

Zonta Convention Highlights To Be Given at Meeting

Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck, president of the Medford Zonta club, will give highlights of the recent 36th annual international convention of Zonta International held in New Orleans, during a picnic for club members to be held Thursday, July 26 at the home of Mrs. Cole Holmes, 16 Ross court.

The president recently announced that awards were presented to Zonta International at the convention for accomplishments of Zontians in the program for the National Safety Foundation and also from the Girl Scouts of America for outstanding work with girls in America.

The 1962 Amelia Earhart scholarships were awarded to Mrs. Suzanne Palocz, a Hungarian student at Brooklyn polytechnic; Miss Diane Lamore of Melbourne, Australia; Miss Barbara Kroupa of Traverse City, Mich., and Mrs. Wendy Shih Pl from Formosa. Scholarships are awarded each year to qualified young women for graduate work in aeronautical engineering.

Past Chief Club Plans Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Hall, 140 Alida street, Ashland, will be hosts to the members and their families of the Past Chief club of the Pythian Sisters, July 24 at 6:30 p.m.

A potluck dinner will be served in the patio. Members are to take their own table service. According to the president, Mrs. Harry Barnburg, there would be a short business meeting after the dinner and then pinocle will be played.

Mrs. Mitchell Is Honored at Party

Mrs. Bessie Mitchell was honored at a surprise birthday party July 18 at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCandless, 204 North Fourth street, Jacksonville.

A barbecued supper was served on the patio at the McCandless home.

Among the guests present were Mrs. Elmar Johnson, Miss Linda Johnson, Mrs. Helen Morris, Mrs. Eva Whitney, Mrs. Charles Kimball, Mrs. Joann Eubanks, Miss Verna McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barnett, Harold Smith, Mrs. Paul Winingham, Mrs. Kenneth Fields, Mrs. Alice Flinnigan, Mrs. A. L. Charbonneau, Mrs. Verna Cully, and Mrs. Mitchell's two grandsons, Steven and Mark Gleaves, of Seattle, Wash.

Annual Picnic Set Thursday

Golden Link class, First Baptist church, will hold an annual picnic supper Thursday, July 26, at the N. A. Mead home, 3471 Oakpine Way, Central Point. Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Families attending should take table service. Those whose surnames begin with letters from A to M are to take salad and dessert, while those beginning with N to Z are to take fried chicken and a vegetable.

Families Visit At Shaw Home

Houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, 641 Pine street, are their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Shaw, and their son Timothy, and Mrs. Dale Shaw's sister, Miss Mary Flett, all of Portland, and Mrs. Royal Gleason and daughters, Linda, Susan, Judy and Merrylee, all of Albany. Mrs. Gleason is the former Miss Janet Shaw.

Dale Shaw, an airman second class with the Air Force, recently returned from 18 months' service in the Azores. He is a graduate of Medford High school. The family is en route to his new station at Lackland Air Force base in San Antonio, Tex.

Easterners Are Guests

A recent visitor in Medford was Mrs. Eugene Earle and her children, Beverly, Susan and Michael, of Towson, Md. The Earles, who lived in Medford before moving to the mid-West and later to the East coast, were guests of Mr. Earle's mother, Mrs. C. D. Vroman, and Mr. Vroman, Coleman Creek road.

Traveling with Mrs. Earle was Miss Carol James, Akron, Ohio, who is a physical therapist on the staff of an Akron hospital. From Medford the group continued to Seattle to attend the World's fair.

Mrs. Earle brought the news that her husband has recently been made materials engineer for the highway department of Baltimore county, Maryland. Previously Mr. Earle was employed by the Toledo Testing laboratories and was with the state highway department in Ohio. The family lived at Cleveland and Toledo before moving to Maryland.

Mrs. Earle, a mathematics teacher, has been granted an academic scholarship by the National Science foundation and will attend Rutgers university, Brunswick, N.J., beginning with the fall term, doing advanced study in new
