Mr. and Mrs. Stearns will travel to Aurora for the wedding.

Miss Zimmerman Wed To Jay Carlton Mullen

From San Marino, Calif., comes news of the wedding of Miss Nancy Jo Zimmerman to Jay Carlton Mullen of Medford. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Norval F. Zimmerman, San Marino, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Mullen, 27 North Barneburg road, Medford.

The marriage ceremony took place July 28 at Christ chapel of San Marino Community church. The Rev. Ben T. Cowles officiated. The ceremony was attended by about 50 family friends and relatives, and the reception which followed in the garden of the Zimmerman home was for 250 guests.

The bride's gown of white peau de soie, was fashioned with portrait neckline, and a cummerbund of Alencon lace accented the high waistline. A Dior rose held the folds of the skirt at the back. A leaf-shaped headpiece held the bride's shoulder-length veil and she carried an open Bible with lily-of-the-valley, stephanotis and butterfly orchids.

Mrs. John N. Snowden Jr., Sacramento, Calif., sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Susan Zimmerman, sister of the bride, and Miss Judith Erdahl, Portland. Their aquamarine frocks were fashioned with bodices of frosted lace and bell-shaped skirts of peau de soie with velvet bows at the waistline and all wore matching veiled headpieces and short white glove gloves. They carried bouquets of white gladiolus.

Dr. Zimmerman gave his daughter in marriage and Frank Albert, Medford, was best man for Mr. Mullen, Bruce Zimmerman, brother of the bride, and Jack Mullen, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

For the wedding ceremony and reception the bride's mother wore a beige silk dress with beige lace overblouse. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a sheath of pale pink silk. Their flowers were white orchids.

White carnations and gladioli decorated the chapel and for the garden reception, large hanging baskets of white flowers were arranged around the pool, the house and the garden. A boat of flowers floated in the pool and candies were placed on the lily pads.

The newlyweds traveled to Mexico for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a brown linen suit. In September they will go to Lexington, Ky., where the bridegroom will study for his master's degree in history at the University of Kentucky and Mrs. Mullen will continue her study of art. Later Mr. Mullen plans to apply for a teaching position in Tanganyika, Africa.

Among the wedding guests were Bruce West, William Foote and Jerry Close, all of Medford.
