

Naumes, Young Gain Net Togas

Mike Naumes and Sharen Young last week won the championships in the tournament which concluded the city park and recreation department's summer tennis instruction program for boys and girls.

In the boys' finale Mike Naumes defeated Scott Carpenter, 6-3, 9-11, 6-4. Tennis instructor and supervisor Bob Huff termed this terrific match the outstanding one of the summer program. Miss Young trimmed Laura Batzer, 6-2, 6-2, in the girls' titular match.

The park and recreation department will wrap up summer tennis activity with a community tournament on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 11 and 12.

Huff reported a good entry so far and said that there is much interest in mixed doubles competition. Contention is planned, too, in men's singles and women's singles and men's and women's doubles. Men's and mixed doubles have $3 entry fee. Men's singles fee is $2 and junior men's and women's $1 each.

Entries close on Friday, Aug. 10. They may be made by telephoning Huff, the tournament chairman, at 772-9443 or by contacting the city recreation office. Fees are due at the time of the first match. Junior men's singles first round will open the tourney at 7 a.m. Saturday with women's singles opening round to follow. Players are to report Saturday morning to the scorer's table at the Medford Senior high courts.

Naumes advanced through the boys' tourney with victories of 7-5, 6-1 over A. T. Highland and 6-3, 6-3 over Chris Rasmussen. Carpenter beat Lee Lumberley, 6-4, 6-4, and Gary Highland, 8-6, 6-3, on his way to the finals.

Miss Young defeated Sandra Irving 6-0, 6-1 and Diane Paulsen, 6-6, 6-3. Miss Batzer advanced against Mary Walsh, 6-3, 7-5, and Kathy Smith, 6-1, 6-1.

SPAHN, ROBERTS SALUTED

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Forget those pennant races for a moment and sound a salute for Warren Spahn and Robin Roberts—two grand old pitchers whose baseball obits were prepared somewhat prematurely.

Spahn, who had only an 8-11 record on July 13, gained his 11th victory of the season when he pitched the Milwaukee Braves to an 8-1 win over the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday while Roberts, winless until June 11, chalked up his seventh triumph for the Baltimore Orioles, 7-2, over the Los Angeles Angels.

The victory was the 320th of Spahn's career and gives him an outside chance to achieve his 13th 20-win season. Roberts' win was the 21st of a career that seemed ended when the New York Yankees released him in June.

Spahn yielded six hits and walked one batter in squaring his season record at 11-11. He was backed by a 10-hit attack which included two homers by Joe Adcock that drove in five runs. Eddie

Mathews also homered for the Braves who dealt Dennis Bennett his seventh defeat. Roberts allowed five hits and also walked only one batter in raising his season mark to 7-4. Triples by Jerry Adair and Dick Williams drove in five Baltimore runs and a homer by Brooks Robinson produced another. The loss was the seventh in 11 games for the Angels, who are now 6½ games behind the front-running New York Yankees in the American league race.

Dodgers Split Twinbill
The Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Chicago Cubs, 4-3 in 14 innings and then suffered a 4-2 loss that ended the league-leaders' three-game win streak; the San Francisco Giants shaded the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1; the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Houston Colts, 7-4, after losing by the same score and the Cincinnati Reds scored a 6-3 win after the New York Mets won their opener, 5-2, in other National League games.

The Chicago White Sox made it two in a row over the Yankees, 3-2, in 13 innings; the Minnesota Twins beat the Detroit Tigers, 8-3, in 11 innings and then lost, 5-2; the Boston Red Sox dropped their opener, 2-0, but then defeated the Washington Senators, 5-4, in 11 innings, and the Kansas City Athletics whipped the Cleveland Indians 3-2 and 5-2 in other AL action.

The Dodgers won the four-hour and one-minute first game when Tommy Davis singled home Tim Lincecum in the 14th inning. Don Cardwell pitched a three-hitter, including a two-run homer by Ron Fairly, to win his fifth game of the season in the nightcap.

O'Dell Takes 13th Victory
Billy O'Dell pitched a five-hitter and singled home the winning run in the seventh inning to post his 13th victory for the Giants. O'Dell was in trouble only in the fourth inning when two singles and Bob Skinner's sacrifice fly produced the Pirates' run.

Minnie Minoso's two-run single and Bill White's three-run homer were the big blows of a five-run fifth-inning Cardinal rally that brought rookie Paul Ooth his first big league win. The Colts rallied for seven runs in the last two innings of the first game with Bob Lillis' fourth single driving in the decisive runs.

Al Jackson pitched a five-hitter and rookie Rick Herscher hit a three-run homer for the Mets in the first game but the Reds split the doubleheader with the aid of Gordy Coleman's three-run homer in the nightcap. Jim Maloney went seven innings to win his fifth game for Cincinnati.

Pizarro Scores Winner
The White Sox pulled out their 13-inning win over the Yankees when pitcher Juan Pizarro singled, went to second on center-fielder Jack Reed's error and scored on a single by rookie Mike Hershberger.

Rich Rollins' two-run homer capped a six-run 11th-inning rally for the Twins in the first game but the Tigers won the nightcap on the wings of a two-run homer by Dick McAuliffe and a two-run double by Al Kaline.

Rookie Howie Koplitz won his second game for the Tigers.

Tom Cheney pitched a five-hitter for the Senators who beat Bill Monbouquette in his first start since pitching a no-hitter. The Red Sox, however, gained a split when Carroll Hardy scored in the 11th inning of the second game on a throwing error by Bob Johnson.

Don Pfister and John Wyatt combined in a four-hit pitching effort for the Athletics in their opener and Kansas City completed the sweep in the nightcap with the aid of Ed Charles' three-run homer.
