Here Come Those Indians Led by Essegian

Cleveland Close on Yank Heels

By MILTON RICHMAN
 UPI Sports Writer

As General Custer said: Here come those blankety-blank Indians again!

It was no joke for Custer then, nor does it seem to be one for Ralph Houk and his New York Yankees now.

The guy right up there in front leading the Indians' second-half attack is Chuck Essegian. He's no stranger, having struck several key blows in Cleveland's cause during the first half of the season.

Essegian boosted the Indians to within four percentage points of the first-place Yankees when he blasted a pinch three-run homer in the ninth inning Thursday night to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 6-4.

Baltimore took a 3-1 lead into the ninth but pinch-hitter Willie Tasty tied the score with a two-run single. Then, after the Tribe put another man on base, Essegian came off the bench and drilled his 14th homer off Billy Hoefl, Bell Was Winner.

Gary Bell, third of six Cleveland pitchers, was the winner. Tribe manager Mel McGaha employed three hurlers in the bottom of the ninth when the Orioles scored once and filled the bases before Frank Funk nailed down the final out.

The Los Angeles Angels held off the Yankees, 5-4, Washington downed Minnesota, 7-4, in 10 innings, the Chicago White Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, and Kansas City beat Boston, 5-4, in the opener of a doubleheader but dropped the 11-inning nightcap, 9-4.

The Los Angeles Dodgers maintained their half-game lead in the National league with a 3-0 shutout over the New York Mets, while San Francisco's second-place Giants topped the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-3, Pittsburgh hurled Houston, 6-4, Milwaukee stopped St. Louis, 6-5, and the Cincinnati Reds rapped the Chicago Cubs, 8-4.

Rookie Dean Chance of the Angels saved Ted Bowsfield's victory over the Yankees by halting a four-run rally in the seventh inning. The Angels ripped into Whitey Ford for four runs in the first inning when Felix Torres tripled with the bases full and Torres drove in another run with a sacrifice fly in the third. Jim King connected for a two-run homer off Minnesota starter Jack Kralick in the eighth to tie the score at 4-4, then belted another two-run homer off loser Ray Moore in the 10th to bring the Senators their victory. Bob Allison, Harmon Killebrew, Chuck Cottier, Earl Battey and Harry Bright also hit homers. Dave Stephouse won the distance for his seventh victory.

Juan Pizarro limited the Tigers to two hits in winning his eighth game for the White Sox. Joe Cunningham's sixth inning homer tied the score at 2-2 and Nellie Fox singled home the winning run off loser Don Mossi in the eighth.

The A's won their opener from the Red Sox on George Alusk's pinch single with two out in the ninth, but Bob Tillman's two-run homer highlighted a five-run Boston rally in the 11th inning of the nightcap. Lou Clinton hit a pair of homers in the second game and drove in two other runs with an 11th inning triple for the Red Sox.

Koufax Hurts Finger
 Southpaw Sandy Koufax recorded his 14th victory for the Dodgers against the Mets although he had to depart after seven innings because of a finger injury. Koufax yielded three hits and struck out six, while Larry Sherry held the Mets hitless over the last two frames. Ex-Dodger Roger Craig was the loser.

Willie Mays collected three hits and Jose Pagan homered in the Giants' victory over the Phillies. Jack Sanford won his 10th with help from Stu Miller in the eighth. Jack Hamilton absorbed the loss.

Smoky Burgess' three-run homer, Dick Stuart's two-run homer and Bob Skinner's solo homer powered the Pirates to victory over the Colts. Alvin McBean scattered nine hits for his ninth victory while Jim Golden suffered his eighth loss.

Hank Aaron brought the Braves from behind against the Cards with a grand slam homer in the ninth inning after his kid brother, Tommie, started the rally with a solo homer. The defeat was charged to Lindy McDaniel, who relieved Larry Jackson in the ninth. Claude Raymond was the winner.

Triples by Don Blasingame and Leo Cardenas sparked a four-run rally in the ninth inning that broke a 4-4 tie between the Reds and Cubs. Joey Jay hurled a six-hitter for his 12th victory. Don Elston was charged with the defeat.

LA's Angels Swipe Leaf From New York Yankees

By ALEX KAHN
 Los Angeles — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Angels appeared today to have stolen a leaf from the New York Yankees by matching the Whitey Ford and Luis Arroyo pitching team with their own two-man team of Ted Bowsfield and Dean Chance.

Two weeks ago Bowsfield beat the Bronx Bombers at Yankee Stadium, 5-3, aided by two innings of relief from Chance. Thursday night Bowsfield again beat the Yankees 5-4 with Chance again saving the win. The victory was Bowsfield's fourth in a row.

Ken McBride (8-3) will be after his ninth win tonight for Angels as he faces the Yankees' Ralph Terry (11-7). But Thursday night the Angels had to fight not only the Yankees but the poor condition of the playing field which was responsible for two New York runs. A crowd of 48,259 saw little Felix Torres pickup the hero's role. The unheralded infielder, who was drafted by the Angels from Buffalo during the offseason, drove in four of their five runs.

Although Rigney would not comment on the condition of the playing field, Bowsfield as the Angel's player representative commented bitterly that there was several inches of water on many spots in the outfield. The landlord Los Angeles Dodgers had renovated the field used by both clubs during the all-star break.

Dublin, Ireland — (UPI) — Ron Delany of Ireland, winner of the Olympic 1,500 meter run in 1956, has announced his retirement from international competition. Delany said he plans to get married this fall to Joan O'Riordan, who works in a Dublin travel agency.
