

Scripture - Bordeaux Rites Held

Ashland - The new Presbyterian church on Siskiyou boulevard was the setting for the June 29 marriage of Suzanne Bordeaux and Morton Wayne Scripser, who exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. B. J. Holland.

More than 100 guests attended the 8 o'clock rites and the reception that followed in the Mark Antony hotel.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Bordeaux of Riddle, Ore., was graduated from the Riddle High school in 1958 and for two years was a student at Southern Oregon college. She is now secretary in the B. K. Herndon and company office in Ashland.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Scripser, 283 Scenic drive, Ashland. He is a graduate of Ashland High school and this spring received his bachelor of science degree from the same college.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with overskirt of net and Chantilly lace panels.

Seed pearls and sequins adorned the full skirt and fitted bodice that was fashioned with Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves pointed at the wrists. Her shoulder length illusion net veil was held by a lace and pearl coronet and she carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy. Mr. Bordeaux escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Friend Attends

Miss Sally Smith, Eugene, a childhood friend of the bride, serving as maid of honor, wore a short flaring frock of honeydew organza over taffeta caught at the wrist with a self material rose. She carried a nosegay of yellow and white carnations and gladioli and wore a small net veil.

The other attendants, Mrs. K. W. Heard, Ashland, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Rodney Strieby, Klamath Falls, were dressed alike in frocks of apricot organza over taffeta and carried bouquets in matching shades. Their veils were of pastel net.

The bridegroom's cousin, P. Dennis Retter, performed best man duties, and guests were seated by Loyd Morrow, Rogue River, and Peter Nightengale, Springfield, Ore. All are Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity brothers at college. As Rex Clarke who sang two solos accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. W. McCoy.

Tall baskets of yellow gladioli stood at either side of the altar.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Bordeaux, wore a green lace sheath and white accessories, while Mrs. Scripser, mother of the bridegroom, chose a two-piece summer suit in green with matching accessories. Their corsages were white carnations.

Kitty Band Plays

When the couple arrived at the hotel for the reception they were "piped into" the lobby by the Ashland Kitty band to which Mr. Scripser has belonged for several years. Later in the evening the band serenaded them through the downtown district.

In the Caesar room of the Mark Antony, yellow roses, white carnations and gladioli decorated the two candle-lit tables from which punch and coffee were served by Mrs. Hugh McKeever, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Milton D. Byrd, the bride's aunt from Hamilton, Mont. Mrs. Guy Clark was in charge of the bride's table, serving the cake after the newlyweds had cut the traditional first slice.

Following a short honeymoon on the California coast, Mr. and Mrs. Scripser returned to an Ashland apartment at 208 Hargadine street where they will live until September when both will enter Oregon State University at Corvallis. The bridegroom, who is working as a surveyor with the U.S. Forest Service during the summer, will do graduate work toward a doctor's degree.

The bride's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Carousell the evening before the wedding and on June 27 Mrs. Lloyd Holgate, 269 West Nevada street, entertained 18 of the bride's friends and relatives at a miscellaneous shower.

The Rev. Lloyd Knight of Corvallis officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Clive Tittle was organist and accompanied Mrs. Lanny Crocker, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with floor length skirt, fitted bodice and full length sleeves. Her elbow length veil was held in place by a band trimmed in sequins and leaves and her cascade bouquet was an orchid encircled by daisies.

Miss Anna Graye Safley, Shedd, was maid of honor and wore a light green taffeta street length dress. She carried a nosegay of daisies and pink rosebuds.

Louise Vance, Roseburg, was best man, and Jim Lamb, brother of the bride, and Jack Stahanczyk, Prineville, cousin of the bride, served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a light blue silk linen afternoon dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace afternoon dress with jacket and white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

The baskets of pink and white flowers in the church sanctuary and church parlors were arranged by Mrs. Robert Lindsay and Mrs. Floyd Lamb. The reception at the church followed the wedding ceremony for the 160 guests attending. Pink and white flowers decorated the rooms for the reception and the bride's table, arranged by Mrs. Floyd Bogue.

Mrs. Kenneth Coleman, Portland, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake assisted by Miss Karen Coleman, Portland, cousin of the bridegroom. Mrs. Louis Swander poured. Miss Linda Stahanczyk, Prineville, cousin of the bride, registered the guests. Miss Judy Lamp, sister of the bride, and Miss Rita Stahanczyk, cousin of the bride, were at the gift table.

For traveling the bride chose a light brown knit suit with red accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Central Linn High school, the University of Oregon, Southern Oregon college, Ashland, and was graduated from Eugene Technical Vocational school as a licensed practical nurse. Mr. Friday attended Yreka High school, Southern Oregon college, and will be a junior at Oregon State university this fall. During the summer months he is employed as a public works inspector in Eugene. The couple will make their home in Corvallis.
