

Pirates Act Like 'Old Fashioned Girl'

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates are like an old-fashioned girl—dull at times but capable of stealing the big prize from glamorous rivals.

The Pirates admittedly don't have the glamour of the Los Angeles Dodgers or the San Francisco Giants but they're closing in on both so fast that people are beginning to remember this is the same team that beat the New York Yankees for the world championship in 1960.

They helped send Casey into retirement with that 1960 victory and Thursday night they made him wish he never came back when they beat the New York Mets, 5-1, in 10 hideous innings.

The Pirates have now won 8 of their last 9 games, 16 of their last 19 and 22 of their last 28 to move to within 2½ games of the first-place Dodgers, who dropped a 4-3 decision to the Cincinnati Reds.

The Giants advanced to within one game of the Dodgers when they beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-3, the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Houston Colts, 6-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Chicago Cubs, 5-4, in other NL games.

In the American league, the New York Yankees ran their winning streak to seven games and maintained their 3½-game lead over the Los Angeles Angels with a 10-6 drubbing of the Boston Red Sox. The Angels beat the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, the Minnesota Twins downed the Cleveland Indians, 8-0, and the Baltimore Orioles clipped the Kansas City Athletics, 7-3.

Dick Stuart and Bill Mazeroski each had a homer and two singles and Bob Friend pitched a five-hitter for his 10th victory in the Pirates' first-game breeze. Then the Pirates and Mets struggled three hours and 36 minutes in a 10-inning caricature of baseball before Bob Skinner's "wrong field" homer gave reliever Eldoy Facer his seventh win of the season.

Reds Beat Dodgers

Don Zimmer singled home the tying run and Eddie Kasko tripled in the winner as the Reds rallied for two runs in the ninth to down the Dodgers. Frank Howard hit a homer estimated at 500 feet in the second inning to give Johnny Podres an early lead. Bill Henry gained his third win of the year for the Reds. Jose Pagan drove in three runs, Felipe Alou knocked in two and Willie Mays hit his 26th homer for the Giants, who nevertheless needed a five-inning shutout relief effort by Bob Bolin to clinch the victory. Hank Aaron and Lee Maye homered for the Braves.

The Phillies beat the Colts for the 12th straight time with a three-run eighth-inning rally that snapped a 2-2 tie. Pinch-hitter Bob Olds brought in the tie-breaking run with a squeeze bunt to hand Hal Woodeshick his eighth defeat. The loss was the Colts' 12th in 13 games.

Three passed balls by catcher Dick Bertell helped the Cardinals score a tie-breaking seventh-inning run. Knuckleballer Barney Schultz was the Cub victim. Bill White had three hits for the Cardinals and Lou Brock drove in two runs for the Cubs.

Skowron, Boyer Homer

Bill Skowron and Clete Boyer homered and Elston Howard drove in three runs with a triple and two singles for the Yankees. Roland Sheldon won his sixth game although Luis Arroyo entered in ninth-inning relief after Jim Pagliaroni hit a three-run homer for the Red Sox.

Bill Moran singled home Albie Pearson in the seventh inning with the Angels' winning run. Eli Grba allowed six hits and one run in seven innings to gain credit for his sixth victory while Jim Bunning suffered his sixth loss for the Tigers.

Jim Kaat's three-hit pitching and two homers by Bob Allison powered the Twins to their fourth straight victory. Kaat, who struck out five and walked one, won his ninth game of the season while 12-game winner Dick Donovan lost his fourth game for the Indians.

Charlie Lau hit a pair of two-run homers to lead a 12-hit Baltimore attack that brought relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm his fourth win.

Jackie Brandt also homered for the Orioles.

McKinley Advances In National Tourney

Chicago—UPI—Top seeded Chuck McKinley faces collegian Marty Reissen and Jon Douglas in two of today's four quarter-final matches in the National Clay Courts Tennis championship.

Larry Nagler was paired against Carrier Long and Australian Fred Stolle, the tourney's top-seeded foreign players faced Arthur Ashe of St. Louis, Mo., in two others.

No seeded players survived Thursday's quarterfinal round in women's play.

Nancy Richey eliminated Gwyneth Thomas, who was fourth seeded, 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. Top-seeded Karen Hantze Susman withdrew because of a hand injury and two other seeded women, Darlene Hard, national singles champion, and Billie Jean Moffitt, failed to survive the second round.

Miss Richey meets Carole Caldwell, the California teenager who upset Miss Hard, in one women's single semi-final match.

Donna Floyd, who won her match when Mrs. Susman defaulted because of injury, and Julie Heldman, an unranked competitor from New York City, meet in the other.

Douglas saved the tourney from yet another upset Thursday when he rallied to win 11 consecutive games and turned back a serious threat from unranked Clark Graebner of Lakewood, Ohio, 4-6, 7-5, 6-0.

McKinley defeated Bill Higgins 6-1, 6-2, Reissen eliminated Jaidis Morjorja 6-1, 6-2, Couder beat Cliff Buchholz 6-3, 6-1, and Nagler defeated Jim McManus 7-5, 3-6, 6-4.

Medford Tigers Defeat Central Point Indians

The Medford Tigers handed the Central Point Indians their first loss in five games Tuesday when they defeated them 6 to 5 in southern Oregon pee wee league baseball at Central Point.

The Central Point nine is now tied with the Tigers at 5-1 for the season.

Dave Bailey hit two for three, including a double and a triple for Central Point. Doug Miller slammed a homer. For Medford, Cox hit a double and Lewis and Farthing each had singles.

Mounties Defeat Giants 1-0 in PL

United Press International

The electronic age of baseball has arrived in the Pacific Coast league but there's still room for human error and team victory.

Vancouver southpaw Jerry Arrigo struck out 14 to lead the Mounties to a 1-0 victory over the Tacoma Giants Thursday night while listening to his boss over a radio transmitter.

Mountie manager Jack McKeon installed the dugout-to-dugout radio communication and kept in constant contact with Arrigo during the game. The pitcher wore a tiny receiver in the pocket of his shirt.

The win gave the Mounties a sweep of their three-game series and their sixth straight win. The game's only score came in the fourth inning when rightfielder Al Moran singled home second baseman Jim Snyder.

The Salt Lake City Bees touched Portland for 16 hits and an 11-4 victory in the second game of a doubleheader. The Beavers took the opener, 2-1.

In other games, Seattle shut out Hawaii, 6-0, and San Diego beat Spokane, 3-1.

The Padres broke a 1-1 tie in the ninth inning for their win at Spokane. Tommy Harper tripled in the last-minute runs for San Diego.

Righthander Pete Smith sparked the Rainiers' shutout over Hawaii, allowing seven hits and batting two singles, scoring twice and driving in Seattle's first two runs in the fourth inning.

At Salt Lake City, Jack Kubiszyn, Bill Williams and Craig Sorenson paced the hitting for the Bees. In the second game Jim Brewer pitched the distance despite 13 Portland hits.

In the first game at Salt Lake, the game was tied at 1-1 until the final seventh inning.

If you take your truck for granted

...it's a good one!

A truck that doesn't call for a lot of attention, that just does its job every day, is a great asset. This is the thing most users tell us they like about Chevrolet trucks—their reliability. And this, of course, comes from quality. Sound engines, strong frames, double-wall construction, insulated cabs, separated bodies and cabs, tight tailgates . . . are some of the features that help Chevrolet trucks work longer and bring back more of your investment at trade-in.

If you wish you had a truck that cost you less thought and attention, put your money on quality. Make your next buy a dependable Chevrolet truck.
