Tea Given For Co-Eds

An important August social event was the second annual tea which Rogue Valley Pan-Hellenic association gave August 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berwick L. Wood, 2235 Oakwood drive. Guests were young women who will be entering colleges or universities this fall. Campus clothing from Jean Hart's store was shown during the afternoon.

Among the guests and hostesses at the tea were (left to right) Miss Carleen Carter, who plans to enroll at the University of Oregon in September; Miss Jennifer Espey, who will enter Marylhurst college as a freshman in the fall; Miss Marlene Klym who will be a new student at Mt. Angel college, and Mrs. James E. Tizekker.

Mrs. E. J. DeVoe (at left) and Mrs. Blaine Devers were two of the hostesses for the second annual tea which Rogue Valley Pan-Hellenic association gave August 4. Among the guests was Miss Susan Reavis, who will be a freshman at Holy Names college, Oakland, Calif., next month.
