

Anderson-Bohl Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Keith Anderson are to return to Medford today from their wedding trip to Canada and Seattle, Wash. The couple's marriage was an event of July 21 in the Medford First Church of the Nazarene.

The bride, the former Miss Janet Elaine Bohl, daughter of Mrs. Grace Bohl, 716 Welch street, chose to be married in the church which she has attended since she was three years old.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, 1187 Morrow road.

About 200 persons were present for the 8 o'clock ceremony read by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner.

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a gown of Alencon lace with scalloped neckline and designed with chapel train. The front of the full skirt was styled with an insert of net ruffles. She carried a bouquet of white and rose colored gladioli.

Miss Mary Lou Bohl was maid of honor for her sister, and another sister, Mrs. Larry Conway, Central Point, and Mrs. David Gardner, were bridesmaids. Miss Judy Ballestrasse, Seattle, Wash., her cousin, was bridesmaid.

Their matching gowns were of rose brocade with bell-shaped skirts and they carried bouquets of rosebuds and gladioli.

Gina Rice was flower girl and Gil Erickson, Seattle, a cousin of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

Lighting the candles were Walter Peterson, San Francisco, and Alf Peterson, Klamath Falls, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom; they also served as ushers.

Serving as best man was Mr. Gardner.

Also seating the guests were Ron Anderson, twin brother of the bridegroom, Willard Anderson, another brother, and Larry Conway, a brother-in-law.

Church Decorated

White, pink and rose hue gladioli decorated the church and the pew ends were marked with bows and flowers.

Mrs. Rex Goble and Robert Hansen furnished the vocal solos and Mr. Hansen also played an instrumental solo. Miss Marilyn Shepard was organist.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception held immediately following the ceremony in the church annex, the bride's mother wore a white crystalline frock with blue nylon stole. Her corsage was of white gladioli.

The bridegroom's mother wore a rose-beige lace dress and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Melvin Johnson served the punch and Mrs. W. H. Hansen the wedding cake, while Mrs. Fred Cane registered the guests.

The reception table was decorated with carnations, roses and gladioli.

For traveling the bride wore a white dress with pleated skirt and bodice embroidered with rosebuds. Her corsage was the rose gladioli from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a senior student in education at Southern Oregon college. She also has attended Northwest Nazarene college.

The bridegroom is self-employed and operates the Pine Street Shell service station.

Church Ceremony Held

Central Point—Miss Sara Joanne Elden became the bride of Wallace Stewart Campbell, Vancouver, Wash., in a ceremony held Friday, July 27, in Medford First Presbyterian church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Harrison F. Elden, Route 1, Box 487, Central Point, and Mr. and Mrs. Piner Campbell, Seattle, Wash., are the bridegroom's parents.

Dr. Thomas W. McNeil officiated at the eight o'clock candlelight ceremony. About 150 guests attended the double ring rites.

Baskets of pink gladioli decorated the altar of the church, and the pew ends were marked with pink gladioli and white bows. Mrs. Charles P. Champlin sang the wedding prayer, and Mrs. N. S. Thames provided the organ music.

Wears Taffeta

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and scoop neckline. The full skirt was designed with side detail of applied pink roses under a petal overskirt, and chapel train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was held by a Dior rose centered with pink pearls. She carried an orchid encircled by cascading stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Elden, Lakeview, was honor attendant for her sister-in-law. Other attendants were Mrs. Richard Davis, Central Point; Mrs. Dennis Burns, Portland; Miss Ann Primrose, Olympia, Wash.; Miss Linda Conley, Portland; and Miss Dolores Pfahl, Portland. All but Mrs. Davis are Alpha Phi sorority sisters of the bride.

They wore frocks of pink crystalline, fashioned with full skirts and pink satin cummerbunds. Their hats were a circle of pink silk tulle over a pink rose, and they carried cascade bouquets of pink gladioli.

Miss Lee Hamilton, Central Point, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Jack T. Walker, III, Medford, lighted the candles.

Their gowns were white embroidered crystalline with pink satin cummerbunds, and pink flower wristlets.

Roger C. Johnson, Washington, D.C., was best man. Seating the guests were Robert H. Elden, Lakeview, brother of the bride; James Stillwell, Portland, John Law, Seattle, Fred Heidemann, Hood River, and Richard Clarke, Seattle.

The mother of the bride chose a powder blue silk and lace dress with matching blue hat and white accessories for the wedding and reception. The bridegroom's mother wore a pale blue silk frock with matching accessories. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

The floral decorations in both the church and the reception hall were arranged by Mrs. Steve Benston and Mrs. Lester Gorden.

During the reception a bride's candle was on the table with the guest book, with Mrs. Gordon Mekkold in charge.

Mrs. Norman Hillyer and Mrs. Bert Caster cut and served the wedding cake. Coffee and punch were poured by Mrs. Scott Hamilton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Aldred Setness, Anderson, Calif.

The couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a pale green linen suit with bone-colored accessories. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Bride Is Teacher

The bride is a graduate of Crater High school and Oregon State university. During the past year she was a teacher in the Salem public school system, and she is now under contract to the Vancouver, Wash., schools.

The bridegroom attended Seattle, Wash., school, and was graduated from Washington State university. He is a civil engineer and is employed by Peter Kiewit Sons' company.

Attending the wedding was Mrs. Claude M. Johnson, grandmother of the bride, Central Point. Out of town guests included Mrs. Sadie Hagan, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. William Eccles, sister of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bounds, visiting in the valley on their way to Japan.

The parents of the bride were hosts for a buffet supper at their home following the wedding, for members of the bridal party and close friends and relatives.

The bride gave a luncheon for her attendants, the event being held at her home on the wedding day.
