Memorial Field, White City — Medford Cokes, headed by hittin' pitcher Stu Young, pushed back into lone leadership last night in the Southern division of American Legion Junior baseball Area 4.

Young twirled a four-hitter and belted three hits in three times up, including a pair of three-base hits in a 14 to 1 decision over Grants Pass Mock Ford.

Victory gave the Cokes a 4-1 loop record as the circuit's second hot get underway. Grants Pass, which had loomed as a contender, slipped into fourth spot in the division. Its standing is now 2-3.

The scuffle was a close one for 3½ innings. Grants Pass tallied first, in the third stanza. Then the combination of Medford hitting and Jerry McCormack's pitching wildness enabled the Cokes to put over four fourth inning markers. The same factors and a Mock Ford error epidemic contributed to six more runs in the fifth. Safe blows, free passes and a miscue brought the last four tallies in the sixth.

Nine Strikeouts
Young, who compiled a nine-strikeout, five-walk hurling record, drove in three runs, Ken Phipps banged two hits and batted in a run. Dick Deffley had two RBIs on a hit and a sacrifice fly. Jim Calhoun and Scott Eaton walked the other safe blows for Medford. Bob Schroeder drove in one score.

Two hits were given up by Young to the Climate city crew in the second inning—to Paul Blanka and Lyman Kiesecker. In the third frame Rich Wolney led off with a single and was sacrificed to second base by Bill Standley. Gary Reddick drew a base on balls and Roy Standley singled, driving Wolney across the plate. Medford outfielder Gary Miller rifled the ball to Deffley at third base where Reddick was called out on a play hotly disputed by GP Coach Ron Maurer.

Out at Home
Only other time the Mock Fords came close to a counter was in the sixth inning when Young gave up bases on balls to Reddick and Blanka. Mike Millemann popped a high fly to the infield. The ball hopped out of the mitt of Medford catcher Phipps and Reddick who had run to third base continued toward home. But, Deffley had gone to cover home on the play and Young retrieved the ball and

Cherry Lane Park Golf Course Opens To Public On Saturday

A new facility joins the recreation assets of the Medford community and the Rogue river valley this week end.

It is the brand new Cherry Lane Golf course. Grand opening of the links is scheduled Saturday and Sunday, June 30 and July 1.

A get-acquainted gesture has been made for the first two days of operation. Free play is offered on Saturday and Sunday. And, Clark Good, the links professional, said that residents of the area are invited to come out and look over the course whether they are interested in playing or not.

Schroeder got home on a wild pitch and Young tallied after Deffley's sacrifice fly-out. The fifth inning counters involved three bases on balls, errors on first baseman Roy Standley and pitcher McCormack on sacrifice bunts by Calhoun and Eaton, receiving and throwing miscues by catcher Bob Peters, a triple by Young and a single by Deffley. In the sixth session Calhoun was hit by a pitch and Eaton walked. Phipps singled Calhoun home. Ron Edmonds forced out Eaton. After a wild pitch advanced Phipps and Edmonds, Young brought them home with his second three-baser.

Fielding Highlights
Young was able to score when second baseman Bill Standley, in the relay position, muffed the throw-in from Millemann in right field. McCormack yielded nine free passes and fanned three in his eight-hitter.

There were some fielding highlights for the GP team despite its seven misplays. Shortstop Volney robbed Medford's Dan Miles of a hit with a diving stab. Outfielder Blanka nailed Calhoun with a fire throw home when the Medfordites tried to score from second on Phipps' first hit. In the fourth inning Blanka's throw after a catch of Deffley's fly was not in time to get Young at the plate but GP chalked up a delayed double play on catcher Peters throw to get Miles at second base.

Medford makes a road trip to Klamath Falls on Sunday to play the Hawks. Grants Pass will entertain Central Point on Sunday.

