Mr. Graham and Mrs. Murphy are brother and sister of the colonel. Miss Murphy had made her home with her uncle and aunt the past year and attended school in Medford.

Parties Honor Miss Denyer; Rites Saturday

Two parties last week were given in honor of Miss Pauline Denyer, whose wedding to John C. Flanagan was set for yesterday afternoon at First Presbyterian church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Denyer, 19 Ross court, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Flanagan, Ehrman road.

Mrs. Lloyd Neilson was hostess for a shower Tuesday night at her home, 2130 East Jackson street. The Neilson home was decorated as a French sidewalk cafe. Small tables were covered with red and white checked cloths and were centered with nosegays of flowers. Mrs. Harold Houson, a native of France, presented Miss Denyer her gifts. Mrs. Houston, dressed as a French maid, also assisted with serving.

About 45 guests attended the event.

On Wednesday Mrs. Douglas Dunn and her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Wonderly, gave a kitchen shower for the bride-elect at the Wonderly's home, 734 Palm street. Guests were Miss Denyer, her mother, and Miss Jan Everham, Miss Barbara Gordon, Miss Sharon Laing, Miss Connie Paulson, Miss Deanna Russell, Mrs. Dennis Lundgren and Mrs. Patrick McCoy.

All Alpha Chi Omega alumnae in the area are to attend.

Ceremony In Nevada Weds Pair

An event of Saturday, July 28, was the marriage of Miss Sandra Lee Sanner and Raymond Lloyd Rackley, Winnemucca, Nev. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Sanner, 1708 Stratford avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rackley, Winnemucca.

The Rev. R. W. Engseth performed the ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Sparks, Nev. Immediate family members attended the double ring rites, held at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The bridegroom's family was represented by his brother, Robert Jackson, Lovelock, Nev.

For the wedding the bride wore a sheath gown in champagne color, fashioned with overlapping draped skirt, scoop neck, and quilted neckline. Her white picture hat was of ruffled nylon, and she wore white accessories and a pearl pendant, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was a small beige orchid encircled by white stephanotis.

Miss Barbara Gordon, Medford, attended the bride. Her pink tulle frock was designed with spaghetti straps, and she wore white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mr. Jackson served as best man for his brother.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sanner wore a pale blue sheath dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was given by the bride's parents at the Towne House motel in Reno. The cake served was the upper layer of a wedding cake given to the bride a week before by friends attending a shower in Medford. It was served by Miss Gaylene Sanner, Medford, sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanner were also hosts for a dinner party for guests and bridal party at the Nugget restaurant in Sparks.

The newlywed couple traveled through Nevada and Idaho on their wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of Medford high school, and attended the University of Oregon.

The bridegroom was graduated from Winnemucca high school, and is employed by Winnemucca Propane company. The couple will live in Winnemucca.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hendrix, newcomers to Medford, were among the guests at a reception held at Rogue gallery Wednesday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Onslow-Ford, Inverness, Calif. Mr. Onslow-Ford's paintings make up the current exhibit at the gallery. Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix came to Medford from Sacramento, Calif., and Mr. Hendrix, on the faculty of Amador County High school last year, will teach art classes at Hedrick Junior High school beginning in September. The newcomers have joined Rogue Valley Art association, gallery sponsors. (Knackstedt photo)

Beta Upsilon Chapter To Hold Poolside Show

An evening tea and style show is planned by members of the Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, Tuesday, August 14 at 8 p.m., at the R. A. Skinner home, 2112 Hillside drive.

Entertainment will include diving exhibitions by college students, members of the Dolphin club from the University of Oregon, who also will give an exhibition of synchronized swimming, and various skits.

The team is made up of Richard Griffith, one of the Northwest's outstanding divers who recently took a first place and a second place in a Pacific Northwest Swim meet; Richard Hildebrand, and the Misses Linda Hess, Suzy Thompson, Barbara Stamper and Pam Glickson.

Miss Martha (Marty) Wyatt, Jacksonville, Miss Oregon for 1962, is expected to attend.

Reservations should be made for the event and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Larry Rose, 773-5753 or Mrs. Jack Rentz, 772-6796.

Fashions for the style show will be furnished from Jean Hart's shop and the hair styles will be done by operators from Winnie's Style salon. Tickets for the event are available at the two shops.

Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr. will be commentator for the style show and models include the Mesdames Alvin Hooper, Douglas Plumley, Arven Reynolds, Winnie Hardenburger, Raymond Reter, Randy Huggdahl, Jack Lust and Larry Schade Jr., and the Misses Pamela Trowbridge and Beverly Bush.

Proceeds for the event will be used toward a scholarship for a young woman student at Southern Oregon college.

Niles Smiths To Leave City; Parties Given

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Smith, who have lived in Medford for many years, will leave Tuesday to make their home in Santa Maria, Calif. Mr. Smith will teach the fifth grade in one of the Santa Maria elementary schools, and Mrs. Smith will become dean of girls at a new high school in that city which is being used this fall for the first time.

Mrs. Smith has been on the faculty at Eagle Point high school, and her husband has been teaching in the Sams Valley school.

A farewell party was given for the Smiths by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thurman, who invited neighborhood friends to the event. Mrs. Smith is a member of Chapter CG of the PEO sisterhood, and was given a handkerchief shower by the group. Last Tuesday a group of her friends honored her at a luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club.

The Smiths have two daughters living in California. They are Mrs. Steven Foster, Anaheim, and Mrs. Gary Dysart, San Francisco.
