

Several members of the Medford High school class of 1952 cooperated in planning the reunion event, held July 7 at the Rogue Valley Country club. Shown viewing a copy of the class list printed for the reunion are four members of the committee, Mrs. Kenneth Brown (Margaret Huson), Mrs. Fred Phillips (June Darby), Mrs. David Grubb (Betty Buckingham), and Mrs. Louis Bittle (Betty Farrar), Roseburg.

Reunion Held by Medford High School Class of 1952

Dr. Douglas Phillips served as master of ceremonies at the reunion of the class of 1952 of Medford High school, held Saturday, July 7, at the Rogue Valley Country club. Dr. Phillips presented prizes and awards following a social hour and buffet supper.

William Preston was awarded the prize for being the baldest man at the reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chitwood, (Barbara Van Sickle) won the prize for the oldest child, and Mrs. William Gilpatrick, the former Evelyn Jones, Coquille, had the youngest child. The Gilpatrick infant was three weeks old.

Although several couples tied for having the most children, Bob Hillyer was given the award for the youngest five children. Mrs. Charles Herman (Agnes Lagesen) traveled the longest distance to attend the reunion, from El Paso, Texas.

Dance music was provided by the Raoul Maddox trio. Serving on the committee for the reunion were Dr. Robert Fry, Mr. and Mrs. Chitwood, William Davis, Mrs. Louis Bittle (Betty Farrar), Central Point, Mrs. Dan Doty (Mary Anne Birdseye), Mrs. David Grubb (Betty Buckingham), Roseburg, Mrs. Kenneth Brown (Margaret Huson), Mrs. Fred Phillips (June Darby), and Mrs. James Shoemaker (Tanya Trowbridge).

AAUW Plans Fall Group On Antiques

An antique interest group will be added to the fall study program of the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, it was announced by program chairman Mrs. Ray Castlerline at a recent meeting of the AAUW program planning group.

Mrs. John Ness will direct the antique group with the assistance of Mrs. Emerson Anderson. Anyone interested in the study of antiques, whether an AAUW member or not, is invited to call either Mrs. Ness or Mrs. Anderson for further information.

Other interest groups which are open to interested women include international relations, art appreciation, Shakespeare—which studies the plays scheduled for the following summer at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival, applied arts—which deals with the making of crafts, weaving and jewelry, and book review.

Mrs. Alan S. Markee is interest group coordinator and may be contacted for information about the groups. The AAUW State board meeting was held in Portland July 13 and 14 which was attended by Mrs. Calvin Smith, Medford branch president, and Mrs. Emerson Anderson, state chairman of social and economic issues. At a dinner meeting Friday at Portland's University club, Mrs. Anderson presented her report to the board.

Members are reminded of the AAUW rummage sale scheduled for Wednesday, August 22 at the Fehi building. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Hans Hess and Mrs. Donald Smith.

Families Visit Relatives Here

Eagle Point—Mrs. Richard Gundry and four children, Beaverton, and the Misses Linda and Anita Troxell, Auburn, Wash., will leave for their homes soon following a few weeks vacation with friends and relatives in the Rogue valley.

Mrs. Gundry, the former Frances Troxell, graduated from the Medford High school in 1947 and attended the reunion of her class while here. She is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Troxell, 1833 South Peach street, Medford, and is also visiting with her sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Max K. Goble and Mr. and Mrs. David Harbison, Eagle Point.

The Misses Linda and Anita Troxell are also former residents of the valley. They spend a few weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Troxell, and other relatives each summer. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merideth Schlotterbeck, drove the girls to Medford in June and then continued to Mexico for a vacation. Miss Neva Schlotterbeck stayed a week with her grandparents and returned home with her parents on their return trip.

At Fair—Visiting in Seattle last week were Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, 4229 Hamrick road. They also attended the World's fair.

Mrs. Goldy Plans Slides At Center

Slides of a trip to South America will be shown to the Arm Chair Travelers at the Senior Activity center, 801 East Jackson street, Monday, July 16, at 1 p.m. by Mrs. Mark Goldy.

The trip south was made by freighter which took the group through the Panama canal and down the east coast of South America. From there they flew to the west coast, crossing the Chilean lakes and the Andes mountains. Among the places visited were ancient ruins and the coast cities of Chile and Peru.

Mr. and Mrs. Goldy, who recently returned from a trip to the Orient, have promised to show pictures of this trip later. The members of both the Tuesday and Saturday oil painting classes were name pallets yesterday when they exhibited as guests of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists in the Greenwich Village Art show in Medford Library park. The Rev. Eric Robotham made a sign designating the group where the members acted as hosts and invited others to join their classes.

The copper tooling class will continue meeting Wednesday afternoons and the orchestra on Thursday mornings throughout the summer. Persons who have inquired about Spanish classes will be interested to know that these classes will resume in September.

The Senior Craftsman receiving committee will continue taking handcrafted articles at the center throughout July each Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 10 a.m. to noon. After July the articles must be taken directly to the Ashland Art Gallery, 31 Water street.

More than 20 persons have already brought in their handwork and applied for membership in the Senior Craftsman of Oregon, a non-profit cooperative which this month opened as Ashland branch.

Craft gifts from throughout Oregon are already available in the Gallery. For additional information telephone the center or Robert Onstad at the Ashland Art gallery.

Many members of the class of 1952 returned to the Rogue valley to participate in the class reunion July 7. Among them was Charles Dean, left, San Francisco, who was president of the senior class that year. On the right is Roy Rogers, Sunnyvale, Calif., who was a student body president and held top scholastic honors. They are shown with Dr. Douglas Phillips, who was master of ceremonies for the event.

Officers Installed By Adarel Chapter, OES

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Shores were installed as worthy patron and matron of Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, at the Masonic temple in Jacksonville June 29.

Other officers installed were Mr. and Mrs. Gail Buffington, associate patron and matron; Mrs. Lloyd Hamlin, secretary; Mrs. Charles Cogins, treasurer; Mrs. Don Edwards, conductress; Mrs. Edwin Hoffman, associate conductress; Mrs. William Caulier, chaplain; Mrs. Lyle Thurman, marshal; Mrs. Furman Everham, organist; Mrs. Wilford Smith, Adah; Mrs. Jerry Note, Ruth; Mrs. Clarence Williams, Esther; Mrs. Lewis Applebaker, Martha; Mrs. Dorothy Wolgamott, Electa; Mrs. Ralph Dillon, warder; and George Redhead, sentinel.

For the ceremony Mrs. Shores wore a gown of light blue tulle, with sequin embroidered bodice. Her corsage was a white orchid. The officers wore gowns of white lace over blue tulle and carried white ribbons with white doves, the worthy matron's emblem for the year. Installing officers were Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Gardner, carried white ribbons with patron and matron; Mrs. George Mero, marshal; Mrs. Orville Shores, chaplain; and Miss Charlotte Wiseman, past grand matron, organist.

Morris Boughner, past grand patron, gave the invocation. During the installation solos were sung by Mrs. Marcel Peters, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Vera Donnelly.

The chapter room was decorated with blue and white carnations and in the west were the words "unity" and "peace" the worthy matron's watchwords.

Mrs. Shores was presented flowers by Warren lodge, Oregon chapter, and her family. Her son, Gary, presented her with her gavel which was made by her husband. The officers honored the worthy matron and patron with an adendum.

Mr. and Mrs. Shores introduced their family, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Rhymes, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Shores, Mrs. Dorothy Rhymes, and Mrs. Jackie Newland.
