Franklin-Minshall Rites Held

Jacksonville.—An event of July 12 at First Methodist church was the wedding and communion ceremony of Miss Marsha Anne Minshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Minshall of Jacksonville, and Duane Dale Franklin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Franklin, 1470 Kings highway, Medford. The wedding was held on the third anniversary of the couple's first date.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites, assisted by the Rev. James Workman, Portland. Mr. Workman read Chapter 13 from I Corinthians on love, using a Phillips' new testament given to the bride by the bridegroom.

Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ music for the double ring ceremony and accompanied Miss Sharon Smith who sang the wedding prayers.

The bride wore a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and button trimmed short sleeves. Lace appliques, trimmed with iridescent sequins and pearls, accented the bodice and full skirt, which formed a short train. The bride's shoulder length veil, first worn by her mother of honor, was held by a pearl and crystal crown. She wore an emerald and diamond pendant in a heart-shaped setting, also a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet of stephanotis was centered by a white orchid and she carried a silk handkerchief carried by her mother at her wedding.

Shipwreck Party Set

Being shipwrecked on a desert island will be no hardship for Rogue Valley Country club members Saturday, July 28 for the committee in charge has plans to make the Shipwreck party scheduled that evening the gayest of all outdoor parties staged at the club, officers have announced.

Telephone calls among members have been numerous the past few days as they compare notes on what they will be wearing when the ship is wrecked.

The idea of "come as you were when the ship went down," leads to a wide variety of costume ideas which in turn add atmosphere to the party theme.

Swimming, dancing and dining will be on the evening's program. The committee in charge is made up of Mr. and Mrs. William Cowling, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swan, Mr. and Mrs. William Tyner, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Groomes, and Richard Courtwright.

The committee members have asked members to call the club for reservations, 772-5965.

Trio To Spend Month In East

Central Point—Mrs. Lillian Salade, Central Point, left Saturday for Sawyer, Mich., her former home. She was accompanied by her grandsons, William Donker, son of Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Topshes orchard, and William Salade Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Salade, 3187 Old Stage road.

The group plans to remain east until late August.

Mr. Minshall escorted his daughter to the altar and her parents gave her in marriage.

Attendants
The bride's honor attendant was Mrs. Bahram Fezzelli, Sacramento, and the bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Minshall, the bride's sister, and Miss Sheila Franklin, the bridegroom's sister. They wore frocks of silk organza over taffeta, fashioned with bell skirts, and had matching veils centered by a net rose. Mrs. Fezzelli wore pink and carried a nosegay of white roses with green ribbons and the bridesmaids wore mint green and carried nosegays of pink roses. They each wore a pearl pendant, gifts of the bride.

Jane Higgins and Cheryl Ann Snow, flower girls, wore flowered nylon dresses, one pink and one mint green, and carried baskets of rose petals. The best man was the Rev. Leon McDougall, Portland, and the ushers were Vincent Swinney, Reno; Richard Swinney, and Robert Minshall, a brother of the bride. Richard Minshall, another brother of the bride, and David Doolen were candlelighters.

Baskets of gladioli and bouquets of pink roses decorated the church. For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a pink silk organza dress over brocade. Mrs. Franklin wore a figured ivory brocade dress accented in turquoise blue. Their corsages were stephanotis and white carnations.

Reception Held
Following the ceremony about 200 guests attended the reception held in the church dining hall. The cake was decorated and served by Mrs. J. C. Weter. She was assisted by Miss Sue Donna Doolen. The roses decorating the serving tables and the sanctuary were arranged by Mrs. Wallace Peabody.

Mrs. Verne Wilson poured coffee and Miss Jeanene James served punch with an antique silver ladle loaned by Mrs. Verne Pendleton, Central Point. Mrs. Bobbie Bills was at the gift table.

Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Goldie Goldthorp, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Harrison, Los Altos, Calif. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Workman and Mrs. McDougall, Portland; Mrs. Vincent Swinney, Reno; and Mr. Fezzelli, Sacramento.

The couple will camp in the Cascades and visit the Seattle World's fair on their wedding trip. The bride wore a blue and white dress, white coat and white accessories with an orchid corsage for traveling. She threw her wedding bouquet from the balcony in the college group's room at the church. The couple met while attending the college age group.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Willamette university and Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom, a Medford High school graduate, is an officer with the Medford police department. He has attended Oregon State college and Southern Oregon college and will enroll at San Jose State college this fall in police administration. The bride will attend the same college in secondary education, majoring in social studies and Spanish.

Local Nurse Elected To National Office

Miss Gertrude Molloy, RN, an office nurse at the Medford clinic, was elected first vice chairman of the Office Nurses section of the American Nurses association at a recent national nurses convention held in Detroit, Mich. Also attending the convention from this area was Mrs. Christine Bates, RN, of the Veterans administration domiciliary at White City.

Both Miss Molloy and Mrs. Bates visited friends and relatives in the Detroit area before returning home.

Members of District 4, Oregon Nurses association, are vacationing from association activities after a full schedule which included an institute on modern medicine.

Both the morning and afternoon sessions were held at the Red Cross building. Attendance included seven nurses from Grants Pass and five from Klamath Falls. Eleven students from the Southern Oregon School of Practical Nurses attended both sessions with their instructor, Mrs. Bertha Morrill, RN. The Office Nurses section of the Oregon Nurses association planned and sponsored the institute.

Funds for Research
Members of the district are completing a fund-raising drive for the American Nurses foundation which is the official organization through which funds are channeled for research in nursing.

Organizations and individuals interested in improved nursing service have contributed to the fund, some in tribute to relatives who have had need of extensive nursing care during recent months.

Another ONA District 4 activity was a rummage sale to help raise funds for the American Nurses foundation. Many of the local nurses are on camping trips and others are doing camp nursing.

Vacation time is also the time for professional nurses to begin to prepare for the Oregon State Nurses convention to be held in Salem, October 10 through 12. Theme of the convention will be "Together for Better Patient Care."

Keynote speaker will be Sister Maureen of St. Francis hospital, Honolulu, Hawaii, a board member of ANA.
