

U.S.'s Karen Susman Wins Singles Title at Wimbledon

Wimbledon, England (UPI)—Mrs. Karen Susman, traveling the tennis trail on "an extended honeymoon," overcame the patty-cake tactics of Czech favorite Vera Sukova Saturday for a 6-4, 6-4, triumph that gave the United States its first Wimbledon singles tennis championship since 1958.

The 19-year-old Mrs. Susman, from San Antonio, Tex., who never before had won a national singles title, became a double Wimbledon champion later in the day when she and Billie Jean Moffitt of Long Beach, Calif., successfully defended their women's doubles crown by beating South Africans Sandra Price and Renee Schuurman, 5-7, 6-3, 7-5, in the finals of that event.

Mrs. Susman came from behind in both sets of the singles final to beat her 30-year-old rival, who had scored several stunning upsets in earlier rounds with her soft style of play.

Leg Injury
Mrs. Sukova, only the third unseeded player ever to reach the women's singles final in the all-England championships, aggravated a leg injury while leading in the second set. She lost four of the last five games and, after limping off the court, said, "I think, maybe, I could have won."

"It's a great pity it had to end that way," said Mrs. Susman, but U. S. team captain Bob Kelleher of Los Angeles said "There is no question Karen was the superior player" and the crowd of 15,000 appeared to agree by the huge ovation it gave the first U. S. Wimbledon singles champion since Althea Gibson of New York took the women's crown in 1958.

Mrs. Sukova, a brassy Prague housewife who works part-time in a Czech jet aircraft factory, said the injury she suffered Saturday was an aggravation of an ankle twist she suffered Friday in walking down a carpeted stairs in her hotel.

She said that it bothered her throughout the match, but especially starting in the sixth game of the second set at a time when she was leading, 3-2.

Mrs. Susman, who had just rallied from a 3-0 deficit in that set despite two linesmen's calls that were criticized by the crowd, said she didn't notice Mrs. Sukova limping until the final game of the match when Mrs. Susman was leading, 5-3.

Mrs. Sukova, a dogged retriever whose main tennis talent is covering ground to return shots, fought off match point four times in that final game before Mrs. Susman crashed a forehand shot into a corner for the deciding point. The American girl was presented with the championship trophy by the Duchess of Kent, who also presented the 1958 trophy to Miss Gibson.

had been reading criticism of Mrs. Susman's play in the British press for two weeks, obviously was rooting for the underdog Mrs. Sukova at the start of the match. British writers had rapped Mrs. Susman's slow-down style of play and suggested she was trying to upset her opponents, but Mrs. Susman said the deliberate "is my game — no my gamesmanship."

In the second game of the first set Mrs. Susman twice tossed a ball up to serve and then let it drop. She said later it was due to nervousness, but the crowd began to clap ironically and she was so upset she double-faulted.

But the crowd was all with the U. S. girl in the second set when she battled grimly back from loss of the first three games. In the fourth game the crowd gasped in surprise when a linesman called "out" on one of her forehands that raised powder from the baseline. And it groaned, "No, no" on her very next service when a linesman called "fault" on what seemed to be an ace. When she won the game despite these calls, the crowd gave her huge applause.

Cleveland, Ohio (UPI)—The Cleveland Indians have signed shortstop Terry Wenger for their Charleston farm club in their Class A Eastern League. Wenger, 22, was named Western Reserve university's outstanding athlete this year.

Willie Mays, who made a fine catch of Wally Moon's smash in the sixth inning, gave San Francisco a 1-0 lead in the first with his 25th home run. Then five of San Francisco's next eight tallies were unearned.

The third place Pittsburgh Pirates moved to within 4 1/2 games of the league lead by beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-4. Pittsburgh, trailing 3-0, rallied for four runs in the sixth inning and two more in the seventh to give reliever Elroy Face his fifth victory in six decisions. Roberto Clemente paced the Pirate attack with three hits.

Bob Purkey registered his 14th victory of the season as he pitched the Cincinnati Reds to a 10-1 decision over the Houston Colts. Purkey helped his own cause in the near 100-degree temperature with a third-inning homer and teammate Vada Pinson blasted his 15th home run. The St. Louis Cardinals gained a split with the New York Mets when Stan Musial hit an eighth-inning homer for a 3-2 St. Louis win after the Mets had taken the opener of the doubleheader, 3-4.

Meanwhile, at Denver, Omaha was defeating the Bears, 9-6, paced by Don Le John's grand slam homer in the second inning, in which the Dodgers tallied six runs. Larry Williams (7-4), who relieved Omaha starter Burdon Wheeler in the fifth, got the win. Allen Koch (2-1), the first of four Denver pitchers, was tagged with the loss.

In Friday night's other game, host Oklahoma City edged Dallas-Ft. Worth, 6-5, thanks to Jim Campbell's fifth-inning homer with one out, which provided what proved to be the winning run.

Giants Clip Dodgers; Recapture 1st Place

By United Press International
The San Francisco Giants, with Jack Sanford pitching hitless ball for the first six innings, recaptured first place from the error-plagued Los Angeles Dodgers Saturday by trouncing them 10-3.

Los Angeles cracked for five errors against the Giants for the second consecutive time in the four-game series and dropped back to a half game off the pace.

