

Couple Visits Relatives In Valley After Wedding

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carroll Brooks left Saturday morning for their home in San Diego, Calif., after visiting Mrs. Brooks' mother, Mrs. Wallace Long, and Mr. Long, 3395 Freeland road, Central Point. The couple was on their wedding trip.

Mrs. Brooks is the former Miss Karen Frohs of Jacksonville. Her father is Carl Frohs of Oswego, Ore. Mr. Brooks' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Brooks, San Diego.

The couple's marriage was an event of July 7 in the Scott Memorial church in San Diego.

Thomas C. Castro, La Mesa, Calif., a brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. For her wedding the bride chose a white brocade cotton two-piece frock which she wore with white accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

Mrs. Castro, the former Miss Connie Frohs of Jacksonville, was honor attendant for her sister. Her pink sheath dress also was of brocade cotton and she wore matching pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Richard D. Brooks, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Pink gladioli and white carnations decorated the church.

The reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Brooks Jr., in San Diego.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Jacksonville High school and is employed in San Diego by Carter, Johnson, Inc.

The bridegroom was graduated from California, Western university and is an airman second class. He will leave soon for Maryland where he will receive a three months training before leaving for Scotland where he is to be stationed at the Royal Air Force base for three years.

The bride plans to continue with her employment in San Diego during the training period, then join her husband in Scotland.

While on their wedding trip they also attended a family reunion in Salem at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ted Wanger and Mr. Wanger. In Oswego they were guests of her father and Mrs. Frohs, and also of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Frohs.

From there the couple continued to Ocean Lake on the coast where they stayed for two days at the beach home of Mr. and Mrs. Frohs.

While in this area the bride was honored at a shower for which Mrs. Floyd Wyatt and her daughter, Miss Robin Wyatt, were hostesses in their home in Jacksonville.

Guest included Miss Marty Wyatt, Mrs. Gerald Stewart, Miss Nancy Niedermeyer, Mrs. Dale McCay and Mrs. Marty Perreard, all of Jacksonville; Mrs. Richard Foran, Eagle Point, and Mrs. Long, the bride's mother.

Miss Linda Ann Aubrey

Students Plan December Rites

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aubrey, 500 Grand avenue, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Ann, to Larry Lee Bucy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bucy, Caldwell, Idaho.

Miss Aubrey was graduated from Medford High school in 1961, and both young people are now attending San Jose Bible college, San Jose, Calif.

The wedding is planned for December 28, in Medford.

Miss Janet L. Hobbs

Spring Wedding Planned by Pair

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hobbs, 143 Bush street, Central Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Janet L. Hobbs, to Delton G. Trautman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Trautman, Old Stage road, Central Point.

Miss Hobbs was graduated from Crater High school in 1962. She is employed by Dr. B. L. Turner in Central Point. Mr. Trautman is also a graduate of Crater High school. He is employed by the Rogue River Valley Creamery, and plans to attend Oregon State university in the fall.

The couple plan a spring wedding.

Family Visiting At Elmore Home

Mrs. Robert Anderson and children, Susan, Bobby and Donny, of Lakewood, Calif., arrived last week for a 10-day visit with Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. E. S. Strother, and Mr. Strother, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elmore, 1059 Morrow road.

Also visiting with the Elmores is Robert Berg, Portland, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Berg, all former Medford residents. He is a former classmate of John Elmore.

Miss Peterson, Miss Eaden Engaged To Twin Brothers

Two recent engagement announcements, one in Eugene and the other in Milwaukie, are of interest to residents as the bridegrooms-elect are the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landers, 840 Marshall lane, Medford.

Women Back From Baptist Conference

Mrs. Clifford Young and Mrs. William White recently returned from the American Baptist Women's conference held at Linfield college, McMinnville. The women represented the Eastwood Baptist church in Medford. The conference was held July 16, 17 and 18, and 126 women from the American Baptist churches in Oregon attended.

Following the theme "Here's Love," Mrs. Lewis Brown, a retired missionary, who served for 37 years with her husband in the Congo field, spoke at Monday evening's banquet on "Love Letters and Reflections," Tuesday on "Congo Kaleidoscope" and Wednesday on "Africa's Heart."

Mrs. Frank Pattison, Eugene, and Mrs. E. D. Paylor, Roseburg, state president and vice-president of the American Baptist Women, presided at the conference. Workshops were held for each division of officers of the associations and local societies of the state.

Local yearbooks for 1961-62 were judged for excellence and that from Eastwood was chosen to receive first place. Fellowship Guild scholarships were presented to two Oregon girls, from McMinnville and Roseburg.

Couple Wed In Ashland Rites

Miss Jeanette Hazel Day became the bride of Maynard Wayne Talley, Ashland, Friday, July 13, in a ceremony held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Talley, 243 Granite street, Ashland. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Day, 417 King street.

Justice of the Peace Frances Gallatin performed the ceremony at 6 o'clock in the evening.

The bride wore a red sheath frock with white accessories for her wedding, and her flowers were carnations.

For the wedding trip to the coast, she chose a white suit. The newlywed couple are making their home at 243 1/2 Granite street, Ashland.

The bride attended Medford High school. The bridegroom attended Roseburg schools, and is employed by Southern Pacific railroad.

Love Family Hosts Brother

Prospect—Mr. and Mrs. Blair Stephens and family, Portland, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Love. Mr. Stephens is a brother of Mrs. Love.

Miss Carol McBeth Visits Friends

Jacksonville—Miss Carol McBeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. McBeth, is vacationing for the summer in California. She has been a guest of Mrs. Helen Sanford and daughter, Miss Kathy Sanford, Los Angeles, former Jacksonville residents. During this week she will travel to Guadalupe, Calif., for a visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Long, also former valley residents, and their daughter, Lori.

Before returning she will be a guest at the home of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McBeth in San Luis Obispo, Calif.

To Fair

Wonder—Mr. and Mrs. James Bassett visited the Seattle World's Fair recently.
