Solace of Prayer Is Unity Sermon Topic

The solace of prayer in time of doubt provides the theme for the sermon planned for Sunday at the 11:15 a.m. worship hour in Unity church, Haven and Holly sts., by the Rev. Katharine Bosworth. Her sermon title is "What To Do With Doubt." The text will be from James 1:5.

Witnesses Attend District Assembly

Harlan S. Nixon, president minister of the Medford Jehovah's Witnesses congregation, will head the Medford delegation of 135 persons to the district assembly at Eureka, Calif., July 27 to 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman, their children and grandchildren will be included in the delegation. Gorman is the oldest member of the congregation and is 86 years old.

Purpose of the convention, according to Nixon, is to enable all in attendance to be equipped with knowledge, faith and ministerial zeal.

Highlight of the three-day convention comes Sunday at 3 p.m. with the public Bible discourse, "Take Courage—God's Kingdom is at Hand!" by Lester M. Dugan of Jehovah's Witnesses world headquarters in New York.

Advent Christian Announces Subject

"God's Guidance" will be the 11 a.m. message by the Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr., pastor of the First Advent Christian church, Sunday at the worship service. The children will go to the Junior church chapel at 11:30 a.m. for a missionary story.

Sunday school will begin at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages from three to adult and a nursery for those under three. The Penny banks for the Vacation Bible school fund will be returned again this week. So far 23 books of the Bible have been put up on the chart.

The Diocesan class will not meet next week. Instead the Sunday school business meeting will be held at 7 p.m. with the church business meeting immediately following.

Message For First Baptist Announced

"Does Telstar Foreshadow the Return of Christ?" is the message to be brought at the First Baptist church Sunday morning by the pastor, the Rev. B. E. Andrews. The church is meeting temporarily at the Wilson school, corner of Grand and Corona aves. with a full schedule of services. The service is held at 11 a.m.

Maynard Hadley will be soloist for the service and a trumpet trio will play the offertory. Members of the trio are Don Tinseth, Wade Vanbeber, and Jim Andrews.

A family hour is held at 8:30 p.m. for the young people and an adult Bible study class for Sunday school workers.

In the 7:30 p.m. service Mr. Andrews' subject will be "Three Words Everyone Should Know The Meaning Of." Music for this service will be provided by Mrs. Myrna Wagner and Linda Scott with a duet. Paul Andrews will sing a solo. The Bible question time will also be held as a part of the service.

Adventists Give Financial Report

San Francisco, Calif. - Following the ancient Biblical custom of tithing all their income (giving one-tenth to the church), Seventh-day Adventists gave $223,845,402.51 to their church during the last four years.

In making his report to the 49th world conference of the church now meeting in San Francisco's civic auditorium, Chester L. Torrey, treasurer of the General Conference of Adventists, stated that during the past quadrennial period "the funds for our world work have been the largest in our history."

In addition to tithing, Torrey reported, a total of $84,438,652.44 was given in mission offerings, making a grand total of more than $288 million.

Appropriations from headquarters to the world - wide work of the church during the past four years have amounted to $108,820,930.34 as compared with $84,261,391.11 for the previous four years.

In this figure is included financial support for many American projects as well as for 185 other countries.

Torrey gave his report before more than 10,000 persons attending the 10-day church business session being held in civic auditorium. A total of 1,000 official delegates represent 196 countries of the world.

Other members are present in an unofficial capacity, helping to swell the attendance figure at the convention to 25,000 on week ends. Some 100 countries are represented from the church's ten world divisions.
