Los Angeles Clubs Top Both Major Loops After Races Pass 4th of July Milestone

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Fools rush in where angels fear to tread, so will the real genius who picked both Los Angeles clubs please stand up?

C'mon, now, don't be bashful.

That pennant parlay of yours may have looked foolish four months ago but you're certainly entitled to a bow now that the Fourth of July milestone is past and both the Angels and Dodgers are in first place.

A word of caution, though. You better bring proof.

Bill Rigney, the skeptical and at the same time ecstatic manager of the amazing Angels, feels no one in the world picked his club to win the American league pennant.

He may be right. But that didn't stop him from bubbling over and mischievously inquiring "how do we stand now?" after the Angels swept a doubleheader from the Washington Senators, 4-2 and 4-1 Wednesday.

Angels on Top

Great kidder, that Rigney. He knew the Angels were on top by a half game. So did a happy, noisy throng of fans and city officials, who turned out at International Airport in Los Angeles Wednesday night to welcome the club back from a road trip on which it won 14 of 22 games.

Not bad for a team that was put together out of a grab bag only 22 months ago and finished eighth last year.

Effective relief pitching did it for the Angels in Wednesday's double victory. Young Dean Chance came on in the seventh inning to save Ken McBride's seventh consecutive victory in the opener and 40 - year - old Art Fowler slammed the door on the Senators in the nightcap.

Lee Thomas socked his 11th homer in the first game and Leon Wagner his 24th to help Ted Bowsfield to victory in the second game.

The Dodgers maintained their half-game lead in the National league with 16-1 and 7-3 triumphs over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Koufax Threw Five-Hitter

Sandy (no-hit) Koufax turned in a five-hitter and struck out 10 for his 12th win in the opener. Frank Howard made Koufax' job easy by driving in five runs with a single and a double. Tommy Davis knocked in three runs in the nightcap with a homer and two singles as rookie Joe Moeller won his sixth game.

In the AL, the Yankees dropped into second place by splitting a doubleheader with the A's. Kansas City won the opener, 11-1, then lost the nightcap, 7-3. Cleveland took two from Detroit, 1-0, in 10 innings, and 6-2, in 13 innings; Minnesota split with Boston, the Twins winning the opener, 8-4, and the Red Sox the nightcap, 9-5, and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Chicago White Sox, 7-3, in the first game, but lost the second, 5-2.

The second-place San Francisco Giants stayed close at the Dodgers' heels in the NL with 11-4 and 10-3 victories over the New York Mets; the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Chicago Cubs 8-6; Milwaukee won its suspended game with St. Louis, 7-5, but the Cardinals then blanked the Braves, 2-0, and the Pittsburgh Pirates swept both ends from the Houston Colts, 7-0 and 4-3.

Opener No Contest

The opener between the A's and Yankees was no contest, with Kansas City rapping out 16 hits, including a homer, triple and two singles by Jerry Lumpe to back up Diego Segui's six-hit pitching.

It was a different story in the nightcap, though, as Mickey Mantle clouted two homers and Roger Maris and Clete Boyer one each to give the Yanks a split. Mantle now has 15 homers and Maris 19.

Gene Green's 10th inning pinch single gave the Indians their first game victory after Jim Perry and Hank Aguirre of the Tigers had dueled through nine scoreless frames, and Don Dillard's grand slam in the 13th off Jerry Casale decided the nightcap, which was credited to Gary Bell.

Lou Clinton's hitting featured the Boston - Minnesota split. The Red Sox outfielder collected seven consecutive hits, including two homers during the twin-bill. Bob Allison's three-run homer and a solo shot by Vic Power highlighted the Twins' victory in the opener. Clinton's four hits paced Boston's 18-hit attack in the nightcap.

Pizarro Won Sixth

Jerry Adair hit a two-run homer and Johnny Temple drove in two more runs with four hits for the Orioles in the first game, but Juan Pizarro won his sixth game for the White Sox with a six-hitter in the nightcap.

Willie McCovey and Willie Mays had themselves a field day against the Mets, hitting two homers apiece and driving in a total of 14 runs for the Giants.

McCovey blasted his two homers and drove in seven runs in the opener, with Mays contributing a two-run triple. Mays socked his two homers in the nightcap to ease the way for Billy O'Dell's 10th triumph. Bob Bolin ran his record to 3-9 in the opener.

Hank Foiles' three-run homer sparked the Reds to their victory over the Cubs. Foiles' blow came in the fifth inning and gave the Reds an 8-1 lead but Jim Brosnan still had to come on in the eighth to save Jim Maloney's third victory.

Eddie Mathews' two-run homer in the ninth inning was the Braves' margin of victory over the Cardinals in the resumption of Tuesday's suspended game, but in the regularly scheduled contest that followed, Ernie Broglio held the Braves to three hits and Ken Boyer drove in both runs off loser Warren Spahn with his 14th homer and a single.

The Pirates' two victories gave them a record of nine wins in their last 10 games. Vern Law scattered eight hits in the opener as Pittsburgh hopped on Houston starter Bob Bruce for three runs in the first inning. Dick Groat and Don Leppert each had three hits in the nightcap, which Roy Face had to save for Earl Francis when the Colts rallied for two runs in the ninth.

Angels Having Much Fun In Dizzy Climate of 1st

Washington (UPI) — Elated Leon Wagner summed it up for manager Bill Rigney and all the rest of the first-place Los Angeles Angels.

