

THE REV. G. R. McDONALD New Valley Minister

Former Member To Speak Here Sunday

The Rev. Stanley Culy, a former member of the church, will be guest preacher at both morning worship services Sunday at the First Methodist church. The theme for his sermon will be "How Does Love Work?"

The youth choir will sing "Praise Ye the Father" at the 9:30 a.m. service and Larry Hobson will sing "When I Consider the Heavens" at 11 a.m.

Mr. Culy is a graduate of Medford High school and Willamette university. He is a student at Boston University School of Theology, Boston, Mass. He is a member of the Oregon Conference of the Methodist Church, and was ordained a deacon in 1961.

St. Luke's Pastor Lists Sunday Topic

"Divine Revolutionary" will be the sermon topic Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. worship service at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2940 Siskiyou blvd. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, minister, will speak and the junior choir will sing.

Mr. McDonald assumed duties here as pastor earlier this month after being transferred from St. Helen's Methodist church, a native of Sacramento, Calif. He also served as pastor of Mt. Tabor and Clinton Kelly Methodist churches in Portland prior to arriving in St. Helen's four years ago.

He holds a bachelor of arts degree from the University of California at Berkeley, Calif., and bachelor and master degrees of sacred theology from Boston university. The master's degree was in religious education.

Mr. McDonald is secretary of the Oregon Council of Churches and has served on its pastoral services committee. In the Methodist church he is a member of the Children's Work committee, board of Hospitals and Homes, board of Christian Social Concerns and a member of the committee on Christian vocations. He is also a trustee of Wesley foundation at Southern Oregon college.

The new Medford minister is married and he and his wife, Marcella, have two children, Scott, 6, and Lisa, almost 4.

Independence Day Messages Listed

Using the historical background of July 4th, the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the Methodist First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., has announced sermon subjects for Sunday.

At the 11 a.m. worship hour he will preach on "What Price Freedom?" His topic for the 7 p.m. service will be "True Liberty."

Slides To Be Shown of Work

Miss Elaine Morrill will show slides of her missionary work Thursday, July 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Shirley Merriam home, 803 Huener lane, Jacksonville.

The meeting is sponsored by the Trinity Baptist church.

Miss Morrill, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Morrill, director of the practical nursing course at Rogue Valley hospital, has been teaching in the Presbyterian mission school in Bogota, Colombia.

Recently she was accepted by the Central American mission to work in Panama. She is engaged to the Rev. Robert Lloyd, a Conservative Baptist minister who is already working in Panama under the Central American mission.

Sunday evening Trinity Baptist church plans another missionary program to be held in their chapel, Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. At their 8:15 p.m. service they will show the film, "From Krishna to Christ." The picture, filmed in India, shows the influence of the ministry of their missionaries, the Rev. and Mrs. Pat Major, who are working under the Conservative Baptist Foreign Mission society.

Youth groups and the adult class in theology for laymen will meet at 7:30 p.m. Pastor Kenneth Raymond will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service.

Church of Brethren Topic Is Announced

The Rev. William Wash, minister of the Church of the Brethren, 345 Mary St., will speak at the 11 a.m. service Sunday on "A Nation Under God." "Hard To Please" is the title of the children's story to be given by Mrs. Wash.

The girls trio including the Misses Mary Music, Barbara Ristity and Terry Birman, will sing "Face to Face."

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon Told

How the Christ, Truth, brings freedom from sickness and sin will be brought out at Christian Science church services Sunday.

The lesson-sermon, entitled, "Christian Science" will be heard at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., at 11 a.m. Scriptural readings will be from Jeremiah 17.

Junior Worship Is Planned by Central

Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave., will begin a Junior Worship service Sunday at 11 a.m. Children of elementary school age will meet in the Fellowship hall for their own worship service.

Conducting the Junior worship will be Howard Ramsey, student minister of the church.

Sunday will be Promotion day at the 9:45 a.m. Bible school hour. There will be a combined opening assembly at which time students will be introduced to their new teachers. New adult classes will meet for the first time Sunday. There will be a young adults class, a men's class, a women's class and a mixed class.

John V. Heberling, minister of Central Church, will speak at the 11 a.m. worship service on the subject "Are We Really Free?" His sermon at the 7:30 p.m. service will be entitled "Christ: Entombed In The Past Or Living In The Future."

Junior Youth meetings are held at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. The Senior Youth group meets following the evening worship service.

