

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith

Miss Betty Ekmanian Is Bride of Richard Smith

Miss Betty Lou Ekmanian, Los Angeles, became the bride of Richard Smith, Medford, in a ceremony held June 25 in Omaha, Neb. The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ekmanian, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, 1408 Siskiyou boulevard, Medford.

The Rev. Mark McCallum read the double ring rites at 11 a.m. in the All Saints Episcopal church. About 100 guests attended.

White chrysanthemums and Shasta daisies decorated the church altar.

The bride chose a street length gown fashioned with Chantilly lace bodice, elbow length sleeves, and bell skirt of silk peau de soie. Her pillbox hat held an imported French illusion veil of shoulder length, and she carried white roses and stephanotis. Her cultured pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom. Daniel Ozark, Omaha, Neb., gave the bride in marriage.

Miss Diane Brusseau, Alhambra, Calif., attended the bride. Her sheath frock in Copenhagen blue was of silk organza over taffeta. She carried pink rosebuds in an old-fashioned bouquet.

Joseph Altobelli, Detroit, Mich., was best man.
