Home Rites Wed Couple In Medford

Making their home at Glide Ranger station, where the bridegroom is employed, are Mr. and Mrs. La Ray Armstrong, who were married July 21 at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Armstrong, 122 Janney lane. The bride is the former Lila Kay Elson, 86 Janney lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. DeVere, Tucson, Ariz.

The Rev. William A. Saladin of the Phoenix Presbyterian church officiated. About 80 people attended the ceremony, held at one o'clock in the afternoon. Baskets of regal lilies, gladioli, and daisies decorated the room.

Dr. Leland T. Pierson, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a frock of pale yellow lace over satin and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. Pierson attended her sister. Her frock was green polished cotton, and she carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Bruce Matheny, Applegate, was best man.

Peggy Sue Armstrong, daughter of the bridegroom, and Karen Elson, daughter of the bride, were flower girls.

Ringbearers were Danny Armstrong, son of the bridegroom, and Monty Elson, son of the bride. The flower girls wore dresses of green polished cotton with white eyelet embroidery trim. Their bouquets were white daisies.

The reception which followed was given at the home. The newly married couple then traveled to Lake of the Woods for their wedding trip.

The bride attended St. Mary's High school, and was employed as a dental assistant to Dr. Pierson. Mr. Armstrong attended Medford High school and Oregon State university. He is a forestry engineer with the U. S. Forest service, stationed at Glide.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Eva Armstrong, grandmother of the bridegroom, Dunsuir, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Hurley, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, Dunsuir; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fann, Grants Pass; and Mrs. Gwen Pierson and children, Klamath Falls.

Morgans Return From Nebraska Trip

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Morgan are living at their home on Highway 99 north of Gold Hill following a wedding trip to Wood River, Neb.

En route home the couple spent some time at Yellowstone National park. While in Wood River they were guests of his mother, Mrs. Katie Morgan, and visited other relatives and friends.

The bride is the former June White of Gold Hill. The wedding was held June 3. The Rev. Harley A. Zeller, a retired Methodist minister, officiated at the double ring ceremony performed at four o'clock in the afternoon in the home of Mr. Morgan's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morgan Jr., Klamath Falls. Only close relatives and friends attended the ceremony and a reception which was held at Sari's Italian restaurant in Klamath Falls.

For her wedding and reception Mrs. Morgan selected a princess style floral print dress with matching coat of turquoise and blue on white silk. Her accessories were white and she wore a white orchid corsage.

Miss Carolyn White, Gold Hill, was maid of honor for her mother. She wore a pink sheath of cotton trimmed with white lace and white accessories. Joseph Morgan Jr. served as best man for his father. Also among the guests was another son and daughter-in-law of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Morgan.

A telephone message was received from Mrs. Morgan's son, Airman Second Class Kenneth White, who is stationed at Loring Air Force base at Carabo, Maine.

The bride is a clerk at Cogswell's market in Gold Hill. The bridegroom is a mechanic and school bus driver for District 6 schools.