"We may not win the pennant," Wagner said, "but we sure are having a lot of fun."

The Angels were having their innings in the locker room after Wednesday's doubleheader sweep of the Washington Senators had placed them in the dizzy climate of first place. A year ago on this date they were in ninth place, where Angels are supposed to tread, 19½ games behind the Detroit Tigers.

The Angels won the opener, 4-2, and then, buoyed by the news that the Kansas City Athletics had jolted the Yankees out of first, Los Angeles went out and took the second, 4-1.

24th Homer

Lee Thomas' 11th homer of the season and some effective relief pitching by baby-faced Dean Chance sparked the Angels in the opener. Then Wagner, doing a bit more than just having fun, hit his 24th of the season in the nightcap.

Felix Torres' homer made it 4-0 for Los Angeles in the second game and when the Senators squirmed around a bit, Art Fowler was sent in to stop the uprising and save the win.

Now the rest of the American league clubs were looking up at them and the Angels were enjoying the thought of it all.

Little Albie Pearson, the major league's smallest player at just under five and one-half feet, sat in front of his locker biting a ham sandwich as big as his head.

"Hot dog!" he said. "First place. "We're too fabulous to believe."

Tradition On Side of LA Dodgers

San Francisco (UPI) — Tradition and history were on the side of the Dodgers today — not to mention some strong pitching and hitting — as Los Angeles opened a four-game series with the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick park.

Tradition has it that the team in first place when evening falls on July 4 will win the pennant. Mathematicians caution optimists that the occurrence holds true only in 7 out of 10 cases, but the Dodgers — who were in first when July 4 came to a close — would like to believe the odds are with them.

History has it that the Giants, no matter where they sit in the standings during the months when flowers bloom and birdies sing, fade before the baseball season ends in the fall.

But history and tradition too easily are broken and the Dodgers, who Wednesday held onto their tight lead in the National league by sweeping a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Phillies, 16-1 and 7-3, could be in second place Friday morning.

Don Drysdale (14-4), who wants to snap a tradition of never being a 20-game winner, was to pitch against San Francisco's Mike McCormick (4-2) in this afternoon's opener.

Dick Chambers Takes Honors

Grants Pass — Dick Chambers, Grants Pass, had a good night last week end in the motorcycle tourist trophy scrambles of Rogue Valley Riders.

He won the A main and trophy dash in the heavyweight division and tied in the broad jump with Van Shippy, Grants Pass, and in the rear wheel walk with Steve Mason, Klamath Falls.

Shippy was first in the A main of the heavyweight class and was trophy dash winner.

Darrell Shoemaker, Grants Pass, took second in the heavy A main with Howard West, Klamath Falls, third. Robert Allen, Crescent City, Calif., won the lightweight B main and Frank Ward, Grants Pass, claimed runnerup.

Ken Dole, Medford, was second in the lightweight A main. Third was Doug Kohler, Klamath Falls. B lightweight main honors went to Don House, Grants Pass, with Don Ginther, Klamath Falls, No. 2 finisher. Jim Toney, Crescent City, followed Shippy in the lightweight trophy dash and Windy Sondergard, Crescent City, and Jim De-Santos, Grants Pass, were after him.

Indians Scalp Braves at CP

Central Point—The Indians scalped the Braves 13 to 1 Tuesday in a Southern Oregon Pee Wee league baseball game between Central Point teams.

Joe Pinkham hurled a two-hitter for the Indians, walking two and fanning five. He has allowed only three hits in 15 innings.

Bill Bailey hit three for three and Doug Miller and Steve Henson two for three for the Indians. Jeff Radford tripled for the Braves.

Softballers Will Clash

There will be the usual two games on the Jackson County Softball association slate this evening at Cheney field.

Garibaldi Signs With SF Giants

San Francisco (UPI) — Bob Garibaldi, who is studying for a degree in history at Santa Clara, made some of it himself today by pulling down the highest bonus which the San Francisco Giants ever have shelled out for an untried prospect.

Estimates were that the 19-year-old fireball pitcher, who looks something like ex-southpaw star Johnny Antonelli, had come to terms for at least $125,000.

But the sophomore from Stockton, Calif., was not slated to join the club until July 15. No member of the Giants front office would confirm a prevalent theory that Garibaldi stood to get a better break on the income tax if he didn't officially join the club until July 15.

Seek Revenge

In the meantime, however, the Giants were seeking an official ruling from baseball Commissioner Ford Frick that would permit the right-hander to work out with the club until July 15 providing that he went up into the stands before game time.

Garibaldi's signing meant a smashing victory for the Giants over the New York Mets, who thought so much of his talents that manager Casey Stengel of the tail-enders was derricked in the fourth inning of Saturday's game in order to make a rush trip to Stockton for a talk with the youngster.

Upper Rogue Basin Fishing Improved

Portland (UPI) — Here is the week end fishing outlook for Oregon, as compiled by the state game commission:

Southwest: Diamond Lake poor. North and South Umpqua fair to good, but poor for summer steelheading. Upper Rogue basin improved for trout. Salmon angling good at Winchester bay and on the lower Rogue.

Central: Good fishing on Blue Lake, Elk Lake, East Lake, Paulina Lake, Metolius River, Deschutes River above Bend, and Fall River. Big Lava Lake, Crane Prairie and Wickiup Reservoir fair. South Twin has been poor but was stocked recently.
