Episcopal Ceremony Held

Miss Alexa Marsolais Hibbard became the bride of James Russell Chittick, San Francisco, in a ceremony held June 24 at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. Bolster officiated at the double ring rites assisted by the Rev. Max Wills, Salem.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd M. Hibbard, 1804 Roberts road. Mr Chittick's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Chittick, Woodburn, Ore., who were in Medford for the wedding.

Baskets of lavender, purple and white stock decorated the church for the four o'clock afternoon wedding attended by 100 relatives and friends. Charles Stone, San Francisco, was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white nylon organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice was accented by a matching bow and band of venetian lace which formed the brief sleeves and outlined the scoop neckline. Her full skirt formed a train and her shoulder length veil was held by a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

Honor Attendant

Miss Nan Wood, Eugene, was honor attendant for the bride. She wore a white nylon organza frock with lace cummerbund. Her veil was of lavender nylon illusion held by a cluster of lavender roses and she carried a bouquet of purple stock.

Richard Brunelle, San Francisco, served as best man. Seating the guests were Donald Hibbard, Salem, the bride's brother, and William Chittick, San Diego, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, which followed at parish hall, Mrs. Hibbard chose a powder blue linen suit with white stephanotis corsage. Mrs. Chittick wore a lavender suit with stephanotis corsage.

Mrs. Jess Hathhorn, Corvallis, and Miss Marian Chittick, Berkeley, Calif., sisters of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Max Wills presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Grant Bourquin poured coffee assisted by Mrs. Donald Hibbard.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip where they will make their home. The bride wore for traveling a beige and white ensemble with beige accessories.

Both Are Teachers

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school, and attended the University of Washington and University of Oregon. She has been employed as a teacher in the Salem public schools. Mr. Chittick attended Willamette university and San Francisco State college and is a teacher in the San Francisco public schools.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mrs. William Chittick and family, San Diego; Mr. Hathhorn and family, Corvallis; Mrs. James Hampton, aunt, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barnard and family, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, all Auburn, Wash.; Mrs. Justin M. Smith, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Berg, Alvadore, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Derrol Gadway, Oregon City, and Miss Prudence Spight, Salem.

The bride's parents held a buffet supper at their home following the reception for relatives and out of town guests.

Couple To Visit Here While on Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Arthur Custance are to arrive in Medford the first of the week on their wedding trip to California. Their marriage was an event of June 22 in the Knox United church, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. They will be guests of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. F. A. Custance, 1148 Leal avenue, Medford. The bridegroom formerly lived here and attended Medford High school.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McDougall of Vancouver, B.C. She is the former Miss Judith Elizabeth McDougall.

The Rev. H. A. Watts performed the 8 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Marion Perry was maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Sandra Page and Donna McAllister.

Best man was Roger Percival and ushers were L. J. McDougall, brother of the bride, and Frank White.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a white silk organza gown over peau de soie trimmed with Alencon lace. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis with ivy. The bride was the twenty-first bride to wear an antique blue broach, 140 years old.

The attendants wore matching shell pink peau de soi gowns. Each wore a Dior rose headdress of the same material as their dresses and they carried deep pink roses with ivy.

Mrs. Percival sang.

The reception was held at the Shaughnessy Golf and Country club.

For traveling the bride wore a blue silk shantung dress and matching jacket with white accessories.

They will live in Vancouver, B.C.

The bridegroom has worked for the the Forest service here. He now operates a men's shop in Vancouver.

Going north for the wedding were the bridegroom's mother, a brother, Gary Custance, and his sister, Mrs. David Allen Elrod.
