

NikNak 1st In Trial's Open Stake

Three Rogue Valley Retriever club entries won first places Sunday in a trial held at Florence under auspices of the Willamette Valley Retriever club of Albany.

First in the open all-age stake was NikNak, owned and handled by Kenneth Denman, Medford. Hunter, owned and handled by Leonard Nelson, Medford, was victor in the qualifying stake. Gay Knight, owned and handled by Jack Gardner, Medford, won the derby.

Hunter took a certificate of merit in the open.

McGraw Marshal

Three Klamath Falls-owned dogs were among those who placed. James Stillwell's Tyson's Rowdy was second in the open with R. C. McInnes as handler. Hal Shidler's Smoothie was third in the qualifying stake and McInnes' Debonaire was fourth.

The foregoing listed dogs are Labrador retrievers, with exception of Rowdy, a golden retriever. Everett McGraw, Florence, a former Medford resident, was trial marshal. Shidler and B. I. Claska, Eugene, judged the open, McGraw and Denman the qualifying stake and McInnes and Tom Rickard, Medford, the derby.

There were 38 entries in three stakes. Entries were from Medford, Klamath Falls, Albany, Eugene, Salem, Lebanon and the Florence area.

Crater Cubs Cinch Junior Loop Title

Central Point — Central Point Crater Cubs wrapped up the Southern Oregon Junior Baseball league championship yesterday by blanking the Central Point Mustangs 10 to 0.

Victory gave the Cubs a 5-1 league record and qualified them to again represent this district in the Oregon Junior Baseball association tourney at Blue River on Aug. 10, 11 and 12.

The Crater crew this evening will open at full speed its drive for funds to finance the tourney trip. They will sell large bottles of pop for $1 each in a campaign in this community. Members of the squad have been washing cars as a fund project.

Yesterday the Cubs picked up five of their runs in the first inning on a two-run homer by Darryl Summerfield, a two-run single by John Rhodes, three walks, an error, two stolen bases and three wild pitches.

Kelly Champ also doubled home two runs during the game.

Emeralds, Dodgers of NWL Vie Thursday at White City In Regular League Contest

Eugene's Emeralds and Salem's Senators come to the Rogue valley on Thursday evening for a two-fold purpose — To complete a four-game series and to show Class B professional Northwest league baseball to southern Oregon fans.

The Emeralds and Dodgers collide at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Memorial field, White City.

Eugene, with the pair of triumphs, pulled itself up out of the cellar and will try to keep out in its remaining tangles of the series. Salem is the NWL leader but saw its margin over idle second place Tri-City cut from four to three games last night. The Emeralds are now fourth in the six team circuit.

The series starters at Eugene followed the so-called pattern of the tail-ender rising up to pester the ambitions of the front-runner and showed that the Emeralds have no desire for a pat role.

While Salem tops the circuit, there is some surprise voiced, even in Oregon's capital city, that the Dodgers are up there. Remarkable Al Lightner, sports editor of the Oregon Statesman in his Sunday column:

"If Mgr. Stan Wasiak can hold that line with what's he got to hold it with, and cop the second half pennant in the NWL, he gets our vote as the 1962 Manager of the Year. It would not be a 'hometown' selection. Wasiak doesn't have the best ball club in the league. But he has it out in front for the second half flag, with only another month to go."

Bob Schwartz of the Statesman sports staff previously stated that the Dodgers have been getting some breaks and playing them well.

Arnold Hitting 343 Wade Arnold currently leads Salem hitting with a .343 mark and Tom Richards is .324. Ken Page, a pitcher, is hitting .321 for fewer batting turns. Robert Cox with a .290 batting mark as of Monday, heads the team in runs batted in with 60. Larry Staab, with 12-5, and Darrell Peters, with 11-7, have the top pitching marks. But Jim Churchill, Tom Murray and Bill Boehlert have been doing best on the hill in the second half.

Peters, Staab and Billy Jones, an outfielder, are the only players classed as rookies on the club. Staab is indicated as the youngest player on this Los Angeles Dodgers' farm club with birth date listed in 1943. Catcher Arnold is shown as the oldest. He was born in 1936. Eight of the 19 players on the roster were born in 1940.

Catcher Bill Kelso is the giant of the lot at 6-4. Page, Arnold and Richards, at 5-9, are the shorties.

Dore's Average 303 Carlos Dore, a centerfielder, is the top hitter among the Eugene Emeralds who have been with the San Francisco Giants' affiliate for the longest time of the season. He has a .303 mark. However, Jose Linare, recent infield addition, is swatting .365. Next high averages are the .282s of catcher Dick Rietz and rightfielder Wally Cockrell.

First baseman Jose Calero is tops in RBIs with 51. Matt Gayeski paces the pitchers with an 11-7 record. Frank Linzy is 6-6.

No-Hitter By Estelle For Eugene

United Press International A no-hit, no-run pitching job and some lousy hitting featured play in the Northwest league Tuesday night.

Lefty Dick Estelle of Eugene hurled the no-no as Eugene blanked Salem 6-0 in the nightcap of a doubleheader. The Emeralds also won the opener 4-3.

Yakima blasted Lewiston 13-2 in the only other game played.

Estelle fanned 13 Dodgers and walked four while twice retiring nine men in order. Eugene wrapped it up with two runs in the second and three more in the third.

Metro Club Loses Hays

Portland — Lonn Hays of Franklin High school was lost to the Metropolitan team Monday for the Shrine all-star football classic.

Hays, a quarterback, suffered a recurrence of a shoulder injury as the Metropolitan and State squads opened two-day practice sessions.

The teams will meet at Multnomah stadium here Aug. 11.

Hays, under rules governing this year's contest, cannot be replaced. The loss left the Metropolitan team with two quarterbacks: Brian Barnes of Jefferson and Laurie Carlin of Sunset.
