Rita Belle Mapes Bride Of John Ray Mitchell

Ashland - Miss Rita Belle Mapes and John Ray Mitchell were married July 14 in 7:30 o'clock evening rites in the Ashland Faith Tabernacle. The Rev. Leo Wine performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of about 150 guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Warren Mapes, 954 B street, Ashland, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Franklin, 316 Patterson street, Ashland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta with Basque bodice. The bateau neckline was trimmed with appliques of Alencon lace in scroll design and embroidered with pearls and sequins. The lace appliques were repeated on the front of the bouffant skirt, and the chapel train fell from a pouf bustle. Her elbow length veil was of silk illusion and was held by a miniature crown of pearls and sequins encircled with tulle insertion.

The bridal bouquet was of blue carnations and white rosebuds and with it the bride carried an heirloom handkerchief which had been carried by her great grandmother, her grandmother and mother on their wedding days.

Lists Attendants
Miss Phyllis Mapes was honor attendant for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Mitchell, a sister of the bridegroom, Miss Mary James, Applegate, and Miss Karen Herndon, Grants Pass. Miss Mapes and Miss James wore blue chiffon gowns and Miss Herndon and Miss Mitchell's gowns were of white cotton. All carried nosegays of blue carnations and white gladioli.

Susie James, the ring bearer, wore a frock of white glazed cotton with blue chiffon draped collar. Sheryl Mitchell, who was flower girl, wore a blue and white nylon dress and she carried a basket of blue hydrangeas. Both had wristlets of blue and white carnations.

Kenneth Mitchell was best man for his brother. Baskets of white gladioli and white rosebuds with greenery decorated the church. Mrs. James Hobbs, organist, and Mrs. Robert Porter, a cousin of the bridegroom, soloist, both of Medford, furnished the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore an aquamarine jersey dress with home colored accessories, and the bridegroom's mother chose a gray suit with black accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

The reception was held in the church reception room decorated with baskets of rosebuds and greenery. Mrs. Herbert Taylor cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. Walter Eldman presided at the punch bowl. Miss Bonita Wine was in charge of the guest book and Miss Sandra McPherson at the gift table. The Misses Bonnie and Nancy Conrad arranged the decorations for the church and reception.
