tied for third in the standings with 7-2 records.
