Former Justice
Given Three Years

Newport—Former Justice of the Peace Lennart Benson of DeLake was sentenced to three years in prison here Monday for forgery.

He was convicted July 5 of forging two checks at the Hines - Phelps Logging Co., where he was employed as an accountant.

He was given three years on each count, to run at the same time.

Benson was elected justice of the peace for North Lincoln county two years ago. The court was vacated upon his sentencing. He said he will appeal the conviction.

Court Decision On Prayers Upheld

Seattle—A Catholic professor of law at Gonzaga university has sided with the Supreme Court decision against prayer in public schools and at the same time attacked "the radical approach" taken by Justice William O. Douglas in his concurring opinion.

In a speech Monday night at Seattle University, the Rev. Francis Conklin, S.J., said the question of prayers in the public schools is strictly a political one. He agreed the government should not compose official prayers "because it is not the function of civil government to tell me when, where or how to pray."

But Father Conklin, a visiting professor at Seattle university, attacked Justice Douglas' opinion that the federal
