

Bride Carries Heirloom Book

When Miss Margaret Mary Jacobs became the bride of D. Lorin Jacobs Saturday, June 23 she carried an heirloom book that had been carried by her great grandmother, Miss Ann Willis, on her wedding day December 7, 1867, when she became the bride of George Lawrence. The book contains the Presbyterian church marriage ritual.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milan L. Jacobs and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Jacobs, Route 4, Box 350, Medford.

The Rev. John Reynolds

Laura, Betsy and Amy Byers. Brother Best Man Don W. Jacobs, a brother of the bridegroom was best man, and Gordon McVay, Donald Rasmussen and Jean Skirvon were ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her floor length gown of peau de sole was trimmed with applied lace and was in a sheath design with fullness of the same material attached to the waist at the back. Her bolero was of lace and her elbow length veil was held by a net bow.

With the heirloom wedding book the bride carried cymbidium orchids and a cascade of stephanotis.

Miss Cook wore a turquoise colored frock of peau de sole similar to the bride's gown and trimmed with a self material bow and worn with a matching headpiece. She carried a nosegay of Ester Reed daisies dyed to match her frock.

Dresses Match

The junior bridesmaids wore matching dresses in tangerine taffeta with full skirts, fitted bolices and overskirts of eyelet embroidered organza. Their headresses were of matching tangerine taffeta, and their nosegays of Ester Reed roses also matched their dresses.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and colored majestic daisies.

The bride's mother wore a chartreuse colored silk sheath dress with matching hat and beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a beige sheath dress with matching accessories and both mothers had corsages of cymbidium orchids.

The reception was held in the church rooms. Arrangements of white penulias and candelabra decorated the reception table. Women of the church were in charge of the reception and the serving.

Mrs. Patricia Kellington took charge of the guest book. Mrs. Joseph Beach served coffee and Mrs. Josephine Wing, Santa Clara, Calif.,

Anderson-Bennett Rites Held at Central Church

An event of June 29 was the wedding of Miss Linda Lorene Bennett and William Ray Anderson. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Bennett, 73 Clover lane, and parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. Ila Anderson, 1721 West Eleventh street, and Ray Anderson, 844 Dakota avenue.

John V. Heberling performed the 6 o'clock evening ceremony. The double ring rites were held in the Central Church of Christ. About 180 guests attended.

Mrs. Clarence Pierce was soloist, and Mrs. James Johnson played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown fashioned with Chantilly lace over taffeta bodice and taffeta skirt. Her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl tiara, and she carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and carnations, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Mrs. John H. Greb, Corvallis, was matron of honor for her sister. Mrs. James Prock, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaid, while Miss Linda Aubrey, Central Point, was bridesmaid. They wore white brocade sheath frocks with blue chiffon overskirts. Their headresses were white with short veils, and they carried pink carnations and rosebuds.

Junior attendants were Miss Vicki Bennett, sister of the bride, and Douglas Bennett, the bride's cousin. Miss Barbara Bennett, another sister, and Miss Deborah Boardman lighted the candles.

Little Brenda Curtis and Johnny Hagler, Phoenix, cousins of the bride, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Mr. Greb, Corvallis, and James M. Nippa seated the guests.

Blue delphinium, white Japanese iris, and white Ester Reed daisies decorated the church for the wedding. Decorations were arranged by Mrs. Otto Bohnert and Mrs. James Cornutt.

For the ceremony and the reception that followed Mrs. Bennett chose a white suit worn with deep pink accessories and a corsage of deep pink rosebuds. Mrs. Anderson wore a light green suit and white accessories, with a white carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the church hall, which was decorated by Mrs. Ira Copley with white candles, pink and white daisies, and blue ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Budd Mitchell and Mrs. Glen Bennett, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Kathryn South and Mrs. Glen Kaufman, also an aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Diana Schultz was in charge of the guest book. The Misses Penne Mundlin, Klamath Falls, Jude Frink, Ruth Henney, and Ilene Mitchell were at the gift table.

For traveling to the coast the bride chose a blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. On their return the newlywed couple will make their home at 1222 West Main street, Apartment 3.

The bride is a student at Medford High school. Mr. Anderson, a graduate of Medford High school, is employed by Timber Products company.

Others attending included Mr. Withrow, Mrs. Bill Jacobs, Mrs. Leo Jacobs and Sharon Ann, Bill and Teresa Allen, Pam Conner; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Withrow, Sandra, Sonny and Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen and Kim; Mrs. Robert Jacobs and Jacki, and Mrs. Earl Sommer, Debbie and Ronnie, Talent.

Only two of Mrs. Jacobs' grandchildren were not present for the event. They were Michael Jacobs, who is serving with the U. S. Army in Korea, and James Allen, who is in California.

Also honored were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen who were married June 13 in Carson City, Nevada. Mrs. Allen is the former Mary Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell, Ashland. Mr. Allen's parents are Mrs. Pauline Allen, 935 Murray avenue, Medford, and James Allen, Sacramento, Calif.
