

DAR Chapter Hears Report

Reports of the 71st Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution which was held in April in Washington, D.C., were given at the June 23 meeting of the Crater Lake chapter, DAR.

The event was a picnic held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Morris, South Stage road. Giving the reports was Mrs. George R. Carter, chapter delegate.

Mrs. Judd Greenman, regent, presided at the business meeting. New members welcomed were Mrs. Margaret Knowles, formerly of Youngstown, Ohio, and Miss Cora Maxfield, Cowichilla, Calif.

A discussion was held on Flag day and flag etiquette. The next meeting will be held in September and will emphasize Constitution week.

Central Point Club Installs Officers; Makes Picnic Plans

Central Point—Mrs. Harvey Cassman was installed finance officer, and Mrs. Dee Booth, was installed chaplain of the Central Point Navy Mothers club June 27 during an afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. Hester Culbertson. The two officers had been absent during regular installations held earlier.

The next meeting of the group will be a picnic to be held in the Central Point City park Wednesday, July 11 at 5 p.m.

All mothers of Navy, Navy Air Force, Marine Corps or Coast Guard personnel, present or past, are invited to attend meetings of the group and are particularly invited to the picnic with their families.

New Dialing Topic for Club

Mrs. Inez Gravelle, representative of the Pacific Northwest Bell company, was guest speaker at a dinner meeting of the Medford Zonta club Thursday at the Town House. Mrs. Gravelle explained the direct distance dialing system which will become effective July 15.

Mrs. Elsie Butler gave highlights from her recent trip to Alaska and the World's Fair.

Special guest was Mrs. Helen Parish Stevens, formerly a public health nurse in Medford and now teaching public health in the nursing department of San Jose State college.

The next meeting of the Medford Zonta club will be a picnic July 26 at the home of Mrs. Grace Holmes.

Harney County Picnic Slated

All former Harney county residents and friends are invited to attend the Southern Oregon Harney County picnic scheduled for July 8 at Touville State park on the Rogue river. This will be the 13th consecutive picnic for former Harney county residents held in this area.

Each family is to take a picnic lunch and table service. Coffee, soft drinks and ice cream will be furnished and the lunch is scheduled for 1 p.m.

Games and music will be conducted after the lunch.

Birth of Child Is Announced

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chapman received word June 27 of the birth of a son to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver A. Fick. The child was born at the Redlands Community hospital at Redlands, Calif., weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces. He is the couple's first child and has been named Douglas Brian.

At the time of the baby's birth, his father was in Honolulu, Hawaii, enroute home from Christmas island, where he has been since March, as a civilian member of Joint Task Force 9 which has been conducting nuclear tests in the South Pacific atomic testing area. He was scheduled to arrive in San Bernardino, Calif., on Friday evening, June 29.

Maternal grandparents of the baby are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rimell, Yucaipa, Calif., but former residents for many years of Canyonville, Ore.

Medford Toastmistress Club Installs Officers

Officers who will head the Medford Toastmistress club for the next six months were installed during a meeting of the club held June 20. Installed as president was Mrs. W. E. Acord. Mrs. C. R. Redmond was the installing officer.

Other officers installed were Miss Voda Brower, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Lorenz, secretary; Mrs. Glenn Clymer, treasurer; and Mrs. J. L. Beams and Mrs. C. E. Goodwin, club representatives.

Speakers for the evening were Mrs. Beams, who spoke regarding a vacation, and Mrs. C. A. Thatcher whose subject was "Speaking English." Mrs. Claude Goodwin had the educational talk for the evening. She chose the subject, "The Evolution of Toastmistress."

Mrs. Evelyn Pugh spoke briefly on the subject, "The Value of Evaluation."

Mrs. Acord was topicmistress; Mrs. Lester Lollis gave the invocation; Mrs. R. K. Ford, grammarian; Mrs. Clymer, speech evaluator, and Mrs. Lorenz was program evaluator; Mrs. H. Hardenburger was the timer.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Brower on July 11 when there will be a potluck picnic.

Sojourners Hold Election

Officers for the coming season were elected at the Thursday meeting of the Medford Sojourners club held at the Girls Community club. They are Mrs. Earl Malbourn, president; Mrs. Leland Middleton, first vice president; Mrs. Beryl Lyon, second vice president; Mrs. Clifton Green, secretary, and Mrs. Lora Stewart, treasurer.

Installation of the new officers will be held at the next meet, July 12.

Hostesses for Thursday's meeting were Mrs. Bernice C. Rice, Mrs. Walter Hatch, Mrs. Carrie Walters and Mrs. Philip Dopp.

Mrs. Ralph Jones won the special prize for the day, bridge prizes went to Mrs. T. E. Johnson and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson. Pinocchio prizes went to Mrs. Hannah Cyrus and Mrs. Roland Howard, and canast prizes to Mrs. Walters and Mrs. A. L. McClure.

Visitors introduced were Mrs. Lola B. Hileman, Temple City, Calif.; Mrs. Bette Greiss, Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Leota Martin, Medford. Women who have lived in Medford or vicinity for less than two years are invited to attend and become members of this club. It is a social club organized with the purpose of helping newcomers in this area to become acquainted.
