

Johnsons Make Home In Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. Roger V. Johnson are living at 1735 Derby street, Klamath Falls, following their marriage July 21 in Reno, Nev. The bride is the former Miss Dana Faye Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Taylor, 515 West 11th street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Glassburn, Kenosha road, Klamath Falls.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Warren D. Ward in the Park Wedding chapel at four o'clock in the afternoon.

For her wedding the bride wore a blue suit with white accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

The chapel was decorated with baskets of pink and white flowers and pew ends were marked with pink ribbon bows.

The couple made their wedding trip to Virginia City and visited points of interest near Reno.

The bride attended Medford High school and until her wedding was a nurse's aide at the Millidge Convalescent home.

The bridegroom received his education in Klamath Falls schools and is employed by the Weyerhaeuser Lumber mill in Klamath Falls.

The couple was honored during a family reunion July 29 held in the home of the bride's parents. A bridal shower also was given when the bride was presented gifts for the kitchen. Thirty-three relatives attended.

Marriage Of Interest In Hornbrook

Hornbrook - Of interest here is news of the marriage on June 30 of Miss Regina Cotter, Hillsborough, Calif., and Michael Barnum, Hornbrook. The 11:30 o'clock nuptial mass took place at St. Catherine's Catholic church in Burlingame, Calif., before an altar banked with white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her brother, Henry Cotter, wore a full length gown of white peau de soie with insets of Alencon lace on the bodice and the chapel length train. Her bouffant veil was held by a crown of iridescent sequins and she carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Serving her cousin as maid of honor was Miss Geraldine Cadogan, and bridesmaids were the Misses Judith Coats and Martha Rees, Hillsborough, and Miss Karen Jedin, Burlingame. All four attendants wore identical gowns of pale aquamarine organza over taffeta with matching veiled hats, and carried crescent of white gladioli.

Richard Cotter, brother of the bride, performed best man duties for the bridegroom. Ushers, all Navy friends of the bridegroom, from Moffett field, were Roger Short from Nebraska, James Schwartz from Iowa, and John Smith from Ohio.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Cotter and the late Mr. Cotter of Hillsborough, and is a graduate of Burlingame High school. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Barnum, longtime residents of Hornbrook. He is a graduate of Yreka High school and was attending Oregon State university at Corvallis at the time he entered the Navy.
