Grants Pass Youth Injured in Mishap

Ashland - A seven-year-old pedestrian suffered multiple fractures when he was struck by an auto while attempting to cross a street Friday afternoon, Ashland police reported.

Taken to Ashland Community hospital was Ronald Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Allen of Grants Pass. As of Saturday afternoon he was reported "doing fine."

The accident occurred at 1 p.m. at the intersection of Coolidge and North Main sts. Driver of the auto was Curlye Yates of Hebo, Ore. The boy was crossing the street with his brothers and sisters and apparently did not see the car coming.

Picnic Scheduled By Scout Officers
