Garden Party Honors Couple on Anniversary

Yreka — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Desoza of Grenada were honored recently at a reception which observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The event, in the form of a surprise, was held in the garden at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Soares.

Earlier the couple had been honored by members of the Montague Trailriders, who arrived at their home and served refreshments. The party also honored Mr. and Mrs. Merle Freeman of Grenada who had observed their twenty-fifth anniversary in June. Both couples were presented gifts of silver dollars from the group of 25 persons.

Bridal Showers Are Given For Joyce Roelfs

Miss Joyce Roelfs, bride-elect of Donald Tinseth, was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower June 28. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Doyle Franklin, Mrs. Douglas Cummings, and Mrs. Charles Clemans. The shower was held in the Franklin home at 401 King street.

Miss Roelfs is a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Roelfs, West Pioneer road, and Mr. Tinseth's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Tinseth, 1300 Queen Anne avenue. The wedding is planned for August 11.

Mrs. Albert Gandt served cake and Mrs. Clemans served the punch. Guests included Mrs. John Roelfs, Mrs. Mary Smith, Miss Judy Franklin, Mrs. Eric DePlace, Miss Mary DePlace, Mrs. Charles Cummings, Mrs. Russell Uhrine, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. Nora Jenks and daughter Norma, Mrs. Richard Morris, Mrs. Donald Zimmers, and Mrs. Charles Gilbert and daughter Peggy.

Other guests were Mrs. Lorene Reid, Miss Anna Laura Hoots, Mrs. Irvin Goltz, Mrs. Emil Peterson, Miss Sonja Peterson, Mrs. Miner Boshears, Miss Patricia LeQueu, Mrs. Fred Landers, Mrs. Vern Chapman and granddaughter Mary, Mrs. Robert Gresham, the Misses Julia and Caroline Gandt, Mrs. Fay Goddard, Mrs. Don Lindstrom, Mrs. Tinseth, Mrs. Angus Lindstrom, Mrs. Don Chase, Mrs. Clem Auli, Mrs. John Higdon, and Mrs. Bernard Andrews.

On Monday, July 2 Mrs. Keith Hockersmith and Mrs. Lloyd Neilson entertained at a miscellaneous shower in Miss Roelfs' honor. The event was held at the Hockersmith home at 3022 Madrona lane.

The early part of the evening was spent in the patio where games were played. Later the gifts were opened in the home and refreshments served from a table decorated with an arrangement of pink roses. About 30 persons attended.

The wedding is set for August 11 in the Friends church.

Miss Elaine Morrill

Bogota Teacher And Minister Engaged to Wed

Ashland — Mrs. Bertha Morrill, 629 Altamont street, last week announced the engagement of her daughter, Elaine Christine, to the Rev. Robert A. Lloyd of Chitre, Panama.

The announcement was made during Miss Morrill's short vacation from her teaching position in Bogota, Colombia, at Colegio Americano.

The bride-to-be, who is the daughter of Mrs. Morrill and the late Rev. Curtis Morrill, is a graduate of Ashland High school and of Whitworth college, Spokane, Wash., where she returned recently for her commissioning in the Fourth Memorial church. She is flying to Bogota to resume her work in the mission school.

Newlywed Couple Here; Honored at Reception

Central Point — St. Barnabas Episcopal church in Portland was the scene of the marriage of Miss Norma Joy Phifer to Dennis Ford Faulkner on Saturday, June 30. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Howard Phifer, Portland, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Russell Faulkner, 693 Head road, Central Point.

The Rev. John Day read the ceremony at seven o'clock in the evening, and Mr. Phifer gave his daughter in marriage. White gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the altar.

The bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over taffeta designed on Empire lines with scoop neckline and short sleeves. The skirt was adorned at the back with a bow and streamers of taffeta.

A headdress of organza roses on lace held her elbow-length tulle veil and she carried phalaenopsis orchids and green ivy.

Wears Cross — She wore an heirloom cross given her by her grandfather, Mrs. Lowell B. Grabel, Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. William F. Cummins, Corvallis, Ore., was the bride's attendant. She wore a rose-colored floor-length frock of peau de soie fashioned with a semi-belted skirt and carried pale green spider chrysanthemums. Her headdress matched her gown.

Capt. Fredrick Hal Faulkner, Lubbock, Tex., was best man for his brother and ushers were Eric Hudson Phifer and Marc Layton Phifer, the bride's brothers, and Gregg Faulkner, brother of the bridegroom. Robert Jones, Portland, lighted the candles.

The reception which followed the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, with about 50 guests attending.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of aquamarine colored lace with furs and her flowers were a white pink-throated orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a lace sheath of soft green with a hat of huckle heads and veiling. Her corsage was a white and gold-tinted orchid.

Among the guests were the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Charles Payne and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Payne and Miss Jean Neely, all Eugene, and Mrs. Faulkner, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and her son, Michael, both of Lubbock, Tex.

The newlyweds have arrived in the Rogue valley and will make their home at 206 Fourth street, Phoenix, during the summer. This fall they will return to Oregon State university, Corvallis, where Mr. Faulkner will be a senior majoring in landscape architecture and the bride will be a junior majoring in clothing design.

Following their arrival in the valley, the newlyweds were honored at a reception and shower at the home of the bridegroom's parents on July 4.

Some 40 relatives and friends attended including Air Force Capt. and Mrs. Faulkner and son, Michael, Lubbock, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Neely, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lownd, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and family; Mr. and Mrs. Lue Tulare and family; Mr. and Mrs. Porter Ford and family, and Ralph and Glen Ford, all Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Payne and Edward Payne, all Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Davis and family, Springfield, Ore.
