

Virginia Again Campaigning For Settlers

New York (UPI) — With about 400 years of experience in handling settlers behind her, the Old Dominion State, Virginia, today is looking for more.

The first ones clambered off tiny sailing ships on the coastal plain, where later to grow the shipping and industrial complex embracing Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News. It was 375 years ago this month that the first child born to English parents in the colony of Virginia came into the world at Roanoke, Virginia Dare.

But today the "settlers" whom the state wishes to encourage come with blueprints and specifications in their hands, and often as not step from private planes.

Active Campaign

Virginia, like many another state below the Mason-Dixon Line in recent years, has decided to campaign actively to present the state's attractions to industrialists.

It has set up a Division of Industrial Development and Planning, directed by Joseph G. Hamrick, a management consultant engineer.

The state has a solid network of industry now, but Hamrick says it has room for more.

Hamrick and others cite an ample labor force, good employer-employee relations, ample coal supplies and above all a plentiful supply throughout most of the state of usable water, as some of Virginia's advantages. Electric power facilities, he said, are more than sufficient, and expanding.

"We aren't looking for growth for growth's sake," he said. "But we think Virginia is a good place to live, with a lot to offer."

Holts Play Hosts At Annual Picnic

Creswell, Ore. — (UPI) — The Harry Holts can return to Korea this week with a warm feeling.

The Holts held their fifth annual picnic here Saturday for some of the Korean orphans and adoptive parents they have brought together during the past seven years. About 450 parents and children turned up at the Holt farm — from as far away as Oklahoma.

"We had a very good time," Mrs. Holt said after the picnic was over.

The Holts have found homes for some 2,600 Korean orphans since 1955. They plan to return to Korea Friday to continue their current orphanage work.

SIGNS TRADE PACT

Berlin — (UPI) — East Germany announced Sunday that it signed a trade agreement with Communist China Saturday. East Germany will deliver machinery and industrial equipment to China in exchange for minerals, chemicals, textiles, tea, food products, and light industrial goods. No value was indicated for the treaty.

Adventure in Paradise?

Sergeant Joe Kerson is not in the trenches for the scenery. He's there with lots of other G.I.'s... waiting... watching... standing guard... fighting loneliness.

There is no USO on Joe's island — as there is in 32 other military danger zones. With 2,750,000 G.I.'s, USO hasn't been able to keep pace. For lack of funds, thousands of watch-worn, fatigued G.I.'s are being deprived of the USO's spiritual help... its vital measure of home.

Well, you can do something about that by giving to your United Fund or Community Chest, from which the USO gets a well-deserved share. USO activities well-deserved because USO tries to reach all G.I.'s — your boy among them — so he'll never have to wonder...

Signatures Sought For Fluoridation

Portland — (UPI) — The Portland Junior Chamber of Commerce will make a last effort to obtain enough signatures to get a fluoridation measure on the November ballot, a spokesman said today.

Vern Pearson said about 200 volunteers will canvass homes before the deadline Aug. 10. About 9,000 signatures are needed.

Reuther To Confer On Pending Strike

Los Angeles — (UPI) — Labor leader Walter Reuther met with President Kennedy's three-man committee today in the first of a series of mediation conferences to avert a pending aerospace industry strike.

Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers union, of which the United Aerospace Workers is a division, flew here from Washington for the talks.

Dr. George W. Taylor, chairman of the committee, said the first meeting was scheduled with representatives of North American Aviation and the UAW to consider the "hard core" issues — economic and union security demands.

The deadlocked negotiations involved the UAW and International Association of Machinists and five major firms in the aircraft-missile industry.

A strike could cripple aerospace plants and facilities at military bases throughout the nation.

Hills Creek Dam Becomes Official

Oakridge, Ore. — (UPI) — The 46 million Hills Creek dam was dedicated Saturday in ceremonies attended by Sen. Wayne Morse, Gov. Mark Hatfield and Gen. William F. Cassidy, deputy chief of U.S. Army Engineers.

The dam, which already was in operation, took nearly six years to build. It generates 30,000 kilowatts of electricity. It works as a partner to Lookout Point and Dexter dams on the Willamette river.

The dam has a reservoir eight miles long and 300 feet at its deepest point.

Area Students On Stanford Honor List

Three Rogue valley students were among those honored for high scholastic standing during the 1961-62 school year at Stanford University.

Miss Lucy Ellen Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Jones, 4345 South Pacific highway, a 1962 graduate of the university, was one of the three area students who maintained a grade-point ratio of 3.3 or higher for the three quarters.

The two undergraduates named to the honor list were William L. Benson, son of Mr. A. C. Fries, 806 Harmony lane, and Jerome Clyde Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lee Burns, 121 Bush street, both Ashland.

Eisenhower Tours Valley in France

Paris — (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower headed down the Loire Valley for a tour of its world famous chateaux today, accompanied by his grandchildren, Barbara, 13, and David, 14.

Eisenhower and his party left Paris in a big blue limousine but Mrs. Eisenhower remained in their hotel suite.

Mrs. Eisenhower went to bed on doctors' orders Saturday after wincing her shoulder when she and her husband arrived here for a six-day visit.

Has Skull Fracture

Redmond — (UPI) — An 8-year-old boy was in fair condition with a fractured skull at a hospital here today following an accident at the Deschutes County Fair Saturday.

The boy, Jack Smith of Warm Springs, suffered the skull fracture when he was struck by a horse during a race at the fair.

Commander Picked For Fighter Group

Portland — (UPI) — Lt. Col. Patrick E. O'Grady, a veteran commercial and military pilot, has been named commander of the 142nd Fighter Group of the Oregon Air National Guard.

He succeeds Col. Waldo E. Timm who has been ordered to a four-year tour of duty at the Pentagon.

O'Grady is a holder of the Distinguished Flying Cross for flying 79 missions over the Himalaya Mountains during World War II. He served in the Korean War and has been a member of the Portland International Airport Guard since 1954.

He has been a captain of West Coast Airlines since the mid-1940s and was commander of the fighter group's flying arm, the 123rd fighter-interceptor squadron.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

OLIVIA DE HAVILLAND, in her gay and successful book, "Every Frenchman Has One," tells how, shortly after she married a famous French editor, and moved to Paris to live, she met a leading cabinet minister of France. The minister obviously was enchanted by Miss de Havilland and confided to her that she would enjoy certain rights in Paris that she never could count on in America.

"For example," whispered the minister, "if your husband Pierre should stray from the home fires, and if, in spite of your Anglo-Saxon heritage, a flash of Latin passion should overcome you, and you shoot him, you won't have a thing to worry about: any French jury will acquit you. But, I must add, if you marry a second Frenchman, and he too proves unfaithful—I advise against shooting a second time. It won't prove quite so easy!"

Here's a tip-off on some of the new novels that are being published these days. Bill Feather, of Cleveland, writes, "Because I respect my wife, I have avoided using certain four-letter words in her presence all through our married life. The other day I picked up a best-seller she was reading and found five of the words in the very first chapter!"

In Wappinger's Falls, a farmer was trying to sell a broken-down old horse to a city fellow. After walking him slowly around the field, he remarked, "Got a handsome coat hasn't he?" The city fellow listened to the old horse breathe for a moment, then replied, "I like his coat all right—but not his pants."

John Straley now orders his cook to mix pancake batter with alphabet soup, so that when he entertains big shots he can give them monogrammed flapjacks.
