'The Stump' Art Gallery To Open for Summer

"The Stump" art gallery, operated by Mrs. Marilyn Briggs, Ashland artist, will hold an opening Monday, July 16, from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. The gallery is located at 25 North Main street, on the plaza in Ashland.

The name of the gallery was inspired by the many trees in Oregon, Mrs. Briggs said. The gallery is furnished with tree stumps, which will serve as seats and as drawing props. They will also be used as podiums, when needed.

In addition to the regular showings of the gallery, cultural hours will be held. During these times, actors and readers will be invited to perform between 3 and 4 p.m. On Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, the performers will have the opportunity to get "on the stump" to recite.

In addition, the Tudor guild will have a display of used books in the gallery.

Mrs. Briggs offers lessons for both children and adults at the gallery. Children's lessons will be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday, while the adults will attend Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Further information about the lessons may be obtained by calling the Briggs home, 482-0539.

The gallery will close September 1, as it is timed to coincide with the Shakespearean festival, which will end September 2.
