Gold Hill Girl Hurt In Sunday Accident

Gold Hill — Victoria Susan Lester, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Lester, Gold Hill, is in the Seaside hospital, Crescent City, Calif., as the result of multiple arm fractures, suffered in a two-car crash Sunday on Oregon mountain on the Redwood highway in California.

Miss Lester was a passenger in a car driven by her fiance, Howard Charles Misner, 19, son of Mrs. Louise Bruce, Gold Hill.

Other passengers were her brother, Frederick W. Lester Jr., 17, and David Cortland, 16, a foster son of Mrs. Bruce. They suffered minor injuries and were treated and released at the same hospital. The automobile was completely demolished.

The accident occurred near the summit of the mountain when the Misner car was struck by a car driven by Paul Joseph Dhers, Washington, D.C., according to the report.

Miss Lester, who also received multiple cuts and bruises will be flown in the next four or five days to a Medford hospital for specialized treatment, her mother said.
