

Local and Personal

Toastmasters To Meet — Jackson Toastmasters will meet Monday, July 2, at 6:30 a.m. in Sambo's restaurant.

Roundtable Program — Don McNeil, manager of the Medford Chamber of Commerce, will present a review of the history and development of the local chamber office at the Monday noon meeting of the chamber Roundtable at North's Chuck Wagon.

Picnic Planned — Beagle Community club will hold a picnic Sunday, July 15, at the old Antioch school grounds one mile north of Highway 234 on Antioch rd. Coffee and ice cream will be furnished, and a president will be elected to serve for 1962-63.

Meeting Planned — Tallisman lodge, Knights of Pythias, will meet at the Knights of Pythias hall, Fifth and Grape sts., Monday, July 2.

Receives Award — Robert G. Balk, Medford manager of J. Henry Heiser and company, has been named winner of the Leon Baketel trophy for outstanding performance in competition with other offices of the company, J. Henry Heiser, president, announced recently. This award is given in the name of Leon B. Baketel, former financial editor of the Oregonian.

Meeting Set — Veterans of World War I and auxiliary will hold a business meeting Monday, July 2, at 3 p.m. in the Girls Community club. Reports of the state convention will be given.

Barbecue Dinner — Veterans of Foreign Wars, Ashland, will hold an old fashioned barbecue dinner Wednesday, July 4, in Lithia park.

False Alarm — The burglar alarm from the Timber Room changed in the Medford police station at 5:20 a.m. Saturday. Investigation revealed it has been sent off accidentally by the janitors cleaning out the restaurant and bar.

Stolen Car — A 1953 cream over dark blue Chevrolet sedan belonging to J. R. Whitney Oldsmobile company, Medford, was stolen from in front of the Gay Nineties Pizza Parlor in Medford early Saturday morning, Medford police reported. License Number is Oregon 4K-9791. The car had been loaned to a customer while his car was being repaired.

Fuel Ignited — Welding sparks apparently ignited fuel of some sort in a back shop at Sims Cycle and Hobby shop, 23 North Fir st., Medford, Friday at 2:50 p.m., causing a small amount of damage. The fire extended to a bench and stock on a shelf before it was extinguished.

Speaker Listed — Gene Favell, Klamath Falls, lieutenant governor of District 15-A of Kiwanis clubs, will speak at a meeting of the Medford Kiwanis club Thursday, July 5. The talk will be broadcast over KMED-TV at 12:30 p.m., and the luncheon meeting will be held at the television studio.

Picture Contest — The Southern Oregon Photographic association will hold a photograph competition in both color slides and black and white prints at the regular meeting Monday, July 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave. The public has been invited.

Permits Issued — The Medford building department issued a permit Wednesday to National Automatic Sprinkler company to install sprinkler systems in buildings S2 and S4 in the Medford Shopping Center at an approximate cost of $10,000. Permits were issued Thursday to Anders Photos, 630 North Central ave., to make interior improvements at an estimated cost of $1,000; to Franklin Mayflower Transfer and Storage company to install a sprinkler system in the warehouse at Taft and Narregan sts. at an anticipated cost of $9,000; and to Standard Oil company to erect a service station at 2020 Crater Lake highway at an approximate cost of $18,890.

Car Fire — A desk clerk at the Medford hotel summoned firemen at 11:59 p.m. Friday to investigate a car fire. D. E. McCoy, P. O. Box 128, Medford, owner of the car, thought he had put out a match thrown in the front seat earlier in the evening. Firemen explained, but the match smoldered while he was away and burned a 10-inch hole in the back of the seat. The desk clerk saw the smoke.

Garage Burned — Portions of the back wall and roof of a garage at 809 Newton st., Medford, were burned Saturday while the owner, Henry Ruch, was out of town. Cause of the fire was unknown. Burned were an 8 by 10 foot section of the back wall, lumber in the attic and an 8 by 12 foot section of the roof.

Stubborn Fire at Local Fuel Yard — Medford firemen were summoned twice Friday afternoon and again on Saturday to extinguish fires at an abandoned fuel yard on East McAndrews rd.