Congregational Sermon Announced

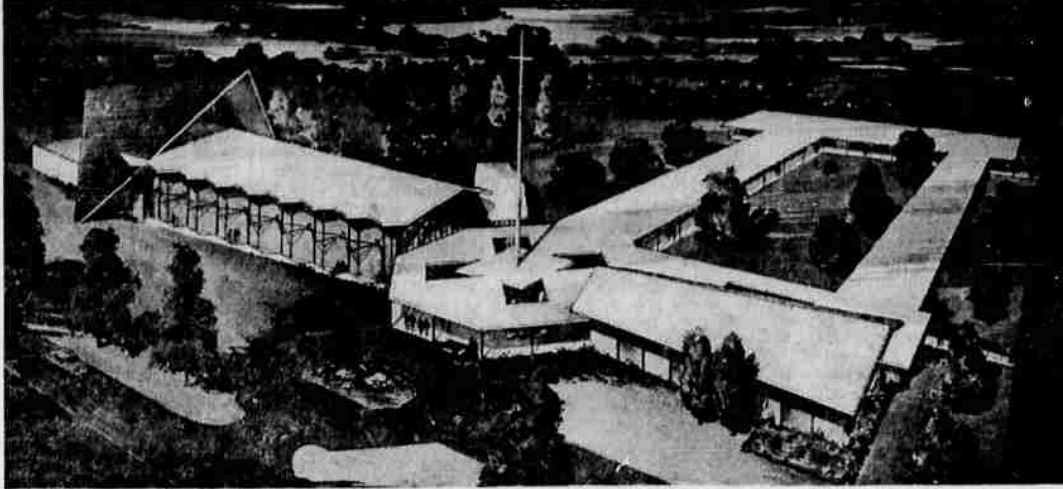

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Congregational church, 2100 Oakwood Dr., will preach a sermon Sunday entitled, "What Word Is There From God?" The service of worship will be held at 9:30 a.m.

During the worship hour, children below school age will be cared for in Pilgrim house. The first through fourth graders will attend the opening portion of the service of worship. After the children's sermon, they will be dismissed to their class with Mrs. Don Bohmert. Children in fifth grade and beyond are invited to remain for the entire service.

CRUSADE TELEVIEWED

The highlights of Billy Graham's Chicago Crusade will be shown on KMED-TV, Channel 10, next week. The programs, a public service feature of the television station, will be seen Monday, July 2 through Friday, July 6, between 10:15 and 11:15 p.m.

Ashland—"Render to Government its Due and to God His," will be the sermon topic Sunday by the Rev. Albert R. Nickodemus, pastor, at Grace Lutheran church, Frances lane, Ashland, at 11 a.m.

PROPOSED CHURCH—Groundbreaking plans for the new First Christian church has been announced for July 15. The new church, to be located on eight acres on Crater Lake ave., will be one story. The sanctuary (left), offices (center) and the left rear wing, will be constructed first.

Later construction calls for the building of the fellowship hall (right) and the other Sunday school wing, Crater Lake ave. is at the extreme left of the drawing. Parking will be provided at the right.

Religious Service Schedule Told For Recreation Areas

More than 160 college and secondary students again this summer are serving the country's "largest parish," the nation's national parks. Sponsored by the National Council of Churches, A Christian Ministry in the National Parks this year enters its tenth consecutive season.

These religious services are being held at Crater Lake National park and Oregon Caves National Monument.

Student minister at the lake is Ronald M. Johnson, a middle-aged man at San Francisco Theological seminary, who starts his fourth summer with the program, the second at Crater Lake. Minister at the Cave is Walter Phillip Parry, Knoxville, Tenn., a graduate of Berry College of Kentucky, who is a student at Vanderbilt Divinity school, Nashville, Tenn.

Lake Services

Crater lake Sunday services are currently being held in the community building on the Rim near the lodge. Worship services are scheduled at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Starting in July a service at 7 p.m. will be held on Saturdays at the Mazama campground.

Sunday school is provided by the ministry Sundays at 8:30 a.m. at the Park headquarters and each Tuesday of the summer a Bible school is held from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

Other plans call for producing a religious drama and a sacred music concert, and holding discussion groups.

Assisting Johnson with the services are Jack Stevens, a senior at the University of Georgia; Miss Sally De Ran, Western Maryland college, director of Christian education; and Miss Joan Carlson, Augustana college, Rock Island, Ill., who is minister of music.

All of the workers are full time employees in summer park jobs and participate in the religious activities during their off-duty hours.

Johnson is a night desk clerk; Stevens is a night watchman, and the two women are clerks in the curio shop.
