

Wagner, NL Reject, Lead AL to Victory

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Chicago (UPI)—Just when they were beginning to look like champs, the American League All-Stars regained their touch and acted like champs.

It took a guy who wasn't good enough to make it on the National league to get them off and running but then they unleashed all their old vaunted power to win the second half of the mid-summer classic, 9 to 4, and regain some of their vanished prestige.

They hadn't won in their last five starts before they went at it in the Wrigley Field, home of the Chicago Cubs Monday and another victory for the Nationals would have tied the series at 16 each against one tie.

But Leon Wagner of the Los Angeles Angels, who failed to make the grade with either the Giants or Cardinals, blasted a two-run homer which put them ahead to stay — after a homer by Pete Runnels had tied it up at one — and Rocky Colavito administered the coupe de grace in a 10-hit assault with a three run drive over the ivy covered outfield fence in the seventh.

Gave AL Prestige

The victory came when American league prestige was at an all-time low. Once the circuit which prided itself on its murderers row, held a 14-4 edge in the series. But going into this game, after losing the first All-Star contest this year at Washington, 3 to 1, it could boast only one tie in its last five efforts.

Maybe it was a move to regain lost glory, or a desire to prove that the league dominated by the Yankees is the best. But the club managed by the Yankees' Ralph Houk virtually wrapped up the decision long before the 2 hour and 28 minute contest reached its end.

Twice National league threats were smothered out by snappy double plays in the American league infield. Four times the National league committed errors, resulting in one unearned run for the victors.

Medford Natators Gain Berths in Emerald Meet

Twenty-five Medford swim club members have qualified in 39 events for the Emerald Empire Championships to be held on Aug. 5 at Springfield. The Medford natators qualified by placing in the finals of the district meet last week end at Redmond.

Carol Little, Phil and Donita Taylor, Ann Gerety, Riley McHugh and Dennis Carson each qualified for three individual races. Phil Taylor, Carson, Jill Crawford and Rhonda Hess gained individual berths in the Redmond meet. The Medford 9-10-year girls 100 freestyle relay team swam to another first. Members were Donita Taylor, Ann Gerety, Debbie Carson and Janet Brinson.

Some 14 teams will vie in the Emerald meet. The Medford coaches, Linda Hess and Dick Hildebrand, look for some promising results particularly from Phil Taylor in the freestyle, breaststroke and medley. Carson in the butterfly and backstroke. Miss Crawford in the freestyle and medley. Rhonda Hess in the butterfly and medley.

Phil in Medley

Phil's first was in the 100-yard medley and he was second in the 100 breaststroke and 100 freestyle in the 13-14 boys division. Carson won the 100 backstroke in the same class and was fourth in the 50 butterfly and sixth in freestyle.

Miss Crawford won the senior girls' 100 free and 200 medley. She was second in the 50 butterfly.

Donita Taylor and Ann Gerety scored in the 9-10 girls' races. Miss Gerety had seconds in the 50 free and 50 butterfly events and third in 50 breaststroke. Miss Taylor was second in breaststroke, fourth in butterfly and fifth in freestyle.

Among 11-12 girls Linda McGinty was fifth in 50 free and Sheryl Gerety fifth in both 50 backstroke and 100 medley. The 200 free relay team of Gerety, McGinty, Jean Crawford and Robbie Little was fourth.

13-14 Girls

In the 13-14 girls events Miss Little was third in 50 free and fifth in both 50 butterfly and 100 medley. Anna Gonzales was sixth in 50 backstroke. Nona Donahue was third in senior girls' 50 butterfly.

Minor Loop Affiliates Of Top National League Clubs Vie Here Thursday

West coast minor league representatives of the National league's two leading teams come to the Rogue valley for professional baseball action on Thursday night, Aug. 2.

The encounter at 8 p.m. at Memorial field, White City, pits the Eugene Emeralds against the Salem Dodgers in a Class B Northwest league encounter.

Salem is a farm of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Eugene is affiliate of the San Francisco Giants. While the Dodgers of the Oregon capital town emulate the LA club as loop leaders, the Ems have not been able to match their parent crew. San Francisco holds down a comfortable second in the National. Eugene trails the field in the Northwest.

Beat Dodgers Here

But, this does not mean that Eugene will play patsy to its Salem foe. It will be remembered that the Ems and Dodgers clashed in June at White City. Eugene won that fracas and went on to compile a string of three

Softballers To Collide

Communications Workers of America meet Mail Tribune at 6:45 o'clock this evening in a Minor league Jackson County Softball association contest.

Central Point Merchants and Keith Schulz garage meet at 8:15 p.m. in the Major loop.

