Miss Marilyn Jean Howell Bride of Gavis Dean Moore

Tiller - A wedding of interest to Tiller residents was held June 16 in Redding, Calif., when Miss Marilyn Jean Howell, formerly of Tiller, became the bride of Gavis Dean Moore, Bend, in a ceremony held at the Redding Methodist church.

The Rev. Hilton Parks, Tehama, Calif., Assembly of God church minister, officiated at the double ring ceremony held at five o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howell, now of Redding. Mr. Howell operated logging trucks in the Tiller area and had the mail contract between Canyonville and Johnson's Camp for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Moore, Bend, are the bridegroom's parents.

Among the 150 wedding guests were a number of relatives and friends from southern Oregon.

Father Gives Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of peau de soie accented with reembodyered Alencon lace applique. Her silk illusion veil was elbow length and fell from a pearl crown. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of orchids, lilies of the valley, and stephanotis.

Mrs. David Howell, Redding, served as matron of honor for her sister-in-law. Bridesmaids were Miss Frances Newman, Sutherlin; Miss Carolee Busch, Bend; Miss Darlene Louery, Concord, Calif., and Miss Janet Criswell, Ashland. They wore frocks of salmon colored chiffon over taffeta with white picture hats and carried cascade bouquets of yellow and salmon carnations with white umbrellas.

Candlelighters were Miss Ellen Moore, sister of the bridegroom, and Richard Ross, the bride's cousin.

Dan Moore, Bend, served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Gary Nelson, Robert Walker, Paul Reynolds and Robert Fix, all Bend. Head usher was David Howell, Redding, the bride's brother.

Mrs. Verda Ross, Yucapita, Calif., the bride's aunt, played the organ wedding music and accompanied the Rev. John Fenderson, Newport, Ore.; Mrs. Ann Reynolds, Bend, sister of the bridegroom, and Virgil Olsen, Redding, soloists.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the patio of the Howell home. Later the Howells were hosts for a buffet dinner at their home for 100 out of town guests and relatives and members of the wedding party. Assisting with the dinner were Mrs. Don Newman and Mrs. Earl Tibbets, both Tiller.

The newlyweds traveled to the Bay area for their wedding trip, and are at home in Bend.

Among the area out of town guests in California for the wedding were Mrs. David Weakley, Mr. Newman, and Miss Peggy Tibbets, all Tiller; Mrs. Virgle Louery, Drew; Miss Rosie Young, Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lohr and Linda, Canyonville; and Miss Karol Kiep, Mt. Shasta, Calif. A number of other guests arrived from California points and northern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Craig

Miss Howard Bride Of Ralph Craig

The father of the bridegroom officiated at the ceremony when Miss Jacqueline Kay Howard, Medford, became the bride of Ralph E. Craig, son of the Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Craig, 306 First street, Phoenix.

The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill G. Howard, 5204 South Pacific highway, on Sunday, June 10.

Mr. Craig is minister of the First Southern Baptist church of Phoenix. The double ring ceremony was held at three o'clock in the afternoon. Yellow and white roses, yellow iris and ivy decorated the home.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an off-white wool box suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of salmon rosebuds.

Mrs. William Lee Wenker was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a blue sheath dress with matching jacket and her flowers were mock orange and yellow rosebuds.

Norman Malotte served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Howard home. Miss Wanda Craig, sister of the bridegroom, cut the cake and poured the punch.

For the wedding and reception, Mrs. Howard wore a beige shirtwaist frock with gold accents and white accessories. Mrs. Craig chose a beige suit with brown accents and brown accessories. Their corsages were mock orange.

The bride is a graduate of Phoenix High school and is employed by Craterian theater. Mr. Craig is a graduate of Fall River High school in California and is a sophomore at Southern Oregon college in Ashland where he is majoring in engineering. He served four years in the U.S.
