Yanks Beat Angels; Indians, Tigers Lose

By United Press International

Rookie Tom Tresh's 10th inning two-run homer gave the New York Yankees a 9-8 win over the Los Angeles Angels Saturday in a wild game that saw seven balls hit out of the vast confines of Chavez Ravine.

The game was forced into the extra inning when little Albie Pearson hit a lofty home run into the right field stands in the bottom of the ninth, and the amazing Angels almost did it again in the bottom of the 10th when they got back one run on pinch hitter Eddie Sadowski's homer into the left field bullpen.

Marshall Bridges, the fourth Yankee pitcher who came on in the ninth, was the winner. Dean Chance, the Angels' fourth hurler, took the loss.

Elston Howard's third inning homer with two aboard gave the Yankees a good early cushion, and sent Angel starter Don Lee to the sidelines. But the Angels fought back from a 7-2 deficit with a single run in the sixth, three in the eighth and Pearson's ninth inning out-of-the-park hit.

The win put the Yankees a full game in front of Cleveland in the American League chase. The Angels remained in third, a half-game back of Cleveland.

The Indians dropped a 4-3 decision to the Baltimore Orioles when Jim Gentile hit his 22nd homer of the season in the 14th inning. Cleveland had taken a 2-0 first inning lead on Willie Kirkland's two-run homer, but the Orioles scored once in the fourth and added two more in the sixth on a homer by Boog Powell before the Indians forced the game into extra innings with a run in the eighth. Dick Hall got credit for the victory.

The Chicago White Sox ran their winning streak to five games with a 4-2 decision over the Detroit Tigers. Floyd Robinson hit a two-run homer for the Sox in the first inning and Frank Baumann turned in the fifth straight route-going performance for Chicago with a four hitter.

Chuck Hinton hit a two-run single in the eighth inning to give the Washington Senators a 4-3 triumph over the Minnesota Twins and enabled Bennie Daniels to post his first victory since opening day. Jim Kaat, who retired the first 12 men to face him, was charged with the loss.

Arnold Early, making his first major league start, gave up five hits in eight innings to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 4-2 victory over the Kansas City A's and increase his season record to 4-1. Early needed ninth inning help from Earl Wilson and Chet Nichols when the A's scored both their runs on Heywood Sullivan's homer.

Grants Pass trimmed Central Point Mustangs 12 to 5 Friday in a Southern Oregon Junior league game.

The Climate City club picked up runs enough to win in the first inning on six hits, a walk and two errors. The assault included doubles by Charlies Williams and Steve Wulk and a triple by Ted Hummel.

Hummel with his triple and three singles and Tom Blanchard with a three-bagger, two-base hit and single led a 15-hit Grants Pass attack.

Shorty McGrath and Bill Buckholtz each safetied for the Mustangs who were held to two hits.

Joey Pinkham turned in several spectacular catches in centerfield for Central Point.

No Yreka Team

It was learned last week by League Commissioner Don Miller that Yreka has fielded no team in the circuit. Inquiry was made after Yreka failed to show up for games it has scheduled. The man who was to have coached the California club reportedly obtained a job in the San Francisco area. The league was not notified that Yreka would have no club.

Salem Downs Wenatchee 5-3

United Press International

Salem scored two runs in the eighth inning in Northwest league play Friday night to top Wenatchee 5-3.

Dick McLaughlin's double drove in the markers.

McLaughlin also hit a solo homer in the first and Bill Boehlert picked up the win although he needed relief.

Eugene scored six runs in the seventh to take Lewiston 6-4. The big inning was highlighted by Wally Cockrell's two - run double.

Yakima topped Tri-City 5-3 in a game at Yakima. Walt Hriniak was the big sticker for the winners as he drove in two runs and scored one. Hriniak had a triple, double and single in four trips to the plate.

British Open Champ

New York —(UPI)— British open champion Arnold Palmer flew his private plane from Idlewild airport to his home in Lathrobe, Pa., Saturday and before leaving said he will begin practice immediately for the Professional Golfers association tournament which opens next Thursday in Philadelphia.

Palmer and his pretty wife, Winnie, arrived Saturday afternoon on a British Overseas Airways jetliner from Prestwick, Scotland, and described his record-breaking 72-hole score of 276 in the British open as "an accumulation of four rounds which is as good as I have put together in a long, long time, if ever."

