

Eagles' Dick Wilson Selected To All-American Honor Squad

Dick Wilson, Eagle Point High school all-star, has been named to the Wigwam Wisemen of America National High School All-American basketball honor squad.

He was one of eight Oregon players so honored.

Of the eight, Rick Whelan, Milwaukie, was picked on a 20-man all-American team at a guard position. Other Oregonians are Dick Nicholas, Prineville; Dave Fritz, St. Helens; John Franz, Eugene; Howard Logsdon, Baker; Gary Crabbaugh, Marshfield; and Jack Morrison, McMinnville.

Wilson was a cog for the most successful hoop team in Eagle Point high history. He was center for the Eagles who won 16 straight games, earned the No. 1 A-2 hoop rating in the state, won the Rogue league and District 6 championship and entered the state tournament, compiling a 23-3 season record under the helm of Coach Dale Bates.

With 494 points and 278 rebounds Wilson led the Eagles in the scoring and rebounding departments. He was named to the A-2 all-state second team of the Oregon Journal and to the A-2 all-tournament

BOAT RUMORED OFF

London — (UPI) — Britain's boxing grapevine buzzed with rumors today that the Terry Downes-Sugar Ray Robinson fight scheduled for Wembley Arena on Sept. 25 will be called off. The proposed bout between the two ex-world middleweight kings, which was expected to give a badly needed "shot in the arm" to England's fight game, lost its appeal when Robinson dropped a split decision Monday to Phil Meyer in Los Angeles.

LADIES SHOOT 70s

Milwaukee — (UPI) — Veteran campaigner Patty Berg established herself as a favorite in the Milwaukee Jaycee Women's $10,000 Open golf meet starting today when she shot a sparkling, men's par 70 in preliminary play Wednesday. Miss Berg's feat was equalled by Marlene Hagge, as they participated in an 18-hole pro-amateur best ball event.

Coast Loop Stars Defeat LA Angels

Portland, Ore. — (UPI) — The Kansas City Athletics winced every time strong-armed Dan Osinski of the Portland Beavers goes to the mound.

And he had the Los Angeles Angels doing some winning, too, Wednesday night. Osinski, a 28-year-old right-hander, turned in a brilliant relief pitching job to spark the Pacific Coast league all-stars to a 6-5 victory over the Angels before 12,198 fans.

The fast-balling minor league star came on with one out in the eighth inning and struck out four of the five batters to face him. The other collected the win.

Osinski, who owns a 7-3 record and a 1.25 earned run average in 72 innings pitched for Portland, started the year with Kansas City.

But the A's sold him to Albuquerque, N.M., shortly after the season began and the Beavers then purchased him. And since his options have been used up, he can't be called up by Kansas City or any other major league team.

Another Portland player, catcher Dave Ricketts, batted out a solo home run in the eighth inning to give the all-stars their winning run.

Air Force Academy, Colo. — (UPI) — Felix (Doc) Blanchard, former West Point star, has been elevated to assistant football coach at the Air Force academy. Blanchard replaces Tom Berry, who has resigned.
