

Ken McBride Replaces Belinsky In Los Angeles Angels Spotlight

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Bo Belinsky may be the darling of the Hollywood Dawn Patrol but when it's first-class pitching that's needed the Los Angeles Angels will take Ken McBride.

Belinsky "made it big" in the Hollywood night spots when he pitched a no-hitter for the Angels May 5. At the time McBride owned a 1-3 record and couldn't have gotten an autograph from a class C Western starlet without an introduction from a half-dozen press agents.

Bought From Chisox

McBride, obtained for $75,000 from the Chicago White Sox last December, pitched his third 1-0 win of the season Tuesday night when the Angels beat the Detroit Tigers and remained 3½ games behind the American league-leading New York Yankees, who topped the Boston Red Sox, 1-0. McBride has won three of the Angels' five games since July 2. He has hurled three shutouts and pitched four games in which he has yielded two runs or less.

McBride got the run he needed to top Detroit's Hank Aguirre when Steve Bilko singled, Felix Torres doubled and Lee Thomas singled in the fourth inning. He pitched a three-hitter and walked only three while striking out six.

Twins Beat Indians
The Cleveland Indians dropped 4½ games off the pace when they were beaten by the Minnesota Twins, 7-2, the Baltimore Orioles downed the Kansas City Athletics, 3-2, and the Washington Senators swept the Chicago White Sox, 1-0 and 7-3, in the other American league games.

The San Francisco Giants moved to within one game of first place in the National League when they edged out the Milwaukee Braves, 4-3, while the Cincinnati Reds beat the front-running Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-5. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, and the Philadelphia Phillies made it 10 in a row for the season over the Houston Colts with 3-0 and 8-2 triumphs in the other NL games.

Terry Wins Twelfth
Ralph Terry struck out nine and pitched a four-hitter to win his 12th game for the Yankees, who scored their run on eighth-inning singles by Hector Lopez, Cleve Boyer and Tom Tresh. Gene Conley suffered his eighth loss although he allowed only five hits in eight innings.

Camilo Pascual pitched a five-hitter and struck out 10 to win his 14th game and increase his league-leading strikeout total to 130 behind a Minnesota attack that included homers by Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison. Gary Bell, tagged for six runs in 2½ innings, dropped his seventh decision.

Robin Roberts' seven-hitter and Mervyn Breeding's first homer of the season enabled the Orioles to hand Kansas City's Ed Rakow his 11th defeat. Roberts struck out three and walked two in winning his fifth game.

Don Lock's homer provided Dave Stenhouse, who pitched a three-hitter, with the run he needed to post his eighth win and deal Juan Pizarro his eighth loss. Ken Rietz hit two doubles and a single to lead a ninth-inning rally that took the Yankees to victory. Early Wynn, trying for the 297th win of his major league career, suffered his seventh loss of the season for the White Sox in the nightcap.

Second baseman Amado Samuel's ninth-inning error let Orlando Cepeda score from second base with the run that gave the Giants their victory. Cepeda and Felipe Alou homered for the Giants and Hank Aaron hit No. 23 of the season for the Braves. Billy O'Dell received credit for his 11th win.

Moe Drabowsky's six-inning three-hit shutout relief pitching stopped the Dodgers after the Reds ran up a 6-2 lead in three innings. Leon Cardenas, Vada Pinson and Hank Foles hit homers for the Reds. The loser was strikeout king Sandy Koufax, who retired after one inning with arm and shoulder aches plus his fifth defeat against 14 victories.

Stan Musial hit a three-run homer and Bill White's four singles drove in a total of three runs as the Cardinals' Larry Jackson won his eighth

NINTH STRAIGHT WIN—Ken McBride of the Los Angeles Angels chalked up his ninth straight win Tuesday by defeating the Detroit Tigers with a 1-0 shutout at Chavez Ravine. "Classy" McBride is shown delivering a pitch. (UPI)

Giants Chase Los Angeles, To Meet Braves Tonight

Milwaukee — (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants found themselves within a game of Los Angeles as they entered their contest with the Milwaukee Braves here tonight.

With first place within range again, manager Al Dark called on his hard-throwing ace Juan Marichal 12-5 to face Milwaukee's All-Star game hero, Bob Shaw 9-7.

The Giants swayed out a 4-3 win over the Braves Tuesday night when they tallied an unearned marker in the final inning. Cincinnati meanwhile disposed of Los Angeles 7-5 to make San Francisco's victory a key one.

Sloppy Brave fielding and good Giant pitching by Billy O'Dell and Bob Bolin brought victory to the Giants.

In the first, Mack Jones misjudged Willie Mays liner and thus turned a routine out into a double. Orlando Cepeda then lined a Warren Spahn pitch over the left field fence to give San Francisco a 2-0 lead. It was Cepeda's 20th homer.

game with relief aid from Lindy McDaniel, Ernie Banks hit his 23rd homer for the Cubs.

Jack Hamilton and Jack Baldschun combined in a five-hitter in the first game and then Cal McLish and Dennis Bennett collaborated in a six-hitter as the Phillies dealt the Colts their 19th and 20th defeats in 23 games. John Callison homered for the Phillies in the first game and Frank Torre drove in three runs with a triple and two singles in the second game.

Ken McBride Overlooked

By ALEX KAHN

Los Angeles — (UPI)—Control artist Ken McBride may have been overlooked in the pitching selections for the first All-Star game, but at the rate he is going today the Los Angeles Angel pitcher appeared a cinch to be selected for the second game later this month.

McBride Tuesday night hurled an artistic 1-0 shutout over the Detroit Tigers for his ninth straight win, longest pitching streak in the American league this year.

The victory gave the Angels sole possession of second place, 3½ games behind the New York Yankees.

That was a most gratifying win, but I got more satisfaction out of my 6½ victory over the New York Yankees," McBride said.

The win boosted McBride's record to 10-3, and it was his third 1-0 shutout of the season. He blanked the Chicago White Sox twice this season by the same score. McBride's last defeat was by the Tigers at Detroit by a lopsided 13-4 score. Since then he has kept his record clean and his wins include two victories over the Yankees.

"I'd have to say my sinker was my best pitch," McBride continued. "But my curve was working well and I struck out Norm Cash for the last out with a curve."