Palmer said that he expects to arrive in Philadelphia either Sunday or early Monday morning.

"The switch from the small British ball to the larger American one always gives me trouble, so I'm going to get in as much practice as I can for the PGA," he said.

"When you first hit the bigger ball after playing the little one, you feel like you're hitting a pumpkin. And you have to ge used to putting it," he added.

Palmer made no prediction of victory in the PGA and said that the "150 players" would be his chief competition.

He described the old Troon course – site of the British open – as "one of the toughest I've ever played."

But his impression of the fairway did not coincide with that of South Africa's Gary Player who said they were "like concrete."

"Many of the fairways are narrow and hump-backed — that is their high points are in the center – and it's sometimes hard to stay out of the rough," Palmer said.

"But I think that the rains just before the tournament made them more fair and I think they would have been much rougher if we had had bad weather," he added.

Palmer's sole criticism of the tournament was the unruly crowds.

"The crowds got completely out of hand as I approached the 18th green on the final round and I was stuck," he said.

"I wasn't worried about myself, but there were a lot of women and children who could have been injured in the surge to the green.

"I think they'll have to do a better job of roping to keep the people completely off the fairway," he added.

Palmer said that he thought the turning point for him was his birdie two on the 210-yard fifth hole in third round when he rapped in a 10-foot putt while his partner and closest competitor, Australia's Kel Nagle, took a four.

This put him one stroke ahead of Nagle. Prior to this, Palmer had been one stroke behind.

Dodgers Lash Mets, Boost Lead to 2½

By United Press International

The Los Angeles Dodgers, running wild in an eight-run second inning and a six-run sixth inning, stretched their National league lead to 2½ games Saturday by crushing the New York Mets, 17-3, under a 16-hit barrage.

A crowd of 37,253, lured in part by a Dodger - Giants "oldtimers" game preceding the regular game, saw the Dodgers come within two runs of the highest scoring game in the major leagues this year.

Leading the assault on five Mets' pitchers were Willie Davis and Maury Wills with three hits each. Davis and Wills each had a home run, as did pitcher Stan Williams, who went all the way for his eighth victory of the year.

Davis and John Roseboro each drove in three runs and Wills, Wally Moon, Frank Howard and Williams two each.

The Philadelphia Phillies edged the San Francisco Giants, 6-5, on Bobby Wine's run - scoring single with two out in the bottom of the 10th inning. Home runs by Tony Gonzalez and Roy Sievers sparked the Phils to an early 5-0 lead but the Giants scored five runs in the seventh to tie the score.

Ernie Broglio of the St. Louis Cardinals allowed only six hits in blanking the Milwaukee Braves for the second consecutive time, 2-0. Julio Gotay hit his first major league homer off loser Bob Shaw in the fifth inning.

The Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Houston Colts for the seventh straight time, 4-2, behind the pitching of Vernon Law, who scattered eight hits in picking up his eighth victory of the campaign. The Pirates scored their winning run in the fifth inning on Bob Skinner's double and Dick Stuart's triple. Skinner also homered in the third frame.

A three - run homer by Ron Santo in the eighth inning powered the Chicago Cubs to a 6-3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. Losing pitcher Jim O'Toole was ejected from the game for protesting Santo's homer, which was hit close to the foul line. Dick Bertell also homered for the Cubs.

Orlich Edges John Simpson of Portland

Reno, Nev. – (UPI) – Dan Orlich of Reno took the singles championship of the Grand Pacific Trapshoot Saturday during a shootoff with three competitors by blasting 125 bids consecutively.

Orlich, who edged runner-up John Simpson, Portland, Ore., accomplished the feat during a light rain driven by gusty winds.

Osinski Is Relief Pitching Standout For Beavers Again

United Press International

He never knows when they're going to ask him to go to work but it does look as if Dan Osinski, Portland relief pitcher, has a steady job.

The Beavers needed his services again Friday night in Pacific Coast League play and Osinski was ready.

He punched the time clock in the eighth inning and allowed no hits the rest of the way to pick up the win in Portland's 5-4 triumph over Vancouver.

It was Osinski's eighth win in eleven decisions.
