

Mrs. Lucille Norton (second from left), Eugene, immediate past state president of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's club, was in Medford recently to conduct installation ceremonies for the local club. A number of BPWC members from the Southern Oregon district were in Medford for the installation of Mrs. C. H. Redmond (right) as president. With them are Mrs. Ken Brisco (left), Klamath Falls, state legislative chairman, and Mrs. George Watson (right), Medford, state nominating committee member.

Newlyweds Make Home In Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Earl Gray are making their home at 811 West Tenth street, following their return from a wedding trip to Crater Lake National park. The couple was married June 18 in a ceremony held at Zion Lutheran church.

The bride, the former Carol Lynne Holmberg, Marshall, Minn., is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Holmberg, Vesta, Minn. She recently traveled to Medford to marry Mr. Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gray, Redwood Falls, Minn., who was transferred to the Medford district of the bureau of land management in April. He is a forester with that bureau.

The Rev. H. C. Covert officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening rites.

The bride wore a white dress in afternoon length with long sleeves. Her flowers were white carnations and red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cowan attended the couple. Mrs. Cowan wore a printed frock and carried white carnations. Following the ceremony the wedding party attended a dinner.

The bride attended Milroy High school and the University of Minnesota and was a typist in Minnesota prior to her marriage. Mr. Gray attended Redwood High school and the University of Minnesota.

Monologist Is Booked

Ashland — Irene Bewley, mountain monologist, will arrive in Ashland on July 3 with a split bonnet, a pipe and a shawl for a performance of her original southern mountain characterizations program which is being sponsored by Southern Oregon college. The program will be presented in Churchill hall auditorium, July 3 at 11 a.m., according to Dr. Alvin Fellers, director of student affairs.

Last week SOC presented John Jacob Niles, ballad singer. This second program rounds out the presentation of regional American cultural patterns with Miss Bewley's folk monologues. The assembly is open to the public. Dr. Fellers announced.

Gold Hill Trio Moves to Ohio

Gold Hill — Mrs. Bertha Potter, long time Gold Hill resident, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Kelly, also of Gold Hill, left last week for Dayton, Ohio where they will reside. All were active members of the Gold Hill Grange.

The family home has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis who have taken possession after selling their home on Evans creek.

Mrs. Potter had been a resident of this area since 1926.

Providence Guild Tea Held at Brewer Home

Officers and members of Providence guild of Sacred Heart hospital were entertained at a tea at the home of Mrs. Chauncey M. Brewer, 1811 East Main street, Wednesday, June 27, from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Brewer was assisted by Mrs. Charles Lasher in planning the party which was given in honor of the officers who served this past year and the officers who will serve from June, 1962 to June, 1963. Guild members were invited in appreciation for their hours of volunteer service during the year.

Mrs. Raymond Wise decorated the rooms with bouquets of colorful flowers, and the tea table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses and white candles in silver holders. Twin cakes, frosted and decorated with pink roses and the inscription "in appreciation, 1962-1963" were served from a tea cart.

Mrs. Edith K. Devaney, Mrs. Charles A. Parlier, Mrs. Dan A. Hull and Mrs. Mario J. Campagna were invited to preside at the tea table during the afternoon.

Mrs. John L. Raapke and Mrs. N. James Wilson greeted guests at the door. Among the guests were several of the Sisters from the hospital, including Sister Luke, chief administrator.

Newly elected officers of Providence guild are Mrs. John Boyle, president; Mrs. John Raapke, vice president; Mrs. Charles Parlier, treasurer; Mrs. Mario Campagna, recording secretary; Miss Jane Maroney, corresponding secretary.

Past officers who were honored guests are: Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Geary Garrett, Mrs. Hull, and Mrs. Lawrence Duff.

Betrothal News Told in Portland

Williams—The engagement of Miss Betty Ellen Johnson, Portland, and Albert Dozier Fitzpatrick Jr., Williams, was announced recently in Portland.

The bride-elect has attended Southern Oregon college and has been a student at the Museum Art school at Portland State college.

Her fiancé, formerly a student at the University of California, Davis, the past year has been enrolled at Southern Oregon college.

The wedding is planned for October. They expect to live in San Francisco until the bridegroom — elect completes his education.

To Picnic

Phoenix—Members of the Phoenix Thimble club will meet for a picnic in Maple grove, south of Cubby's restaurant Friday, July 6, at 12:30 p.m. Those who attend are to take picnic baskets of food, and table service.

Two Groups Sponsoring Children's Art Classes

Mrs. Edwin W. Gebhard, Central Point, will teach art classes for children starting this week under the auspices of the Junior Service League and Rogue Valley Art association.

Registration will be held at Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street, Tuesday, July 3, from noon to 4 p.m. The classes are open for children from 6 to 14.

Classes for ages 6 to 9 will be held in the Library park Thursdays from 9 to 10 a.m. and for children aged 10 to 14 from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

The classes will continue for six weeks and will cost $10 for the younger group and $12 for the older children. The cost includes the supplies.

Mrs. Gebhard holds a degree in art from Southeast Missouri State college, Cape Girardeau, Mo., and a master's degree in art education from Columbia university. She also studied at Washington university, St. Louis, Mo.

She was supervisor of art in the elementary schools of Sterling, Ill., and has taught jewelry-making classes in the adult education program of the Medford public schools. The classes included working with silver, gold, copper and brass. She has also taught art in the St. Louis, Mo., high schools.

She is past art chairman of the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, and is co-chairman of that committee this year.

Band Teacher Returning Home

I. A. Mirick, in charge of bands in the Medford public school system, will return to Medford today after having been an instructor on the University of Oregon campus for a summer band camp.

Mr. Mirick reports that the enrollment of 275 students is the largest of record. A number of Medford students were enrolled at the camp.

The final concert was held last night at McArthur court, with three bands taking part.

Summer band classes under the Medford school system will begin Monday, July 2.

Awards Won By Club

Central Point—Junior gardening, the special project of Mrs. A. H. Mason, president of Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, has long been an interest of the Central Point Garden club. Mrs. C. W. Anhorn participated on a panel discussion on "Junior Gardening" at the recent state convention in Salem.

Winning in the 1962 youth conservation contests were Miss Marsha Bever, Crater High school, honorable mention in high school poster division; Miss Elaine Haley, Central Point Junior High school, third place in junior high poster division; and Jack Snook, Central Point, honorable mention in 5th and 6th grade essay division.

The essay of Miss Elspeth Miller, although not a winner, was accorded special interest as she pleaded for a conservation emblem in her home country, Australia, such as Smokey the Bear is here in America.

The Central Point club received a first place ribbon on their yearbook and a second place on their wild flower scrapbook. Representing the club were Mrs. Wallace West and Mrs. Robert Schmidt, new president and vice president.
