July 4 Celebration Winners Announced

Happy Camp - The Fourth of July celebration at Happy Camp ended after four days of festivities with winners named in many competitive events. Winner of the Homelite 500 Chainsaw was Ron Crother of Happy Camp, using his own Homelite 770 to win over Willie Attebery who finished second, and L. T. Huddleston coming in third in the popular Log Bucking contest. The saw was donated to the Happy Camp Volunteer Fire Department to be used as first prize in the event by Hermans Saw Shop of Happy Camp and the Homelite Chain Saw Factory.

The Log Rolling champ for the second straight year was Clem White of Happy Camp who stayed with the log longer than any of his opponents. White won the $20 cash prize donated by Evans Mercantile store and a trophy. Second prize in the men's division was won by Allan Wilson whose prize was merchandise from Klamath Hardware and from Herman's Saw Shop.

In the women's division of the Log Rolling contest, first prize went to Mrs. Donna Shinskie, daughter of Clem White who won first in the men's division. Mrs. Shinskie won a trophy and $10 in cash donated by Frostie Freeze. Second prize was won by Karen Stanley who received a cash prize donated by Joe's cafe. First prize in the Go-Cart race was won by Ted Jensen, who received a cash prize donated by Lloyd Westby and a trophy, the cash being returned to the Fire Department by Jensen as a donation. Second prize was won by Pete Fleming, in ten gallons of gas donated by Union Oil Co.

The Ladies Flap Jack race ended after three days of competition also with Sharon Crocker named grand winner, her prize being $25 in cash from Dewey's cafe. Pauline Attebery won second and received a $5 in trade prize from Tina's Dress Shop. The third prize of two rib steak dinners at Reds Cafe went to Gail Zink. Early in the celebration a turkey shoot was held with sharpshooters from the area making some impressive shots for their prizes. According to Fire Chief Frank Louten the Fire Department had a very successful Fourth of July receiving only two minor calls during all the festivities.

Catching the greased pig was Frankie Walden Jr. who took the pig home as his prize. During each day of competition cash prizes were also awarded besides the grand winners named above. According to Louten, both the dances held during the celebration were well attended. The money taken in during the celebration will be used to buy additional fire fighting and rescue equipment for the needs of this community.

SALVATION ARMY TRUCK Yreka-The Salvation Army Red Shield truck from Sacramento will be in the Yreka area July 20. Door card distribution will be completed by July 19 and everyone having discards to give away is asked to leave the card out the next day for the Red Shield truck to stop. The Salvation Army truck will pick up used clothing, furniture bric-a-brac and similar items - but will not be able to take newspapers or magazines.

COPCO LAKE POPULAR Hornbrook - Copco lake is becoming increasingly popular with a number of local people as a recreation area. Spending the past week camping at the lake were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lampkins and Bruce, Terry and Michele, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chadwick and George, Christy, Mike and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. James Dickson and Shirley, Karen and Billy. Joining them on Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew (Buck) Skehan and Mike, Jimmy, Greg and Tonya.

Other local families spending time off and on with the campers were Jiggs Sage of Hill, Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. (Pete) Fisher and children, the Willis Jones and the George Smith families, Mr. and Mrs. Al King and Terry, "Oz" Cummins, Steve, Dale and Gene Farmer and Eric Larson. Recreation enjoyed by the group included boating, water skiing, swimming, fishing and "just plain loafing."

TOURS CAVES Cave Junction - Horace Marden Albright toured the Oregon Caves June 24 when he stopped here on his way to the national conference on national parks in Seattle. He has been connected with the national parks service for many years. He was superintendent of Yellowstone Park from 1919 to 1929 when he became the second director of the National Parks service and held this position until 1934. Campfire programs were started at the Caves earlier this year at the request of visitors. These programs begin with talks by Richard Lipsey, the Monument's naturalist and are followed by entertainment by the Caves staff. On Sundays the program is preceded by services conducted by student minister Walter Perry. The first two talks this season covered eight species of bats found in this area and wildflowers found in this section of Oregon. Visitors also see more of the monument on the nature walks conducted by Ranger Lipsey.

NEW TEACHERS Happy Camp - Three new teachers have been hired by the Siskiyou Union High school district for the Happy Camp High school for the fall term. One more teacher is needed to complete the faculty. Hired as homemaking and history teacher was Mrs. Frances Ross of Santa Cruz. Mrs. Ross received her degree from San Francisco State College. She has been doing substitute teaching in the Santa Cruz schools. Raymond P. Tripp of San Jose has been hired as the science teacher to replace the late Arthur French who died mid-way in the term last year. Tripp, 23, is married and has no children. His wife is a secretary-bookkeeper. Tripp graduated from San Jose State last spring where he majored in Physical Science, Physics, and Chemistry. He has been doing student teaching in summer school at San Jose. The third new teacher to be hired was Leon Perry from Lawson, Okla., who will be teaching English. His experience included teaching three years at Lawson, where he graduated from Oklahoma State University. He is attending University of Oklahoma at Stillwater this summer. Perry is married and has one child. He has been to Happy Camp the past three summers working for the USFS at Happy Camp.

