Miss JoAnn Weinhold Bride of Stephen Chase

An event of Saturday, July 7, was the wedding of Miss JoAnn Weinhold and Stephen Brady Chase, Bly, in Sacred Heart Catholic church here. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weinhold, 17 Myrtle street, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carson H. Chase, Bly.

The Rev. John A. Ilg read the double ring rites before 90 guests at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Baskets of white Michaelmas and Ester Reed daisies and coral bells decorated the altar. Miss Marilyn Guldin played the organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waist length gown of Chantilly lace. The skirt of the gown was fashioned of lace over tiers of tulle. She also wore a keepsake crystal pendant belonging to her mother. Her fingertip length tulle veil was held by a Juliet cap with seed pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Jeanne Henry, Talent, an aunt of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a princess style frock of light blue silk with bell skirt, and blue slippers. Her headdress was a blue crown float veil, and her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Carson Chase Jr., Bly, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Dennis Guyer and Ray Weinhold, Ashland, a brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Two grandmothers of the bride were present for the ceremony, Mrs. A. R. Weinhold, Leavenworth, Wash., and Mrs. J. J. Henry, Talent. Both wore white Ester Reed daisy corsages.

For the wedding and the reception which followed in the Hunt room for the Tally Ho restaurant, the bride's mother wore a blue flowered silk gown and white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose a beige linen sheath frock with blue accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Charles McCain, an aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. James Henry, an aunt of the bride, and Miss Sally Helm served the punch. Mrs. Sanford Berman, Richmond, Calif., a cousin of the bride, was in charge of the gifts, and Miss Ann Williamson was at the bride's book.

The floral decorations for the wedding and reception were arranged by Mrs. Glenn Logan, a family friend.

The newly married couple traveled to Lake of the Woods for their wedding trip. The bride chose a blue brocade sheath dress with white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage for traveling.

Out of town guests included Merl Weinhold, Leavenworth, Wash.; Miss Susan Smith, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Dav-

Coffee Held For Visitor

Honoring Mrs. John F. Jardine, Hilo, Hawaii, who is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Mansfield, 201 Crater Lake avenue, a coffee was held at Mon Desir Dining Inn Tuesday morning. Mrs. Julie Tummers and Mrs. Mansfield were hostesses for the event which was held on the patio of the Inn.

The table was decorated with a large bouquet of bronze day lilies in a bronze bowl. Mrs. A. L. McClure and Mrs. Mary Oliver poured, using a silver service loaned by Mrs. H. A. Stanley, who was among the guests.

Assisting with the serving was Mrs. Clifford Griffiths, Mrs. Ernest Flakus and Miss Sue Rambo, all of Medford. Among the guests were Mrs. R. B. Parkhurst of Gold Key estates, and her daughter, Mrs. Malik Robinson of Calabasas, Calif.

Kadin-Flowers Ceremony Held at New-Age Church

Shady Cove - Miss Marion Georgia Flowers became the bride of Hugh Kenneth Kadin, Ketchikan, Alaska, in a wedding held July 4 in the New Age church, Eagle Point. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Flowers, Star Route, Box 454, Shady Cove, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Price, Butte Falls.

The Rev. D. E. Millard read the rites at 10 o'clock in the morning. Mrs. Millard played the wedding music and Mr. Millard sang. About 75 guests attended the double ring ceremony.

Mr. Flowers gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white silk chiffon over net and taffeta, with embroidered lace bodice and front panel on the skirt. The elbow length veil was held by a pearl trimmed tiara, and she wore a corsage of baby pink roses.

Mrs. Carl Clayton attended her sister. She wore a frock of yellow silk over taffeta with white accessories, and a corsage of baby pink roses.

Richard France, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. A reception was given at the bride's parents home in Shady Cove after the ceremony. Mrs. Violet Soden, an aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. She also was in charge of the bride's book. Mrs. Harry G. Welch served punch, and Mrs. Philip Telford poured coffee. Both are aunts of the bride.

The couple traveled along the Oregon coast on their honeymoon. The bridegroom then returned to Ketchikan, where his bride will join him in September.

The bride has lived in Shady Cove for 20 years. She was graduated from Eagle Point High school, and has been employed by the bureau of land management in Medford.

The bridegroom was graduated from Butte Falls High school in 1959. He served in the U.S. Navy, and is now employed at the Ketchikan pulp mill.

Coming from a distance to the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Kadin, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Salem; Philip Telford, uncle of the bride, Mabton, Wash.; Mrs. Al Curtis and daughter, Annalie, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Alan Landers and daughters, Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hixon, cousins of the bride, Fort Lewis, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Edward France and children, Seattle, Wash.
