

Retired Pastor, Wife Honored on Anniversary

The Rev. and Mrs. Clarence W. Frost, Lewis street, were honored on their fiftieth wedding anniversary at a reception at the Girls Community club July 30.

Prior to the reception the couple reaffirmed their marriage vows with the Rev. Loyce Carver, pastor of Apostolic Faith church officiating. The Rev. Mr. Frost, retired minister, was pastor of the Medford church for 35 years.

Mrs. Frost wore a white and pink dress with matching accessories and orchid corsage. Participating with them in the service were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schleigh, long-time friends of the couple.

Billy Hanlin, Portland, and Jerry Frost, Grants Pass, grandsons of the honored couple, were candlelighters and organist was Miss Barbara Hanlin, Portland, a granddaughter. The couple's three children were soloists.

Mrs. Robert Hanlin, Portland; Mrs. James Williams, Yakima, and Melvin Frost, Grants Pass.

Ushers were the Rev. Mr. Williams and the Rev. Mrs. Hanlin, sons-in-law of the couple.

Assisting with the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKay and Mrs. Melvin Frost. Cutting and serving the anniversary cake were Mrs. Wilbur Hunt, Mrs. Carver, Mrs. Chester Brown and Mrs. William W. Withrow. The cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Hunt.

Mrs. Norma Wallace and Mrs. Wilmer Wallace, Medford, presided at the punch bowls and Mrs. Sadie Pizer, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Bessie Myers poured coffee.

Singing during the reception were Duane Jones, Mrs.

Dan Ekelund, Portland; Herbert Girard, Grants Pass, Mrs. Ray Robinson, Mrs. Bessie Burchfield and Mrs. Nolan Roby.

Some 250 persons attended the event. The couple was presented with a gold money tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost were married in the old Thompson home on Granite street in Ashland. They traveled to Doris, Calif. by horse and wagon on their wedding trip. This fall Mr. and Mrs. Frost, accompanied by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Frost, Grants Pass, will sail from San Francisco aboard the USS Flying Enterprise of the Isorantzen Lines for a round-the-world trip. Among the numerous places to be visited by the two couples will be Apostolic Faith missions in the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Bombay, India, and Japan. They plan to return to the United States about February 1.

Ashland BPW Club Meeting Slated

Ashland—Members of Business and Professional Women's club will meet Wednesday evening in the garden of Mrs. Viola Squire's home, 1167 South Tolman Creek road, for an outdoor picnic.

Following the 6:30 p.m. dinner there will be an informal meeting to discuss plans for the year's programs and to hear a report on the national convention held last month in Los Angeles.

The club president, Dr. Ruth Beber, attended the convention and is spending the remainder of the summer vacation in southern California with her mother.

About 250 relatives and friends of the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence W. Frost, Lewis street, attended a reception July 30 at Girls Community club which honored the couple on their golden wedding anniversary. The Rev. Mr. Frost, a retired minister, was pastor of Medford Apostolic Faith church for 35 years.

Senior Citizens Center Activities Are Listed

Ray Neptune, formerly of Burlingame, Calif., but now a resident of the Rogue Valley manor, will show colored slides of a trip taken to the Northeastern United States and Canada at the Senior Activity center, Monday, August 6, to the Arm Chair Travelers.

The trip will cover a visit to Niagara Falls, a trip down the St. Lawrence river with stops at several Canadian cities including Ottawa and Quebec, and parts of the New England states. Other pictures include a trip along the Hudson with a visit to Hyde park and the President Roosevelt home and memorial and a tour through the Adirondack mountains during the fall.

The showing starts at 1 p.m. Monday at 10 a.m. the Senior Craftsman committee will receive and register seniors interested in taking part in the Senior Craftsman of Oregon branch which is open at the Ashland Art Gallery, 31 Water street, Ashland.

The committee has decided to meet one day each week, on Mondays from 10 to 12 noon to allow other craftsmen to take advantage of this opportunity to show and sell their hand crafted gift articles.

Any person interested who cannot get to the center on Monday should call the center at that time and make special arrangements.

Bob Onstad, owner of the Ashland Gallery, reported to the artist jury last Wednesday, that the number of visitors at the gallery are increasing. The gallery also features a nation wide Shakespearean Art exhibit. A Bard's Coffee shop is open for patrons.

Crafts Listed

Crafts already showing include wood carving, weaving, inlaid wood work, leather work, copper and silver jewelry, glass mosaic and tile work, and ceramics.

The gallery is open to the public from 1 p.m. into the late evening.

Activities continue this week at the center, 601 East Jackson street, for all persons more than 50 years of age.

Tuesdays the art class meets from 1 to 3 p.m. with Mrs. Wanda Williams, teacher and Wednesdays from 10 to noon the copper tooling class is taught by Mrs. Ethel Byers.

Thursdays from 10 to noon the senior orchestra practices with Edward Root, director. On Fridays all seniors are invited to attend the Medford Fifty Plus club session in the Guild hall at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Fifth street and Oakdale avenue, at 12:30 p.m.

Saturday, August 11, the art classes from the center have been asked to exhibit at Lithia Park, Ashland, with the Southern Oregon Society of Artists' Greenwich Village show. The art exhibit starts at 10 a.m. and continues both Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Mothers To Hold Picnic on Tuesday

Medford chapter, Gold Star Mothers club, will be hosts for a picnic Tuesday, August 7, in Lithia park, Ashland. Guests for the event will be the Navy Mothers club, Medford chapter.

The potluck picnic luncheon will be held at noon. Those attending should take table service. A Gold Star Mothers business meeting will follow the lunch.

Who makes it this easy to shop for a new appliance?

Brand Name appliance manufacturers! Each year, these reliable firms use many types of media (newspaper advertising is just one example) to keep you informed of the latest improvements in television sets, transistor radios, washers, dryers and other appliances.

Why? Because Brand Name appliance manufacturers have a basic conviction about their products. They believe in them. And they prove it by advertising in magazines, newspapers, on radio and television, car cards and outdoor. In brief: they give you all the facts to make it easier for you to choose a new appliance.

Count on Brand Name companies. They're leaders—in new products—new ideas—and quality (of course). They're the authorities on style and fashion. Be sure to look closely at the ads in this newspaper. You'll see what we mean.