Jay Allen Cops Coastal Series

Jay Allen Cars softball team of the Jackson County association won two of three games during the week end against the Coos Bay All-Stars at Coos Bay.

Elks, Nationals Win 1st Games

Klamath Falls (UPI)—The Ontario Elks and Madison Nationals of Portland won opening night games in the state Babe Ruth league baseball tournament here.

St. Luke's Is Softball Victor

St. Luke's Methodist jumped on two First Nazarene pitchers for 20 hits to chalk up a 13 to 7 Church League softball victory at Jackson field Monday night.

Erling Odegaard Named Wrestling Coach at EOC

La Grande (UPI)—Erling Odegaard, a teaching fellow last year at the University of Oregon, has been hired as wrestling coach for Eastern Oregon college, president Frank Bennett announced today.

Oak Knoll Golfers Win From Weed

Pee Wees To Mix in Star Game

Central Point—A Southern Oregon Pee Wee league all-star game will be played on Friday, Aug. 3.

Don Miller, Southern Oregon junior baseball commissioner, said that the tussle will be contested at Memorial field, White City. Time is 7:30 p.m.

Players from the Medford Wildcats, Medford Tigers and Phoenix-Talent will make up one team. Baseballers of the Central Point Indians, Central Point Braves and Jacksonville will make up the other.

Phoenix-Talent, Yanks Winners In Junior Ball

Phoenix—Talent trimmed the Central Point Rams 3 to 1 and Medford Yankees topped the Central Point Stars 16 to 2 on Monday in the Southern Oregon Intermediate Baseball league.

Jim Adams hurled a 13-strikeout one-hitter for Phoenix-Talent, walking four.

Kelly Champ reached Adams for the only Ram hit. He drove in the team's run in the fifth inning. Lloyd Campbell doubled home one marker for Phoenix-Talent. Adams, Mike Furre and Tompkins clubbed the other safeties for the victors.

Third baseman Lex Hamilton ruined a Ram squeeze effort when he charged and fielded a bunt nicely and made a fine throw home.

The Yankees got half their runs in the fifth inning of an abbreviated game with the Stars. Bruce Bertrand smacked a double, triple and single in five trips up. Bill Eynart, Dan Thurman and Ron Schwindler had two hits each for Medford. Eynart doubled. Gary Nelson had a two-baser and Ernie Wilson and Mike Barber singles for the Stars as Yank pitchers Rick Newland and Mike Farthing teamed for a three-hitter.

Utility Men

Catchers include Stan Patykula and Arley Kangas, who are both utility men. Kangas can play most any position. He is an ex-Washington Stater who led Northern Division hitting in 1959. Patykula is a power hitter who is having a bad year. This is his third season with Eugene.

Speedy Jose Linares is another handy man. He can play third or second base or shortstop. He was sent down in mid-July from El Paso which moved up this year into the Class AA Texas loop.

First basemen for Eugene is Jose Calero from Puerto Rico, who was an all-Sophomore leaguer at El Paso where he batted .353 in 1961. Another infielder is Don Pope, grad of Mississippi State.

Outfielders include Carlos Dore, Wally Cockrell and Joe McLaughlin. Dore is from the Dominican Republic where he plays winter ball. He hit .307 for Winnipeg last year and was a Northern league all-star. Cockrell hit .340 while leading East Carolina college to the NAIA baseball title in 1960. McLaughlin is picking up after a slow start. He hit 18 homers for Quincy in 1961.

Medford Lions club is sponsor of the Thursday game. It has tickets available at the U.S. and First National Banks, Burelon's ladies' store, Barker's and Morrison's men's stores, Lampport's sporting goods store, the Timber room, the Bohemian club, the Elks lodge, Andy's jewelers, and Thunderbird market.

Mitchells, Templetons Top Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Mitchell are the husband and wife golf champions in low gross scoring at Rogue Valley Country club.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Templeton are low net finalists. The Mitchells compiled a 74 best ball score Sunday to top a field of 67 couples in the annual Me and Mine tourney. The Templetons had a 68 1/2 low net.

Carl Schmidt and Mrs. Helen Davies, non-husband and wife team, were second low gross with a 79. Dr. and Mrs. William Miller were third with an 80.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bayliss were net runners-up with a 69 and Mr. and Mrs. George Pearson followed with 69 1/2.

BOWLING

Secretaries and presidents of leagues in the Medford Woman's Bowling association are asked to attend a school of instruction on Thursday, Aug. 2. The school will be conducted at the home of Mrs. James Farrar, a association president. She resides on Forest Creek rd. All those who will attend are to meet at 6 p.m. at Medford lanes. The women will travel in caravan to the Farrar home. League supplies will be distributed. This school is open to all interested lady bowlers whether they are league officials or not.
