

Herbert Hoover
Voices Sympathy
For President

San Francisco—Former President Herbert Hoover, 87, returned to the San Francisco Bay Area Monday with words of sympathy for President Kennedy and the admission that Telstar baffles him.

Hoover told newsmen at the airport that he saw a parallel between his administration and that of President Kennedy.

The depression era president said that Kennedy "came in just before a big bust in the stock market and with Congress opposed to him. He's going down the same weary path."

Hoover, who said he spends most of his time "writing history books," has a busy schedule during his two-week stay. He will attend the summer encampment of San Francisco Bohemian club members at Bohemian Grove on Russian river.

He will also meet with the Stanford University Board of Trustees of which he is an emeritus member, and do work connected with the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace on the Stanford campus.

Asked about Monday's Telstar broadcasts, Hoover admitted he was baffled.

Beyond Comprehension
"The electronics men have just gone beyond my comprehension," he said. "I belong to a generation that just doesn't grasp all that."

"The scientists have gone so far beyond me, I quit. I just take what I read in the newspapers."

The former president appeared in the best of health and walked unaided to and from his car.

WILL JOLT PIGEONS
Hartford, Conn. — Pigeons that come to roost at the new St. Joseph Roman Catholic Cathedral are in for a shock. Workers are installing an electrical system designed to give the birds a slight jolt to discourage their visits.

Shad Setting Record
In Columbia River

Portland — A fish biologist for the U.S. Corps of Engineers says shad are setting a record in Columbia river migration at Bonneville dam.

Ivan Donaldson said more than 385,228 shad have migrated over the dam fish ladder.

The previous record was 265,697 shad tallied last year. Shad in the Columbia river are descendants of eastern shad planted in the river years ago. They move upstream to spawn.

Senate Approves
Alaska Road Bill

Washington — The Senate passed and sent to the House Monday a bill to authorize an $800,000 study for a proposed highway construction program in Alaska.

The bill, introduced by Sen. Ernest Gruening (D-Alaska), provides for engineering studies, estimates and planning surveys in Alaska.

It also calls for the negotiation of agreements with Canada for similar studies of roads which would connect with Alaska.

The bill, as amended on the floor, would call for the commerce secretary to submit recommendations on an Alaska road-building program to Congress by May 15, 1964.

It also was amended to spell out a reservation that approval of the bill by Congress would not mean automatic acceptance of the recommendations.

Condemned Man
Asks Forgiveness

Fort Madison, Iowa — Charles Noel Brown, 29, asking forgiveness for "the things I've done," died on the gallows today for the murder of an Internal Revenue Service agent.

Brown, a former Indiana convict and itinerant carnival worker, was executed for the murder of Alvin Koehrsen, 54, one of three persons he and an accomplice, Charles Edwin Kelley, 21, admitted killing during a six-day crime spree. Kelley awaits execution.

Russians To Test Various Weapons

Moscow — The Soviet Union will test "various types of modern weapons" in military exercises between Aug. 5 and Oct. 20 in remote regions of the Barents and Kara seas, the defense ministry announced Monday night.

The statement did not mention whether the U.S.S.R. would test any nuclear weapons, but it followed closely Russia's announcement it had decided to resume atomic testing.

Western observers here believed the Soviets might be planning to test a new Polaris-like missile which Russia has claimed to have successfully launched from a submerged submarine recently.

The test area includes the Soviet island of Novaya Zemlya, a frozen wasteland of glaciers and polar bears which has been used in the past for nuclear tests.

The defense ministry warned ships and planes to keep away from the test area and said it would bear no responsibility for vessels or aircraft which might enter the region of the military exercise.

Astoria Girl Held
On Charge of Murder

Astoria — An Astoria girl, 18-year-old Mrs. William Grayson, was charged with second degree murder Monday in the stabbing of a Las Vegas man.

Philip Williams, 52, was found stabbed to death in an apartment here early Monday.

Likes Clean Money
Chicago — The National Automatic Laundry and Cleaning council asked customers for comment on coin dry cleaning and got this reply: "This is what we've always needed. Some of those old coins I've collected are really filthy."

Five Polio Cases
Noted in Oregon

Portland — Five cases of paralytic polio have been reported so far this year in Oregon, the State Board of Health said today.

Three are adults and two children, and all had two immunizations of Sabin oral polio vaccine.

Four of the cases were reported in May. The latest, a 52-year-old man, was reported Sunday.

Dr. Grant Skinner said test specimens of the patients have been forwarded to the Community Disease Center at Atlanta, Ga., for further study. He said the center may be able to determine the particular type of virus and if it was related in any way to the vaccine the persons received.

Three of the cases were Portland residents and one was a 48-year-old Washington county woman.

All five had received Sabin oral vaccine for Types I and III polio. Some received the second type after they became ill with what was later found to have been polio. Dr. Skinner said it is possible that all five could have picked up the disease before the vaccine could give them immunity.

He said that 100 to 200 persons have polio in their intestines — subclinical cases — for every one who shows clinical evidence of the disease.

"We might have been on the verge of a real epidemic," he said.

Vinegar was a scarce item in Confederate camp cooking. Often captured Confederates would drink a cupful of it to the astonishment of their captors.

Try and Stop Me
By BENNETT CERF

I ASKED A CLASS of prep school youngsters recently how many of them had heard of Horatio Alger Jr. Not one boy raised his hand. How times have changed! When I was eleven, Alger's stories about poor, proud, exemplary lads who rose from rags to riches were the best-selling juvenile books in all the land.

Just about forty years ago (late May 1922) an unknown playwright, unable to interest a Broadway manager, produced her own drama at the Fulton Theater in New York. Every drama critic in town panned it unmercifully—and the unanimous chorus of boos she heard proved so effective that about seven years and 2,327 performances later, the play closed. Its authors: Anne Nichols. Its name: "Abie's Irish Rose." Only three shows have achieved longer runs on Broadway: "Tobacco Road," "Life With Father," and "My Fair Lady."

John D. Rockefeller once took his youngest son to hear a recital by an aging soprano. During the intermission the son asked, "Is it true that this lady frequently volunteers to sing for the convicts at prison concerts?" "Yes, it's true," answered John D., "and I suggest that you bear that in mind should you ever be tempted to do something wrong."

A novelty birthday card in the Madison Avenue shops consists of a piece of silver foil. Its message: "This isn't much of a card, but at least you can bake a potato in it."