The first alarm came at 12:03 p.m. Friday when fire broke out in sawdust at the location, formerly occupied by McGinty's Fuel yard. Cause of the fire was unknown. Firemen had just returned to the station when a second fire was reported at 1:49 p.m. This one burned half an acre of wood and sawdust. Firemen remained at the scene three hours.

Then at 2:50 p.m. Saturday the fire flared up again in four or five spots in the sawdust.

HONORED—George Roberts, Medford lawyer, center, was honored Friday night at a banquet at the Rogue Valley Country club for his 50 years of law practice. With him here are Oregon Supreme Court Justice William McAllister, formerly of Medford, and Harry Skerry, Ashland, president of the Jackson County Bar association.

Medford Attorney Honored for Years Of Law Practice

George M. Roberts, prominent Medford lawyer, was honored by other members of the Jackson County Bar association Friday for his "first 50 years of outstanding practice."

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Sercombe, Sercombe is Supreme Court clerk. Chief Justice McAllister, who was introduced by Harry Skerry, Ashland, president of the Jackson County Bar, acknowledged Roberts' accomplishments as an attorney, and Roberts reminisced some of his experiences as a practicing attorney.

Flag Pole Dedication Scheduled Wednesday

Ashland — Members of Ashland barracks, Veterans of World War I, have donated a flag pole to the National Guard in Ashland, and will dedicate it following the Fourth of July parade Wednesday. The pole is located at the Ashland armory.

In Law Firm

He is associated in the law firm Roberts, Kellington, Branchfield and Heffernan at 711 East Main st. Prior to moving into the present offices in the Standard Insurance company building, Roberts and his associates were located in the U.S. National bank building at Main and Central ave.

Chief Justice McAllister presented Roberts with a plaque on which was inscribed: "To George M. Roberts in grateful appreciation of your first 50 years of outstanding practice and leadership in the Oregon Bar."

The plaque was presented on behalf of the Jackson County Bar association. Among other guests at the banquet were Justice and Mrs. William C. Perry, Justice and Mrs. Alfred T. Goodwin, and

OBITUARIES

KENNETH ANDERSON

Louisville, Ky. — Kenneth Paul Anderson, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Kenneth Anderson, Lyndon, Ky., and grandson of Mrs. Stella Anderson, Central Point, died June 19 at Kentucky Baptist hospital in Louisville.

Young Anderson was graduated from Waggoner High school in 1960, and attended the University of Louisville. He was born in Alaska.

Survivors include his parents, a brother, Glen C. Anderson, and his grandmother, Mrs. Anderson.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday. Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland. Funeral services will be Monday, July 2, at 10:30 a.m. at Litwiler's Mountain View Chapel. Rev. P. Malcolm Hammond will officiate. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery.

CHARLES EDLER

Funeral services for Charles Edler, 80, Trail, who died

Friday, will be held in the Conger-Morris downtown chapel at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Elder E. A. Atkins, Shady Cove Seventh-Day Adventist church, will officiate. Committal will be in Lake Creek cemetery.

Mr. Edler was born in Monroe county, Ill., June 17, 1882. He moved to southern Oregon in 1884 with his parents, the late August E. and Maria Edler.

Survivors include two brothers, Frederick Edler, Medford; William Edler, Klamath Falls; and two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Shady Cove, and Mrs. Rude Bischoff, Murphy.

WILLIAM A. SELLENS

William Alfred Sellens, 82, 148 Ohio st., Ashland, died June 29 at a local rest home. He was born Dec. 4, 1879, in

Russell county, Kansas. He came to Ashland in 1929 from Kansas. In Sept., 1905, he married Lena Wehrli in Bunker Hill, Kansas. In addition to the widow surviving are two nephews whom the couple raised as their own children, Rex Sellens, of Gumbo, Canal Zone, and Richard Booth, Anchorage, Alaska, and other nieces and nephews in Kansas and California. Mr. Sellens was a member of the First Methodist church of Ashland