Foursquare Church Scene Of Strawn-Lopez Wedding

At home at 515 South Riverside avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Thomas Strawn, who were married July 7 in the Foursquare church here.

Mrs. Strawn is the former Rachel Iris Lopez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill D. Phares, Salem. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strawn, 3253 Cottonwood avenue.

The Rev. K. L. Mathewson performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening. About 125 guests witnessed the double ring rites.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church, and the organ wedding music was provided by Miss Marilyn Shepard. Mrs. Rex Goble was soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Phares. She chose a ballerina length gown made of Alencon lace and silk organza over taffeta. It was fashioned with fitted bodice, scoop neckline, and three-quarter length sleeves of lace. A shirred cummerbund and front bow accented the waistline. Her shoulder length veil of hand-rolled silk illusion was held by a cap of lilies of the valley and a single silk organza rose. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

Mrs. Kenneth Breazeale was matron of honor. She wore a frock of pink brocade brocade; Mrs. Annie Hanson, Smith River, Calif., a cousin of the bride; Mrs. Donald Hanson, Brookings, Calif., and Mr. Fink, Underwood, Wash.

Following the wedding ceremony, the parents of the bride gave a reception at their home. For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a white sheath dress with turquoise accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue frock with white accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Merlin Fink, Underwood, Wash., a cousin of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Ray Powell, a sister of the bridegroom, served punch, and Mrs. Victory Lively poured the coffee.

The newlywed couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a white frock and white accessories. The couple are making their home at 334 Garfield street, Ashland.

The bride attended Ashland High school and the Medford Beauty school. She is employed by Winnie's Style Salon, Medford.

Mr. Rashe attended Ashland High school, and is employed by the Fruit Growers association in Hill, Calif.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jackson and family, Alameda, Calif., sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rashe, Hollister, Calif., uncle and aunt of the

Graduates Receive Silver In 1962 Nationwide Event

Two Medford girls were among those who received sterling silver from the Sterling Silversmiths of America in their annual nationwide contest for 1962 high school graduates.

Receiving six-piece place settings in their sterling patterns were Miss Wylajo Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills, 9246 Alta avenue, and Mrs. John Albert (Bonnie Jean) Hartrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester N. Benson, 819 Cherry street.