Tablets By R. E. NEALON Mail Tribune Table Rock Correspondent

Table Rock - A wedding held Saturday, July 7, at the Central Church of Christ in Medford joined in holy matrimony Miss Margaret Pendleton, and Byron Rominger. The ceremony was performed by John Bigham, now taking John Heberling's place while he is on vacation. Byron is a local boy now in the U. S. Armed Services stationed at San Francisco. Miss Pendleton, is a Central Point girl whose father, Vern Pendleton, was the former owner of the J. S. Richardson farm here.

Mr. Omar Robinson and two daughters, of Rio Linda, Calif. were recent overnight guests with relatives at the E. E. Robinson home. They were on their way to Seattle to attend the World's Fair. Miss Glenna May Brown and Patsy Stripplin are now in Portland looking for employment.

Many farmers remember when we used horses about this time of the year. The horse flies about eleven o'clock would begin pestering the horses and the driver would try to get them by flipping the lines, but seldom hitting them. Some of the pests or some of the younger generation must know about old times for during the last few days they have been trying to penetrate the hide of our tractor.

The news item in a recent issue of the M. T. relative to repair work on County roads to be charged to abutting property aroused quite a little interest here among land owners. Les Bigham, a member of the county road crew, told us that when grading work was to be done along the road sides they had to first send a crew to pick up broken bottles and glass to protect the rubber tires of the road building implements. This, we presume would be repair work, but since it is a law violation to throw such things in the road right-a-way we'll be hanged if we pay for this work along our holdings. We must get getting quite city-fied. We wonder when they will start putting up parking meters.

Hoovers Come to Call Charley Hoover and wife, were brief visitors here Sunday. They were over this way to get some organic raspberries from the Rowell organic gardens. Charley goes along with us in believing we can come as near proving that Grant passed through here, as the opposition can that he didn't. During our whirlwind conversation we learned that Charley was born in Grants Pass. It must have been after Grant was there, otherwise the place would have been named Hooversburg, or something like that. Charley loves the grand old State of Oregon, and does resent hearing it called the fool of the flock, as some do, when Oregonians refuse to vote for a sales tax or the daylight saving time. We have been from Canada to Mexico, and never found any place we liked as well.

We recently received word from a lady telling us how she enjoys reading the Tablets, but wishes we wouldn't be so hard on the Republicans. We didn't know we were tough on Republicans. She must have been reading between the lines. Kenneth Hensley, a former resident, but now living in San Francisco, was a recent brief caller here at the Frank Myers home. Thought for the day - Angry words are like arrows; once when let loose they cause trouble.

Eagle Point Council Told of Irrigation Flooding Problem

By DOTTIE HARBISON Eagle Point - Representatives from Fryer Irrigation district met with Eagle Point Councilmen this week, asking their aid in fixing the ditch which was damaged with the installation of the city sewer lines. According to members of the irrigation board, they are receiving complaints from people along the front section of the irrigation line who are being flooded out with from one to two feet of water standing in their yards and basements due to seepage water from the ditch.

Part of the ditch was disturbed to allow the installation of the sewer line and refilled to a 12 feet depth with shale which allows the water to seep underground. Also noted were the complaints of people on the far end of the line who were not receiving their water for the same reason. High spots left in the ditch were also sighted as part of the trouble.

Members of the board said they were having trouble with the tampering of the main gate by other than authorized persons who left too large a head of water through which also flooded out some of the residents. This has been remedied by a steel gate that can be locked in place, they told the council.

Clark Family Plans To Retire at Trail

Trail - Newcomers to this area are Mr. and Mrs. Emmett J. Clark, and Mrs. Clark's brother, Roy Dake. Clark has been an employee of the General Motors Corporation for the past 26 years, and is looking forward to his retirement in the near future. Dake has been in the radio and TV repair business since 1942.

After visiting in Southern Oregon last year, they decided this was the place they wanted to retire, and purchased the old Clark place on Netherland Road, which, incidentally, is irrigated by Clark Creek. They have now returned to Bellflower, Calif., for the purpose of selling their property, but Dake intends to return earlier and begin construction on their future home.

Applegate Girl Goes To Hawaii To Work At Girl Scout Camp Applegate - Miss Julia Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Brown of Applegate, left recently via Trans Continental Airlines for Haleiwa, Hawaii, where she will be an assistant unit leader at Girl Scout Camp Paumotu. She was accompanied by Stephanie Anderson of Delta Waters road, Medford, who will also act as an assistant unit leader at the same camp. Their duties will end August 24, and they plan to spend a week vacationing there before returning home August 30.

Miss Brown has attended Southern Oregon college three years and has been an assistant camp counselor at Low Echo at Lake of the Woods two years.
