Applegate Valley - While local forestry personnel are enjoying what Ranger Neil Suttell describes as "a breather" due to rainy weather, the regional fire crew at Star Ranger station received a call at 9:30 p.m. Thursday to go to a fire at Las Vegas, Nev.

Twenty-five men went to the Nevada fire scene by plane, accompanied by their foreman, Pete Gregory. Suttell said local guards and lookouts are on their posts busy with extra jobs, including slash burning, putting up road signs and maintenance of trails and buildings.