Heading into the seventh inning, Sanford had allowed only one walk while retiring the other 18 batters he faced. But the Dodgers then routed him with three straight hits and picked up two quick runs.

Willie Mays, who made a fine catch of Wally Moon's smash in the sixth inning, gave San Francisco a 1-0 lead in the first with his 25th home run. Then five of San Francisco's next eight tallies were unearned.

The third place Pittsburgh Pirates moved to within 4 1/2 games of the league lead by beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-4. Indianapolis Preserves Lead

By United Press International
Indianapolis managed to preserve its game and a half edge over second place Omaha in the American association Friday night but it took a ninth-inning rally to do it.

The host Indians held a 3-1 edge over Louisville going into the ninth and starter Frank Kreutzer appeared heading toward an easy victory. Then the roof fell in and the Colonels pushed across five runs, two of them on Lou Klimchick's homer with a mate aboard.

Out went Kreutzer and in came former major leaguer Warren Hacker, who retired the Colonels. Then the Indians roared back with two runs of their own in the bottom of the ninth and it was Hacker's victory, 7-6.

Meanwhile, at Denver, Omaha was defeating the Bears, 9-6, paced by Don Le John's grand slam homer in the second inning, in which the Dodgers tallied six runs. Homers Help Yanks Top Minnesota Again

By United Press International
The New York Yankees, powered by the homers of Hector Lopez and Bill Skowron, halted an eight-inning rally by the Minnesota Twins to score a 6-3 victory Saturday.

Bill Stafford was sailing along with a one-hitter until the eighth inning when the Twins loaded the bases on two singles and a walk. Marshall Bridges came on in relief with nobody out and walked in a pair of Minnesota runs and allowed a third to score on a fielder's choice before retiring the side.

The Yankees teed off on Minnesota starter Jack Kralick for seven hits and six runs in the 5 1/2 innings he worked. Lopez's homer came in the fourth with one man on and Skowron poked his two-run blast in the sixth to kayo Kralick.

Mickey Mantle drove in New York's first run in the opening frame with a double to right which scored Bob Richardson. Elston Howard accounted for the other Yankee run in the sixth with a sacrifice fly.

The Baltimore Orioles took advantage of loose fielding by the Detroit Tigers during a three-run ninth-inning rally to score a 7-6 victory. Norm Cash, knocked in three Detroit runs with his 22nd and 23rd homers of the season, Jim Gentile hit his 20th homer for the Orioles.

The Cleveland Indians remained a half-game ahead of the Yankees in the American league race by downing the Chicago White Sox, 5-3, for their sixth straight victory. A two-run homer by Bubba Phillips in the eighth inning provided the Indians with their winning margin. Don Dillard homered for Cleveland in the seventh.

In night games, Washington was at Kansas City and Boston at Los Angeles.

Competing in Annual Powder Puff Derby

Salt Lake City (UPI)—The 50 women pilots competing in the 16th annual transcontinental powder puff derby touched down here Saturday. Some immediately renewed their flights while others remained overnight.

Pilot Judy Wagner of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., was the first to arrive from Oakland, Calif., on the first leg of the 2,500-mile trip to Wilmington, Del.

She was followed four minutes later by Susan Parrish and Jean Hixson, a pair of midwestern flyers. Parrish, of Ichory Corners, Mich., and Hixson, of Akron, Ohio, were the first to resume their flight east toward Rock Springs, Wyo.

Wednesday—Grants Pass at Crater Cubs; Medford at Yreka; Friday—Crater Cubs at Yreka; Grants Pass at Central Point Mustangs.

Grants Pass and Central Point Crater Cubs scored triumphs Friday in the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league.

Grants Pass took over the top position in the standings with a 2 to 1 nod over Medford. Crater bounced the Central Point Mustangs 7 to 1 to hand the Mustangs their first loss.

The Cubs came from behind with three runs on four hits in the fourth inning in beating the Mustangs. Grants Pass got its winning run in the bottom of the seventh panel with two out. Duchien tripled and Larry Forsgren scored him with a single.

At Grants Pass the home team got a run in the second inning on hits by Roger Ramsey and Charles Williams, a fielder's option and an error. Medford evened the game with a marker in the top of the seventh on hits by Rick Hassman and Tom Wootton and a fielder's choice and an error.

Gets Three Hits
GP pitcher Steve Warf, in a six-hit job, allowed only one walk. He struck out 10. Medford's Mark Kinney also heaved a six-hitter. He fanned four and issued no free passes. Darryl Summerfield socked two doubles and a single for the Crater Cubs. Frank Armstrong and Ray White each doubled and singled and John Rhodes had a two-base hit. Rhodes, pitching for the Cubs, struck out 11 and walked five. He was reached for three hits. Dave White, Mustang hurler, permitted 11 hits and three bases on batters.

Friday's encounter was the first actual league action for Grants Pass. It took a forfeit win from Yreka, Calif., which failed to show for two games last week.

In the Pee Wee league on Thursday the Medford Tigers reportedly beat Phoenix-Talent. A tussle slated between the Central Point Braves and Jacksonville was not played. Crater Cubs, 0-0 3-2 7-11 0 CP Mustangs, 1-0 0-0 1-1 3-3 Rhodes and Summerfield, D. White and Muller.