Seattle — (UPI) — John Lumley, left winger from the Eastern Amateur Hockey league, will join the Seattle Totems of the Western Hockey league next fall, Coach Keith Allen said Wednesday. Diamond Lake Remains Poor Portland — (UPI) — The weekly report on fishing conditions prepared by the State Game commission.

Southwest: Diamond lake remains poor. Lemolo fair to good and Toketee good for brown trout; North and South Umpqua have been planted; salmon fishing chances improving at Winchester bay; Coos bay also has been good.

Central: Kingsley reservoir very good on trout; Olallie lake excellent for trout; Deschutes river discolored but fishing has been good; East and Paulina lakes remain good; Klamath and Agave lakes slow; Williamson river fair for small rainbow; Odell fair for small kokanee.

out that the appeal is to families and other casual groups "coming out to relax." He declared, "We want people to come out and have fun." Competitions are contemplated practically every week after the operation gets into swing but it will be rivalry in a "fun way."

Use of the links after the opening week end will be on a greens fee basis. Rates will be higher on week ends and holidays than on other days of the week.

The links will be open at 7 a.m. this Saturday and Sunday when special prizes will be offered. A seven days per week operation is planned with 7 a.m. week day opening time.

There is concentration right now on getting the pro shop ready for the opening. Starting next week the area around the pro shop will be ready for seeding. It is planned to have automatic tees for the driving range ready in "three weeks at the most."

Terracing for four grass tees for the driving range has been done but the seed for the tees and the nearby practice will not be sown until next September.

Pond on Course
Longest fairway is the seventh with 573 yards from tee to green. A 115 by 50-yard pond provides a hazard. No. 6 hole is the shortest at 120 yards.

Prime mover in the development of the course and president of Cherry Lane Park Golf Club, Inc., is Ralph Cook.

Good said that he and his wife and one other will operate the pro shop. There are five others working on the links. Good will offer daily golf lessons. He comes here after professional posts at Klamath Falls and Springfield. The pro shop will have light snacks and cold beverages for sale.

Central Point Studs Slate KF's Falcons

Central Point — Central Point's Cheney Studs, now in second place in the standings of American Legion Junior baseball's southern division area four, attempt on Friday to regain a share of the top rung on the ladder.

The Studs play the Klamath Falls Falcons at 7:30 p.m. on Memorial field, White City. It will be the second half opener for both clubs and a crucial tangle for each aggregation.

The Falcons, despite a third place situation now, are, like the Studs, strong contenders for league honors. A win for either would further fortify that contender status.

Central Point, only team to beat current division pacer Medford, was tied for the top with the Cokes until last night when Medford host Grants Pass to go back in front alone. The Studs, 3-1, in the loop to Medford's 4-1, are ambitious to make the Cokes' position only temporary.

Even In Talent
Klamath Falls, on the other hand, is 2-2 and seeks a verdict that will give it a tie for second place.

Klamath, Central Point and Medford are considered about even so far as player talent is concerned and games among them loom in tossup category. All three appear to be at their season peaks. Grants Pass was also so regarded before falling to the Cokes last night.

For the come tomorrow night, Coach Bill Askwith was yet undecided among Larry Pepper, Mike Pepper and Larry Mason for the Studs' pitching chore. The Klamath choice is almost certain to be Marv Edwards, No. 1 chucker for Klamath Union high this spring.

Legion baseball backers in the Rogue Valley are hoping the close race for the pennant will generate more fan appeal and draw the crowds such as the large one — around 1,000 spectators — who saw Grants Pass beat the Falcons last Saturday at Klamath Falls.

Pin Tournament Top Positions Go Unchanged
There were no changes in first place positions through last week end in the Century 21 Bowling tournament at Roxy Ann lanes here.

Manley company, Medford, rolled into third in the team rivalry with a 4877. Coca Cola, Medford, took over sixth with 4868.

In scratch singles Earl Bush, Seattle, is now third with 1248. Bob Meuchel, Portland, holds fifth with 1233.

Tourney play will continue through Labor day.
