

Beverly Jean Tresham Bride of Steven Morris

Miss Beverly Jean Tresham became the bride of Steven Carlos Morris in a ceremony held Friday, July 20, in the First Presbyterian church here. The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Tresham, 1241 Dowell road, Grants Pass, has been living at 306 Garfield avenue, Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Carlos W. Morris, 128 Mistletoe avenue, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Dr. D. K. West, pastor of the church, read the double ring rites before about 250 guests. The ceremony was held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of lace and silk organza over peau de soie. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and square neckline. A flared chapel train, accented with lace appliques, emphasized the slim skirt. Her shoulder length bouffant veil was held by a crown of lace and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Mrs. Errol Tresham, Tacoma, Wash., a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Others attending the bride were Mrs. Duane Tresham, another sister-in-law, Miss Kathleen Urdiel, Mrs. Evelyn Schultz, and Miss Judith Hannah, Eagle Point.

The attendants wore sheath frocks of apricot colored silk organza, designed with side panels of silk organza, and silk organza rosettes with bridal veils. They carried white carnation bouquets.

Henry Courtney was bested by William Neuner, Eugene, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom; Gary Ackley; Douglas Randalls, Reno, Nev.; George Koch; and Bradley Morris, a brother of the bridegroom.

The church was decorated with white gladioli. Carl Rollings, Portland, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was soloist.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Miss Gwen Rutherford, Eugene, and Mrs. Bradley Morris, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Judy Thompson, San Jose, Calif., poured punch and Mrs. Harrison Thomas and Mrs. F. A. Falls, Whittier, Calif., poured coffee.

For the wedding and reception the mother of the bride wore a frock of apricot tone silk faille and lace, with matching accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose turquoise silk faille with shades of brandy and rose in her velvet hat. Both wore white orchid corsages.

The couple flew from Portland to Chicago and Dayton, Ohio, for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a pink Italian silk and organza bloused costume with matching pink and bone accessories.

They will make their home at 306 Garfield street about August 6.

The parents of the bridegroom were hosts for a rehearsal party Thursday, July 19, at their home.

The bride was graduated from Eagle Point High school, and attended Southern Oregon college. She is employed by Mann's Department as an assistant buyer.

Mr. Morris is a graduate of Medford High school and the University of Oregon and is a funeral director at Conger-Morris Funeral home.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Cotten, and Mrs. Carl Rutherford, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, Junction City; Mrs. James Nutt, Sacramento, Calif.; Errol Tresham, brother of the bride, Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harker, Prineville; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Tresham, Cave Junction; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Morris, Salem; and Mrs. Ralph Shirliff and daughter, Sheila, Myrtle Point.

Apperson-Califf Rites Held

First Methodist church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sandra Anne Califf and James C. Apperson, Friday, July 21. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Califf, 1473 East McAndrews road, and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Apperson, Mt. Shasta, Calif. He has been making his home at 125 Cottage street, Apartment H.

The Rev. Gerald Nelson read the double ring rites at 8 o'clock in the evening. About 100 guests attended the ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of blue and white gladioli and palms. The pew ends were marked with sprays of blue flowers and white ribbons.

Mr. Califf gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length sheath gown of silk organza with short train, fashioned with cap sleeves and bateau neckline. The waist at back was accented with a double bow, and the bodice and train were embroidered with rosebuds. Her elbow length veil was held by a pearl crown, and she wore short white gloves. Her bouquet was of white Fuji chrysanthemums.

Miss Sheryl Califf, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Other attendants were Miss Janet Anderson, Central Point, and Mrs. Robert McCracken, Portland. Miss Priscilla Graham and Miss Carmi Berriman, both Jacksonville, lighted the candles.

Miss Califf wore a sheath frock in Copenhagen blue of taffeta and silk organza. Her headband was of matching blue, and she carried a cascade bouquet of blue and white gladioli. Miss Anderson and Mrs. McCracken wore dresses similar to that of the maid of honor, in cotton blue. Their bouquets were of blue and white carnations.

The candlelighters wore white street length frocks with blue taffeta belts and headbows. Their white tapers were decorated with sprays of blue flowers.

Eva and Kari Schlappi, Portland, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. Jeffrey Schlappi, Portland, also a cousin, was ring bearer. The flower girls wore white organza dresses with taffeta sashes. Their nosegays were of white carnations.

William Mayes, Corvallis, was best man. Robert McCracken, Portland, and Edward Graham, Jacksonville, seated the guests.

For the wedding and reception which followed in the church parlor, Mrs. Califf chose a golden silk suit with matching beige accessories. Her corsage was two green cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Apperson chose a beige sheath frock with matching accessories, and a rose-colored cymbidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. D. Lorin Jackobs served the cake at the reception, and Mrs. Hal McCracken, Portland, poured coffee. Mrs. Arthur Schlappi, Portland, aunt of the bride, served punch. Miss Christine Schlappi, Portland, was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Nancy Schlappi was at the gift table. Both are cousins of the bride.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Apperson traveled to the Oregon coast for their wedding trip. The bride wore a black linen suit and a rose-colored cymbidium orchid corsage. They are making their home at 125 Cottage street, Apartment H.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school. She attended the University of Oregon, and was graduated from Southern Oregon college. She now teaches second grade at Washington school. Mr. Apperson was graduated from Roseburg High school and Southern Oregon college. He also attended Modesto, Calif., Junior college. He is now employed by the Medford branch United States National bank.

Attending from out of the valley were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gutzert, Oxnard, Calif., an aunt and uncle of the bride; Mrs. Elizabeth Macklin, Astoria, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Bartley Bennett, Modesto, Calif., an aunt of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Robertson, Modesto, an aunt and uncle of the bridegroom.
